

CEDAR MILL.

Mrs. Vina Owens, who has resided here for several years, has moved to Lebanon, Washington and H. M. Button has taken up his residence on her place.

B. B. Reeves has gone into business in Portland with his brother, F. H. Reeves.

John Walters is spending the winter at Pomeroy, Washington.

Mrs. Della A. Keen returned Thursday evening after spending several days with her parents near Vancouver, Washington.

The directors of Union School have changed the desk to the heretofore unoccupied room, much to the delight of the teacher and pupils.

John Ironsides Jr. spent several days at Corvallis recently on a duck hunt. But returned without any ducks.

The young people have turned the literary into a spelling school which seems to be more popular with the school children.

Vine Maple Camp No. 456 W. O. W. at its regular meeting elected the following officers: Ralph L. Wann, C. C.; John Ironsides Sr., A. L.; B. F. Burton, banker; L. D. Kennedy, clerk; Fay Haskell, exoner; M. G. Reeves, secretary; D. McCullen, watchman; J. Crookshank, manager.

Messrs. Graves, Lohfield and H. B. Fladky succeeded in trapping a black bear Monday night. It has been in the community for some time, having visited several orchards. Bear stories will be the next order of business.

SHERWOOD.

The sensational reports circulated here in regard to the gravity of Fred Olds's condition seem to be unfounded, as it now appears he has so far recovered as to walk about, and will recover entirely eventually.

George Barum, an old pioneer and resident of McMinnville for many years, formerly of Middleton, this county, is reported dangerously ill with but small hopes of recovery by John Chapman, his son-in-law, who is attending him.

Ellie, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Galoreath, of Sand Pt., died Friday, the 11th inst. after a short illness.

A small child of Elmer Wright's living in Chesham Gap was seriously injured by a small sapling falling upon it a few days ago. A fracture of the skull besides minor injuries resulted.

PRICKETT-REECHIN WEDDING AT GALE'S CREEK

Mr. J. B. Prickett and Miss Melissa E. Reechin were married Dec. 16th at the home of Caleb Jones of Gale's Creek, in the presence of a few invited guests, Rev. L. J. Belknap officiating.

The bride has lived here about three years, coming from Beaver City, Nebraska, where her parents now reside, but who will soon remove to Forest Grove, Oregon, and make their future home.

Miss Reechin was well known and had many intimate friends in and around Beaver City and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. She has many acquaintances here among the former Nebraskans.

The groom is an old resident of Washington county, Oregon, and is a prosperous farmer who has accumulated considerable property by his industrious and temperate habits and is highly esteemed by all his acquaintances.

Wanted, at once, good draft horses, must weigh 1500 lbs. Kane & Hubbert Logging Co., Forest Grove.

Chowling's saloon at Dilley had its slot machine and cash till taken away Tuesday night by burglars but the haul was not heavy.

Mrs. J. A. Abbott and C. B. Stokes will represent the Forest Grove Artisans at the farewell reception to ex-Supreme Grand Master F. I. McKenna who has done so much for that order at the service of a good interest.

Abbott & Son handle genuine cut glass and solid gold guaranteed goods. You should see them.

PROBATE COURT.

Guardianship of Euphemia A. McDonald, a minor. George Harris appointed guardian.

Guardianship of John W. Corey, insane. Letter of guardianship is due to D. A. Hayes.

Estate of F. J. Barber, deceased. All real and personal property turned over to widow and estate cleared of record.

Estate of Washington Jones dec'd. Final account and report filed, Monday Jan 25, 1904 at 10 o'clock set for final settlement.

Estate of Gay Bel dec'd, report and account showing $3500.04 assets belonging to estate, filed and approved. Estate of Rebecca A. Wright, deceased, executrix discharged and estate closed of record.

Chas. Noble, son of M. L. Noble, is here from Sumpter where he has been employed in the Goldend mine assay office. He expects to remain at home a few months to study.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Fred H. Meyers 23 and Euphemia A. McDonald 17; Julius C. H. Sheen 23 and Evalena Shannon 16; J. B. Prickett 56 and Melissa A. Reechin 23; John T. Beacham 32 and Gertrude Donaldson 23.

Monday the legislature meets in extra session and Senator Wehrung and Representative Gaelt, Hines and Percy will all be there. It is to be hoped insisting on a 20 day session that the legislation may not be heavy or ill considered, taking advantage of a session free from senatorial distractions.

Mrs. Annie A. Allison, wife of Joseph Allison, died in Hillsboro, Tuesday. Funeral services were held at the family residence Thursday afternoon and burial was in the Masonic cemetery. She was born in Baltimore, Md., 62 years ago, and leaves a husband and three sons. Death came as not an unwelcome relief after many years of patient suffering as an invalid.

The Alexander case, the family troubles of an elderly couple, from Beaverton, which were told last week, was heard in the Hillsboro justice court Wednesday and resulted in a hung jury.

$1,000 Given Away

Rieger, the California perfumer, is paying $1,000 for Mother Goose Rhymes describing California perfumes. Dr. Hines' Drug Store sells these perfumes. Ask the clerk about it.

Dr. Hines' Drug Store

Forest Grove, - - - Oregon

A. B. Steinbach & Co.

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest, Portland, Or.

To Mothers of Boys

We have recently opened our New Basement Department with an extensive line of Boys' Inexpensive School Suits, which we present at $2.15, $2.85, $3.35

Dozens of neat patterns in double-breasted Norfolks, sailor-collar Norfolks, etc. Ages, 5 to 16 years. They are undoubtedly the greatest values ever offered in the Northwest.

These Suits will be sent to any address C. O. D. upon the receipt of one-third payment.

Save Your Money

By Calling on Abbott & Son for Your Christmas Goods

We have the finest and most complete stock of Jewellery and Silverware west of Portland. It will pay you to call and see for yourself.

Watches of all Grades, From $3-50 up to $80.00.

Solid Gold Rings, From 1.00 to 120.00.

Remember our Silverware is the only line in Washington County that is sold under a GUARANTEE.

Diamonds and high-grade watches are sold on installments. Come in and get our terms.

You Will be Satisfied

That we handle no Fake Goods, but all are positively guaranteed as represented.

ABBOTT & SON

Main Street, Forest Grove, Oregon