N THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE Lizzie Maxson,

Augustus E. Maxson Defendant
To Augustus E. Maxson:
In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer, the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before the 7th day of November 1905, which is the time prescribed in the order for the publication. This roused the highlander, and, saying, "I'll settle you afterward, Mr. Keefe," he rushed in again at Slavin. Again Slavin met him with his left, staggered him and before he fell took a step forward and delivered a terrific right hand blow on his jaw. Poor Sandy went down in a heap amid the yells of Bianey, Keefe and some others of the gang.

I was in despair when in came Baptiste and Graeme.

One look at Sandy, and Baptiste tore off his coat and cap, slammed them on the floor, danced on them and with a long drawn "Sap-r-r-rie!" rushed at Slavin.

But Graeme caught him by the back of the neck, saying, "Hold on, little man," and, turning to Slavin, pointed to Sandy, who was reviving under Nelson's care, and said, "What's this stage of the said of the place of beginning containing 4 acres more or less in Fruit Vale Addition as shown by plat on file in Hillsboro, Washington Co., Oregon; and finat she have judgment as a point of the place of beginning containing 4 acres more or less in Fruit Vale Addition as shown by plat on file in Hillsboro, Washington Co., Oregon; and finat she have judgment as a point of the place of beginning to the place of beginning to the place of beginning to making the bonds of the following said line of lot No. 6: 28 ft; thence e to the place of beginning to making the bonds of the neck, saying.
