TRAVEL-SNOOK

Mr. Louis N. Traver and Miss Ella Snook, of Salem, were united in marriage on Christmas Day at half past three o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Snook. The Rev. P. S. Knight was the officiating clergyman. Decorations of mistletoe and white chrysanthemums were tastefully arranged. An elegant dinner was served before the ceremony. The bride and groom were recipients of many handsome and useful presents. The bridal gown was of cream tulle with lace collar and stole and was gracefully worn. After hearty congratulations of the season and the occasion, the happy couple took their departure for Lebanon, where they will make their home for a time. Mr. Traver served in the 4th Cavalry in the Philippines and later was stationed at Ft. Riley, Kansas. The bride leaves many warm friends in Salem.

Judge M. L. Pipes' championing of the civic righteousness which is seeking to reorganize, through mandamus proceedings, the rule of graft in Portland, though these reformers possibly have the best of intentions in their blundering zeal, recalls the days, not long ago, when he was the power behind the bench in the police court and "Put me off at Buffalo" was municipal judge. Daily a crowded courtroom enjoyed the reading of decisions in which intricate points of law were nicely distinguished in that chaste and classic style characteristic of Mr. Pipes, and then the mouthpiece would throw in a few offhand remarks of his own that made Red Raven Split's slang sound like Addison, or issue a bench warrant for some Presbyterian preacher whose last sermon, had scored the municipal court's incompetency and when the summons was disregarded Judge Hennessey, made wise by his mentor, would say that it was only an invitation.
