

Mrs. Graham from the Columbia is visiting with her mother Mrs. Ann Freeman.

Duck shooting was good last Sunday for this county. One party of three brought home half a hundred.

City Engineer Wm Elliott and family of Portland visited with his sister, Mrs. Redmond, over Sunday last.

Dressed hogs are selling in the local market at 6 1/2 and 7 cents per pound. At that price there appears to be as many received as our butchers can handle.

The Portland Evening Journal was enlarged to a 12-page paper this week. Other attractions have been added, so that it is at the front as a news disseminator.

Congressman Tongue plans to start to Washington, D. C., on Wednesday of next week, or earlier if possible. Congress assemblies one week from Monday next.

A district teachers institute will be held in the Reedville school house on Saturday, Nov. 29th. The meeting is the first one of the year to be held in the Hillsboro district as planned by the county teachers association at its organization last summer.

Empounded Nov. 17, in the city of Hillsboro, one bay gelding with blaze face shod all around. Look to be five years old. Unless redeemed sooner will be sold at auction Nov. 26, 1902 at 2 o'clock p. m. at Wiley & Dennis' stable, Hillsboro.

Mrs. W. C. Redmond thinks it possible that they will have to vacate the premises where they now live, therefore she offers for sale her fine collection of roses. Mrs. Redmond has a great number of rare roses and purchasers have a choice collection from which to select.

The P. U. football team of Forest Grove started yesterday morning for Eugene, where they struggle with the U. of O. team this afternoon. Our boys hardly expect to score, yet they hope to hold the Eugene dudes to three touchdowns. We of Wadding County hope the score will be 6 to 0 in favor of our team. And it may.

The public school will hold a fair at the public school building next Thursday, Thanksgiving when an exhibition of all school work that can be put on will be shown. This will include penmanship, drawing, graphic illustration of English analysis, geography and the like. The exhibits will be displayed both up stairs and down. It is hoped that parents and friends of education will visit the school on this occasion; adverse critics too, for if there is anything that can be better done, the school management will be pleased to have it pointed out.

An evidence of the richness of the gravel of Rogue river is evinced by the amount of gold that is seen and removed during the process of building the dam of the Condon Water Power Company, at Toto. In order to put the timbers of the structure on the bedrock it is necessary to do considerable excavating, as a layer of gravel several feet in depth has washed and formed on the river's bottom. In removing this gravel, the workmen found a number of large nuggets, but these were picked up accidentally, as the men were engaged to put in the dam and not to mine. Mrs. Ray and daughters, who reside with Dr. Ray at the dam, during the work of building the structure, amuse themselves by panning the dirt and gravel removed from the river's bed. The ladies have been rewarded by finding a number of nuggets, some of them several dollars value. Pans containing 50 cents in gold are frequently washed out by the fair miners. Considering this small portion of the Rogue as a basis on which to figure it would be almost beyond one's power to compare the millions in yellow grains that are mixed with the gravel of the river from its source to its mouth. Grant's Pass Observer.

Mass Meeting.
A mass meeting of the citizens of Hillsboro is called to meet at the City Hall at 7:30 P. M. on Saturday Nov. 30, 1902, for the purpose of placing in nomination a ticket to be voted for at the ensuing election to occur Dec 1, 1902.

Sheriff Sewell had a wet chase last Friday for Dave Enyart whom he wanted on the charge of horse stealing. About Sunday night Nov. 9th Wm Joss, who lives near Glencoe, lost a horse, from his barn. Suspicion rested on Enyart and he was hunted. Word came that he was loitering about Willamette slough. Sheriff Sewell when he went over heard of his man but could not come up with him. He came home Saturday night and waited for reports for which he had arranged. About midnight Sunday last a messenger came and gave information of the location of Enyart and by three o'clock Monday morning Mr. Sewell was on the road; and by six or a little later he had his man who was found in a hay barn near Rocky Point on the Willamette. Enyart is surprised that any one should want him for stealing a horse and indeed it may be a little difficult to secure a conviction before the lost horse is found. Enyart will be required to answer another charge, that of assault and battery committed on the person of Wm Cowanah at Glencoe some time since. Enyart is the same man who was convicted of larceny and sentenced to the penitentiary; at that time when the sheriff after sentence took him from the Court room by the back stair he passed by Judge McBride's station. He addressed the court, saying: "I'll get even with you yet" or "I'll see you later". The judge quietly replied: "All right". By the way things look the Judge will see him again.

The members of the Local Minstrel troupe are in readiness for their entertainment which is set for next Tuesday evening, Nov. 25. There are several features that by themselves would justify a full house, but how much more when united. Mr. John Wall, the brilliant performer, will have lead of the orchestra. Mr. Wall had for the most part given up music except for private and personal entertainment, but for this occasion he breaks over the rule. Mr. Vrooman, though not appearing often in public, will render two solos. Mr. Blair, who wields the baton for the Minstrel band is inimitable. Then there is Mr. Boscow, who sings in chorus—O, but it is amusing. Tickets are already selling and those wanting choice reserved seats must buy early. The proceeds are to be applied to the entertainment of the State Dairy Association. Remember the date, Tuesday, Nov. 25.

Mrs. J. M. Bridges who has been visiting in Texas for several weeks, returned home by the morning train of last Friday.

Would Like To
"Of course you will attend the institute on the 29th" I said to a teacher a few days since who is teaching her first school within a few miles of the place at which the said institute is to be held. "I should like to" she replied and when I again urged her to attend she said "I should like to very much, indeed." This to me was tantamount to saying she would not do so, and it occurred to me that were I a school Supt. and such parties at their examinations feel near the "dead line," I should not "shade up" their grades very much to get them into the pedagogic fold.

Do our most successful physicians, dentists and other live people who go hundreds of miles to attend lectures exhibit such woful indifference? "A word to the wise" ought to suffice. Der Teacher.

If a Man Lie to You
And say some other salve, ointment, lotion, oil or alleged healer is as good as Backlin's Arnica Salve, tell him thirty years of marvelous cures of piles, burns, boils, corns, fells, ulcers, cuts, scalds, bruises and skin eruptions prove it's the best and cheapest. 25c at Baileys' Pharmacy.

A destructive fire on Tuesday night last destroyed a great part of the business district of North Yamhill. The loss is placed at $20,000 the principle sufferer being Messner & Vaubelme general merchandise who lose $15,000.

R. B. Goodin received a message at Salem last Thursday night at nine o'clock giving information of the dangerous turn of his mother's illness. By taking a team and driving west into Yamhill County he intercepted the morning train to Portland at St. Jo, and reached the Hillsboro station 12 hours earlier than he could have done by coming by way of Portland. He got to his father's house several hours before his mother died.

At the Irrigation Congress in Portland the old officers were reelected, though there was opposition enough so that the successful men knew they were running. A. H. Devers of the firm of Closett & Devers, wholesale grocers, Portland, was chosen president. Congressman elect, Williamson, led the peoples' interests against the capitalists interested in private irrigation schemes and seems to have won. Williamson's speech is much applauded.

All of Senator Simon's nominees to be cadets to the U. S. Naval Academy have fallen down and Oregon is not now represented in that school. The examinations have proven too rigid for those sent by Mr. Simon. The next appointments will be made in March 1903 by Senator Mitchell and Senator Simon's successor. The examination will occur in April.

The U. of O. Eugene, foot ball team met the Albany team last Saturday at Albany where the result was a repitition of the early game, scoreless, though the report of the game is to the effect that the Eugene boys outplayed the Albany eleven. Comparing this game, and the one played a few days before between the Eugene and the Corvallis teams it would seem that the players at O. A. C. are the better. The O. A. C. team has challenged the Albany team to play a game on the Willamette University grounds, Salem, on Saturday, December 6th, which is the earliest date open for the O. A. C. people. The Albany team has done a good deal of talking, but here is an opportunity to play a little.

A correspondent wants to know the difference between a Macadam and a Telford road. Both are rock roads but differ in the way the rock is applied. The Macadam road bed is graded and the earth well packed by rolling. Then crushed rock, pieces that will pass through a two inch hole, is spread on the prepared bed to a depth of ten or twelve inches. Then a little cart, is spread on, and the big roller, the heavier the better, drawn back and forth till the broken stone is thoroughly settled. If it is not rolled, the road is not finished till travel has used it long enough to settle and "form" the crushed rock into a solid mass. Sometimes a less thickness of rock is spread, but the road is not perfect. The support is not strong enough to bear the weight of traffic and soon there are ruts. The same grading is required for the Telford road. On the dirt is then carefully fitted large stones that when set will beas smoothly a surface as possible and a perfectly locked bed of rock at least ten inches thick. On this rock foundation is spread three or four inches of crushed rock such as is used on the Macadam road. The surface is finished with rock screening if the builder has them or with a little earth. All is rolled as in building the other. There is not much, if any, difference in the value or stability of the roads when finished. Owing to the amount of hand labor required, the Telford road is considered the more expensive. More machinery can be used in building a Macadam road than the other. There is a machine even for spreading the rock on the prepared grade and it is said to do more perfect work than can be done by hand and when the same thickness of rock is used the road is as rigid as the one with large stone at the bottom.

The Best Remedy for Croup.
This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croups is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as hives syrup and toul, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by the Delta Drug Store.

Married at Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 14, Miss Bessie Rose of Hillsboro, Oregon, and Mr. E. L. James. The bride and groom have started home and are due to arrive next week. They will at once establish their home on Mr. James' farm near Cornelius.

The serious illness of Mrs. John Goodin aged 73 years mentioned last week terminated fatally last Friday. The funeral occurred on Sunday.

It is again announced that in this county we have not yet had a frost. Potato tops and other tender vines are green.

That could not be said yesterday morning as the ground was white.

Lost, strayed or stolen.—A fox terrier dog, about one year old, white with tan markings. Suitable reward for his return. Thos. H. Tongue.

How is This
When in want of furniture, carpets, rockers wall-paper and matting in fact any thing in my line, step in and get prices. I am satisfied that we can suit you and as far as prices are concerned they will surely please you as I sell at and below Portland. A trial is sure to be a customer. Donelson's Furniture Store, Cor. 3d and Main.

Our townsman, Mr. Zina Wood had an experience this week with one of the trade combines. He wanted some lumber, doors and windows and sent his order to a firm in Portland with the individual members of which he was acquainted. No attention was given to the order. A second enquiry was answered that the lumber would cost "about" so much but the doors and windows were not estimated. Mr. Wood thought he would not send "about" money enough but go himself. He went to a large saw mill on the East Side and personally submitted his order. "We do not handle doors, windows, or moulding." "Do you not sell lumber?" "Yes." "Segregate the order." That was done and the cash passed when serenity was established. The same order was taken to a sash and door firm. "We do not deal in lumber." "Don't want lumber, got it." So the doors were bought. But here is the annoyance. A trip to Portland with attendant expenses; two freight way bills when one shipment would have been cheaper. Economy is not conserved by combining business under one management at best not sometimes.

Hon. S. B. Huston has been elected president of the State Bar Association which held its annual meeting in Portland this week. Mr. Huston has been an active member of the association for several years, during which time he has been a member of the Grievance Committee; though in the past year he has been on the Executive Committee; and this advancement is but a just recognition of his worth.

The U. of O. foot ball team of Eugene has challenged any college team of the Northwest claiming championship to play for such supremacy on Dec. 6th. The O. A. C. promptly calls the challenge notwithstanding it lays no claim to championship and fixes the 6th, provided Albany does not accept their challenge for that date. Albany has declined so it is probable that the two best teams in the state will scrimmage again.

Mr. James Borwick who lives near Reedville is touched with grief this fall. Several members of his family have been stricken during the fall with typhoid fever and up to date he has not been able to stamp out the contagion. His 13 year old daughter was one of the stricken and she was not strong enough to resist the shock. She died on Wednesday and was buried yesterday in the Tualatin Plain Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

Messrs. Hinshaw & Wheeler are prepared to pay $10 per ton for hand picked apples delivered at their evaporator at Hillsboro. The company's dryer is doing well on apples, better than was expected. Some varieties require only five hours for drying and the most refractory remain in the hot air box but seven hours.

Messrs. Heidel & Wall, real estate sold the past week 75 acres of the S. A. Holcomb d i c to Mr. Lester E. Waldron who comes from Rockford Ill. Mr. Waldron went to Portland last Tuesday to meet his family consisting of mother and sister who were ready to start for Oregon when he telegraphed that he had bought a home.

We have heard of delegations and conventions receiving a "warm welcome" but the State Irrigation Convention that met in Portland last Tuesday received a "wet welcome." Natural irrigation was active but it did not seem to moisten the delegates from the arid counties east of the Cascades.

The first teacher's institute for Hillsboro District will be held in Reedville school-house Saturday, Nov. 29, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. The following programme of exercises will be observed: General Discussion "School Libraries and How to Secure Them." Composition Work E. E. Watts, Northwestern History Prof. J. H. Robertson. Devices for Securing Attention and Arousing Interest in Pupils S. T. Adams.

Afternoon Session. From 1:30 to 4. What the Teacher Should Aim to Accomplish Dean W. N. Ferrin Primary Geography Miss Rose Wilcox. The Press as a Factor of Popular Education Hon. J. P. Wager, "Editorial writer on Evening Telegram." Question Box.

A lunch will be served at the school house, at noon, by the citizens of Reedville. The lunch will be free but teachers who desire to do so will be given an opportunity to make contributions either of money or books, for the benefit of the library of the Reedville school. The above program will be interspersed with appropriate musical and rhetorical exercises.

A letter received this week from Baker City states that their weather is not ideal. Cold falls, sleet and snow vexes the resident there, whereas our precipitation is warm rain.

The delegates from Washington County to the irrigation convention were Hon. H. Y. Gates and L. E. Wilkes appointed by Mayor Bailey and W. K. Newell. The counties most numerously represented were Crook and Baker, the former having 43 delegates and the latter 32.

The latest estimate is that the Oregon prune crop for 1902 will bring into the state a half million of dollars. To produce this sum of money, 13,000,000 pounds of dried prunes have been put on the market. Last year the product was 18,000,000 pounds. Next year there should be a crop of 20,000,000 cured, but to do this additional evaporators must be installed.

Mr. Calvin Thomas and Miss Myra Matheny were married at the M. E. parsonage in McMinnville Monday last by Rev. Henry F. Atkinson of the M. E. Church. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will make their future home in the neighborhood of Gaston, where they are well and favorably known.

Rev. R. H. Kennedy will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject of the morning sermon will be "Movement vs. Growth" and of the evening, "The Value of a Man." Sunday School at 10 a. m., Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. All are invited to these services.

A dealer in flour and feed met in Portland a few days ago, stated that the rise in the price of flour had been a real benefit to business. Exporters are active and there is more doing than was ever hoped for at the beginning of the season. He thought another raise of ten cents per barrel would make the demand so lively that the mills would be unable to fill orders.

The meetings in progress at the Christian church for the last four weeks closed Sunday evening. Twenty four were added to the membership during the time and interest in the work much increased. Elder Brown is an able speaker and was well liked by the people. He started to Santa Cruz, Cal., Monday whither his family had gone early in the fall. The congregation at this place was very reluctant to let him go, but he preferred California to the rainy winters of Oregon.

Guatemala a Central American state just south of Mexico, has suffered severely in the neighborhood of its volcano Santa Maria which violently erupted about the first of the month. The loss of life it is feared will reach 4000 persons, and the destruction of coffee plantations has been great. This year's crop of coffee was ready for market. The destruction of 20,000 tons is announced. Communication with the inland provinces is poor and the story of the horrors attending the eruption is just reaching the Coast. American capitalists are largely interested in the districts destroyed.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.
License to wed was issued Nov. 15, to Chas W Metz, 25; and Lenna M Keen, 19. Nov. 18, to Albert G Lambert, 24; and May La Velle Clarks, 19.

It was Hon. W. N. Barrett and wife who were surprised last Tuesday evening by a party of their friends who had remembered that the date was the 20th anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Barrett had gone out in the evening to attend a church committee meeting. About 8:30 o'clock one of their sons carried word that a neighbor and his wife were calling at their house. Mr. Barrett at once asked for permission to retire. At home the door was opened by Mrs. Hoston who introduced them to their guests and presented a fine vase. The vase was then filled by Mrs. Siger with a beautiful bunch of chrysanthemums. The callers were a full delegation of Bathbone sisters. Games amused the younger people and social conversation entertained the elders. When the sisters spread lunch from their own baskets, Mr. Barrett remarked that home just then much resembled a Methodist Parsonage. Just who had kept tab on the dates was not disclosed, but the occasion was not forgotten.
