Early home grown peaches, pears and apples are now in the market and people who have good gardens are enjoying sweet corn, cauliflower and cucumbers.

Father J. D. Bates of Patton Valley, was in town last Friday. He was 78 years old that day and has been a resident of this county for fifty years.—Forest Grove Times.

The Grand concert Saturday night brought out a good crowd, a good many of whom patronized the ice cream tables which were spread beneath the trees in the court house park.

Read H. D. Smeitser's ad. in another column. He is delivering fir wood at $3 and oak at $4 per cord, four-foot lengths. Now is a good time to order your supply for winter.

Hon. D. M. C. Gault was in the city last Saturday night meeting friends and renewing acquaintances. He went from here to McMinnville Sunday morning and returned to Salem in the evening.

Schulmerich's new brick block is nearing completion, and part of it is now occupied with carriage and machinery. It is a fine structure and adds much to the appearance of the Schulmerich corner.

Mrs. J. W. H. Adkins, of Gales Creek, died last Tuesday, after a suffering of two years from cancer, and the funeral was held yesterday. This is the third death within a month that has occurred in Mr. Adkin's family.

Mrs. D. W. Bath and two children will leave next Monday for Newport and Yaquina Bay for a month "by the sad sea waves." We hope to find time to join them and enjoy a few days on the coast before they return.

A party of about 25 from Hillsboro came in on Sunday to camp at the beach. Mr. Oliver, the baker had a horse on his bread that took all in his store. 100 loaves to the hungry Hillsborites.—Tillamook Herald.

Rev. Mr. Curran will preach in the Congregational church next Sunday morning at 11:00. There will be no preaching service in the evening. Sunday school and Christian endeavor at the regular hours.

Irving Bath, of this office, left this morning for St. Louis and the World's fair. Returning he will visit friends at Kansas City, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Sauk Centre, Minn., and expects to be absent about three weeks.

Threshers have been turning out the golden grain this week for both F. M. Heidel and Mr. Hays. The music of the machines is heard from all points of the compass. The yield is not large but the quality is fair.

L. M. House and W. E. Thorne left yesterday for Wilson river for a ten days' outing. They took along all the paraphernalia for hunting and fishing and if they do not have a good time it will be no fault of theirs.

Newell Buntin, of Portland, visited over Sunday with the family of T. P. Kendall. Mr. Buntin has been employed as shipping clerk for the Hazelwood Co., but resigned and left on Wednesday for his old home in Palestine Ill.

One fare for the round trip to Portland over the Southern Pacific, from August 1 to 2, good to return until the evening of August 4. Except the time limit, there will be no restrictions on tickets. They are good for men, women or children.

Mr. F. M. Kelsey has our thanks for a basket of fine cherries, which he left at our office yesterday morning. They were of the Royal Ann and Black Republican varieties, large and delicious. To an Eastern man this splendid fruit is a wonder.

The families of J. M. Greear and W. J. Benson went to Newport Monday where they will spend the month in the cool and health-giving breezes which sweep off the Pacific. Claude Greear is manager of the Climax Mill during his father's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crandall leave Monday for their home at Cheboygan, Mich., after a visit of a couple of months with friends in this city. Mr. Crandall, who is a first class photographer, has combined business with pleasure, and has done considerable work in his line while here.

Geo. A. Carleton has been at Forest Grove for the past two days in company with Mr. Grayden who is working up the electric road between Forest Grove and Portland. Mr. Carleton says there is but $15,000 between the road and a failure. "It's a go."

Forest fires last Sunday destroyed the house and contents of Joseph Miller, living 6 miles north of Mountaineale, and also the residence of a Mr. Woodbury, living near Buck Mountain. It is supposed campers started the fires by carelessly leaving their fires to creep to the brush which is as dry as tinder.

W. O. Donelson and wife and Miss Jessie and Earl Donelson, Miss Lucy Humphreys and Miss Byrtle Sabin left Wednesday for Cannon Beach, near Astoria, where they will go into camp for a month. Mr. Donelson will make several trips to Hillsboro during his absence just to keep his line in so that hard work will not come on him all of a sudden when he returns.

On Tuesday County Treasurer W. M. Jackson brought to this office a stem of Black Republican cherries which were beautiful. On the branch, which was just eight inches long, were clustered over one hundred fine cherries. Mr. Jackson says the tree was loaded with the luscious fruit, and the sample handed us are certainly as fine as anything of the kind we have seen this year.

Last Sunday morning Mrs. Roberts of Lincoln, Neb., occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church and also addressed a meeting at 3 p. m. to ladies only on the subject of home missions. As the meetings had not previously been announced, but attendance was slim but thoroughly enjoyed by those present. The Home Missionary Society of that church was re-organized and many new names added to their membership.

Miss Gertrude Kendall entertained a number of her friends on Tuesday evening, it being her birthday. Those present were the Misses Huston, Peters, Thorne, Burris, Donelson and Blanche Kendall, the Messrs. Frank and John Peters, Sholes, Russell, Rasmussen, Mack, and Frank Kendall. Games were played until a late hour, after which the young men departed, leaving the girls to enjoy a "slumber party."

H. Taylor Hill, of Mountaineale, left a sample of timothy at the office of Mayor Cornelius which holds over anything of the kind we have seen this season. It was grown by Mr. Hill, is 9 1/2 inches in height, with heads ten inches long, and was left for Mr. Wall to add to his collection of fruits and grasses for the State and Lewis and Clark fairs. Peter Grossen, of Phillips, also brought in a fine sample of wheat. The straw is 5 1/2 feet high and the grain is large and plump.

Hon. S. B. Huston and family resided at home last Friday, after an absence of just seventy-two days. They are delighted with the St. Louis fair and enjoyed every minute of their visit in the South and East. The return trip was made via St. Paul and Minneapolis and a visit was made to the famous Minnehaha Falls and beautiful Lake Minnetonka, one of the grandest summer resorts in the world. They leave next week for their summer cottage at Newport for a month's outing.

Miss Anna T. Hyland, of Beaverton, who has been employed as stenographer by W. N. Barrett, Esq., left Wednesday morning to spend her summer vacation. Later she will go to the coast with Mrs. Ed. Kuratli and others. Miss Hyland is an excellent stenographer and her numerous friends hope she will thoroughly enjoy her visit to the seaside.

County Superintendent Ball has been engaged as principal of schools of La Fayette, Yamhill county. Mr. Ball has made an efficient head of the school system of this county and leaves his work in fine shape. Incidentally it may be noted that he gets more for nine months teaching than for a whole year as superintendent. There are some officers in this county that are shamefully underpaid and a re-adjustment of salaries ought to be made by the coming session of the legislature.—Forest Grove Times.

Rev. J. F. Day has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Baptist church, which has been accepted, and about September 1st will move his family to La Grande, where he has accepted a call to the Baptist church in that city. Mr. Day has been here for the past two years and it is with regret that the congregation of his church learned of his determination to depart for other fields. He is an able minister, a hard worker in the church and his friends here wish him unbounded success in his new home.

Last Friday the M. E. Sunday school held its annual picnic at the mineral springs, on Mr. Hale's place just west of town. It is a delightful place to spend an uncomfortably hot day, and hardly a day passes but finds some of our people enjoying the shade there. A young son of Ed. Schulerich, who was a member of the picnic party, had a narrow escape from drowning. The lad was in bathing and stepped into a hole and sank from sight. He would undoubtedly have drowned but for Frank Kendall who ran to his rescue.

Last Monday was the hottest day of the year and the warmest ever known in Oregon with the exception of 1891, when the mercury went two degrees higher—102. One prostration is reported from Portland, the first ever there, brought on by excessive heat. The breeze from the ocean cooled off the atmosphere by 9 o'clock in the evening, when sweetening humanity went to rest, and long before morning it was cool enough to sleep with the usual coverings.

At a meeting of the school board held Wednesday evening, three teachers were engaged for the coming school year, and the regular course of study will be considered on which will be the high school decided on, which will consist of algebra, English, Latin and Greek and Roman history. It was decided the tuition for non-residents should be $24 per year. The list of teachers for the coming year is:

High School—B. W. Barnes, principal.

Eighth Grade—T. P. Kendall, assistant principal.

Seventh Grade—Miss Anna Chalmers.

Sixth Grade—Miss Lucy Humphreys.

Fifth Grade—Miss Jennie Beamish.

Fourth Grade—Miss Maud Wilson.

Second Grade—Miss Rose Wilcox.

First Grade—Mrs. Mary M. Pettinger. School begins Monday, September 19.

High School Held.

The school meeting held at the school house last Saturday for the purpose of deciding whether Hillsboro should have a high school or not was decided in the affirmative. There was not a large attendance, but only two votes were cast against the proposition.

Lawn Social.

The Woman's Relief Corps will give an ice cream social on the lawn at the residence of F. A. Haines, between Sixth and Seventh streets, East Hillsboro, on Friday evening, August 5. Everybody cordially invited.

Cornelius.

Regular Correspondent.

Alger M. Fitch started for Cottonwood, Idaho, (where his brother resides) yesterday afternoon, to work in the harvest fields.

Alfred Hohman, of Blooming, returned Saturday from an extended trip through Washington, looking for a location.

Quite a large amount of hay is being stored here in the warehouse belonging to C. Buchanan.

Elder M. M. Anderson will preach at Aumsville, Marion county, Sunday, July 31st, by request of the pastor of the Christian church, of that place.

The A. C. Sunday school, of Cornelius, is planning to visit the Gales Creek school, Sunday, July 31st.

C. W. Fitch visited relatives at Carlton, July 29th and 27th.

A. Buning and wife went to Portland, Thursday morning.

We might find a reason for it not raining in Russia, but what is the matter with the Willamette valley.

George Seiser, of Portland, and Frank Koloch, of Moscow, Idaho, are visiting Mrs. Kaloeh and family.

Russian Minister Assassinated.

St. Petersburg, July 28.—(10:35 A. M.)—Minister of the Interior Von Plehve was assassinated this morning while driving to the Baltic Station to visit the Emperor at the Peterhof Palace. A bomb was thrown under the Minister's carriage, completely shattering it. M. Von Plehve was terribly mangled. His coachman was also killed. The crime was committed at 10 o'clock. The assassin was arrested. He is said to be a Jew, who thus far has declined to give his name.

If you want good flour, go to B. B. Greer, he keeps Liberty Bell, $1.05 per sack and Gilt Edge, $1.10 per sack. Both have a wheat flour and no better in town.

Both 'Phones.

R. H. Greer has just put in another 'phone and can now talk to almost anyone in the county. If you want groceries, just step to either 'phone, call up his store and leave your order, and you will get the best to be had in the market. Prompt delivery and right prices.

Married.

On Wednesday, July 27, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Frances Keenon, of Pumpkin Ridge, Mr. Geo. E. Miller and Miss Ray G. Shaw, both of that place, Rev. J. F. Day officiating. The happy couple took the afternoon train for Heppner where the groom is employed, and where they will make their future home.

Bicycle Store Robbed.

On Tuesday night between ten o'clock and midnight the bicycle store of F. R. Dailey on east Main street was broken into by some person or persons and besides taking $3.95 in cash helped themselves to two Smith & Wesson revolvers, a Marlin gun, a holster and about 1,100 shells. They overlooked a gold watch and $5.50 in the money drawer and $1.50 in cash which was in a show case. The work was evidently done by boys who are well acquainted with the store. The electric lights were on all night and the thief or thieves had little trouble in selecting the booty wanted. Mr. Dailey is pretty sure who the robbers are, and, if not arrested for this offense now, it is only a question of time when a trip to the penitentiary will be the closing act in the lives of these young rascals.

Hillsboro People at Netart.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Crandell and daughter Jennie, and A. B. Crandall and wife, returned Tuesday morning from Netart, where they had been for over two weeks enjoying the mountain scenery and having a good time generally. They report that there are a lot of Hillsboro people over there having the time of their lives, and that they have adopted a "mountain yell" which when put in "cold water reads like this:

Boom, zig-a-boom,
Boom, zig-a-boom,
Boom, zig-a-boom,
Boom! Boom!

Rip, Rah, Ree, Rip, Rah, Ree.
The Hillsboro gang
Don't you see?
Thunder, lightning,
Hail and sleet,
We're the gang that always beat;
Go away back and take your seat.
Rig-a-zig-a-zang,
Rig-a-zig-a-zang,
We are the Hillsboro gang!

Among the Hillsboro folks left at Netart are the following: August Tews and son, James Young and wife and son and the Misses Young, Mrs. Tilbury and son and the Misses Tilbury, Mr. and Mrs. Whitlaw and son and the Misses Whitlaw, Rev. Zimmerman and family, Miss Jennie Greer, Miss Zimmerman, Mrs. L. A. Long and daughter, Loren Jackson and wife, Robert Imbric and wife, Miss Edna Imbric, Miss Clair Imbric, Mrs. H. T. Bagley and Wm. Adams.

Home Again in Double Harness.

Mr. E. H. Baird, who went East about two months ago, returned Tuesday morning accompanied by his bride, and they are receiving a right royal welcome from Mr. Baird's numerous friends here. The bride, who is Miss Nellie Claire Shaffer, was married to Mr. Baird at her home in Scio, Ohio, June 14th, by Rev. Mr. Howard, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of that city. She is a very attractive and accomplished young lady who will readily make friends here, and in her home city was a favorite in both church and social circles, and in her new home she will be equally as popular. Her father is a prominent business man of Scio, Mr. Baird is too well and favorably known here to need any introduction. He is a member of the Hoyt Mercantile Company, a member of the young man in every way and a business man from the ground up. He is enterprising, energetic and makes friends easily and retains their regard and good fellowship. After the ceremony at Scio, the newly married couple left for Allegheny, Pa., going from there to Toledo and Cleveland and then to Chicago, where they visited some time with relatives and friends. Then a trip to the World's Fair was made and quite a time passed in viewing the many sights there. Leaving St. Louis they went to Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver for a visit among friends and reached here on Tuesday morning as stated. The Independent joins with a host of friends of the happy couple in wishing them every joy and prosperity in their new relationship. They will go to housekeeping at once in the cottage owned by R. H. Greer near the corner of First and Main streets, and will be "at home" to their friends after August 25th.

Beaverton Notes.

Regular Correspondent.

Mrs. Clara Wilson, of Portland, spent Sunday in Beaverton.

Mrs. Stebbins is improving rapidly from her recent illness.

Mr. J. C. Stitt, wife and daughter spent Saturday in Beaverton.

The threshing machines were at work at Haine's, Wednesday of this week, the little rain having no bad effect on the weather so far.

Mr. Pomeroy has been quite ill for the past two weeks but is now somewhat improved.

Miss Nellie Robinson spent Monday in Portland, visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. Rankin and wife have returned from a trip to the coast.

Wm. Swartz, a resident of Whatcom, Wash., and a brother of Mrs. A. J. Bell, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Eliza J. Eymann, of Estacada, returned to her old home here, last week, on a visit.

Notwithstanding the unusual drought (a stranger to the Oregon country) the hop crop for the season in this locality is estimated to be good.

The new warehouse of J. C. Smock, near the railroad track, is nearing completion and will be in readiness for this season's business.

George and Frank Sayloy left here Thursday for an outing at Tillamook city and vicinity, for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. J. J. Sax, of Portland, came out a few days ago on a visit to her son, John J., and family.

Herman Smith and I. J. Lindsay have planted new ground in hops this season, besides several others in that locality.

The shipment of cream to the creamery at Newberg by so many farmers at this place is causing a scarcity of ranch butter in this market; however, the producer is monarch of the situation.

Jack Hess and Blakely Hall are the only fortunate owners of huckleberry patches in this vicinity, and the demand for the berries cannot be supplied at ten cents per pound from either ranches.

Anders Krobe, purchaser of the Wm. Buffington place, has in addition to ranching, engaged in the brick business, for local demands. His first output will be 100,000 hand-made bricks, 25,000 of which he has manufactured to date. The brick yard is located about one mile south of Middleton, near the S. P. railroad track.

Grand Secretary Becker, Knights of Maccabees, and family, of Portland, are visiting friends and relatives up on the Tualatin river, near Scholls.

Someone mentions Canadian thistles as being a pest, and a crime to allow the obnoxious weed to bloom and waste its sweetness, or rather ripened seed, upon the public highway and thereby infest the whole country. Probably the largest and finest specimens of the "blooming" weed in the whole country are to be found in the town of Sherwood, yet the majesty of the law is dormant at that particular point here, and in consequence each annual crop is outcropped by the next, and so on.
