The insane young man, who gave his name as McMillan, mention of whom was made in this paper last week, was sent to the asylum last Saturday. It is expected that a few months in that institution, with the proper medical attendance, will give him back his health.

There is much rejoicing in Montezuma Lodge No. 50, I. O. O. F. After finishing the handsome brick building on Main street the lodge found itself just $1,500 in debt. This obligation was wiped out Wednesday and the members naturally feel proud of their undertaking. Odd Fellows block was built in 1898.

Quite a number of persons have been directing letters to M. C. Case as superintendent of schools, which undoubtedly refer to school matters. Mr. Ball does not turn over the office to his successor until August 1st, and all letters intended for the superintendent should be addressed to him until that time.

The following officers were elected at the semi-annual meeting of the Epworth League: President, Gertrude Kendall; vice-president, Ula Hoyt; secretary and treasurer, Lottie Peters; third vice-president, Pearl Greear; fourth vice-president, Mrs. L. S. Conwell, one of the most respected families in that vicinity and Miss Conwell is held in the highest esteem by a host of friends. Mr. Whitney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Whitney, an old and respected family of Forest Grove but formerly of Manning. The pretty services will be held at the M. E. Church at 8:30 in the presence of the relatives and most intimate friends.—Forest Grove News.

Mrs. H. A. Hinshaw and mother, Mrs. M. Cook, left last Friday for Nowberg, where they spent Sunday with friends, going from there to Portland for the week. Station Agent Hinshaw has been working around that "far away look" for several days, but as he has concluded to go to the city Sunday after the folks, he has brightened up wonderfully and his usual pleasant smile now greets all patrons of the depot.

Reports from north and south of town are to the effect that considerable damage was done by frost Tuesday night to gardens. Squash, pumpkin, watermelon and cucumber vines were badly nipped, and in the morning sun drooped and turned black. Right in town little damage was done, though some of the gardens shows the effect of the frost. A lady living about a mile north says that the hired man reported a thin layer of ice in the watering trough at an early hour that morning.

Rev. A. Grubb, a farmer living two miles from Forest Grove, fell from a cherry tree last Monday breaking his arm and dislocating his elbow. Dr. Tammies, who was called to attend the man says the injuries while very severe and painful are not necessarily serious, though Mr. Grubb may be hurt internally, which would complicate matters. In his fall he struck a ladder, breaking a rung, and it is thought this saved him from death, as it was fully eighteen feet from where he started to the ground.

Nine-tenth of the unhappy marriages, says an exchange, are the result of green human calves being allowed to run at large in the society pastures without yokes on them. They marry and have children before they have mustaches, and they are the father of twins before they are the proprietors of two pairs of pants, and the little girls who marry them are old women before they are 20.

If Oregon people would put in more time in discussing needed improvements and allow the "old landmarks," including "the first school houses," etc., to go their way, the state would be several years forward in the march of progress. A few antediluvian cranks seem to have entwined an over dose of "old" interest into the entire state.—McMinnville News.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sewell accompanied Mrs. Samuel Williams to Portland yesterday and saw her safely aboard the train for Willbur, Wash., where she will visit until fall, and if her health improves she may remain longer. Mrs. Williams has been quite ill for some time and her physician, Dr. Linklater, advised the trip. She was feeling splendid when the train pulled out of the union depot and she waved her handkerchief and sent back a parting smile to her daughter until a bend took the coach from view. Mrs. Williams' many friends here will wish her a very pleasant trip and a safe return, with her health restored.

Timber On Fire Near Glencoe.
A private letter from Nelson & Reed, of Glencoe, received last night, says: Some miscreant set the timber on fire some miles east of here yesterday (the 11th) and it is sweeping everything before it. The fire tonight is only one and a-half miles from the mill.

Our mill is crowded to its utmost capacity, and we are furnishing lumber for some of the finest buildings that are going up in Washington and Columbia counties. Our new plant for steam-treating lumber is working with entire satisfaction.

In the matter of the estate of C. W. Reimold, deceased; petition filed; ordered that citations be issued upon the heirs and all persons interested to appear at the court house on the 25th of July, at 10 o'clock a. m. to show cause why said order should not be granted.

Oregon Development League.

The Portland Commercial Club has issued a call for a convention of the Oregon Development League, to be held at the Marquam Grand Theater in Portland August 2nd and 3rd. All commercial, agricultural, mining, stock-raising and irrigation interests will be represented; every citizen in the state will be invited to attend as a delegate; County Commissioners of all the towns and cities will also be called upon to name delegates. The Portland Women's Club will look after the comfort of ladies accompanying delegates, and, among other entertainments, have arranged for a trolley ride on August 2nd, taking in the most interesting and beautiful environs of Portland, and on August 3rd ten street cars will be provided for a trip over the entire city.

The Southern Pacific Co. will sell tickets at the very low rate of one fare for the round trip, from all points on Oregon Lines to Portland and return, for this occasion, and it is hoped that every section of the state will be well represented at the convention, to work in harmony for the development of Oregon.

The day of death is fixed for Frank Guglielmo, the murderer of Freda Gnarscia, for Tuesday, August 16 in the penitentiary at Salem. The prisoner was taken to Salem Wednesday and handed over to the prison authorities to await the day of execution. After the sentence was pronounced he broke down completely, and sobbed, but it was not until he had been returned to the county jail from the courtroom in Portland that he gave way to his feelings.

THE DELTA DRUG STORE, HILLSBORO, OREGON

Seventy-one Miles Overland.

Pendleton, Ore., July 11, 1904.

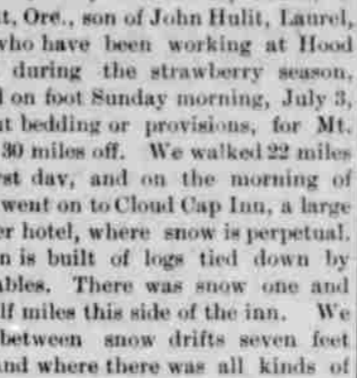

Ed. Independent, Hillsboro, Ore.—J. G. Wohlschlegel, of Colfax, Wash., son of Wm. Wohlschlegel, and Louis Hult, of Laurel, Ore., and Sammy Hult, of Corbett, Ore., son of John Hult, Laurel, Ore., who have been working at Hood River, during the strawberry season, started on foot Sunday morning, July 3, without bedding or provisions, for Mt. Hood, 30 miles off. We walked 22 miles the first day, and on the morning of July 4 went on to Cloud Cap Inn, a large summer hotel, where snow is perpetual. The inn is built of logs tied down by wire cables. There was snow one and one-half miles this side of the inn. We slept between snow drifts seven feet deep, and where there was all kinds of game.

The next day we went on top of Cooper Spur and ate our dinner and stayed three hours. Cooper Spur is about 9000 feet above sea level. The snow is eight feet deep. To reach the summit of Mt. Hood the ropes are used, and a guide is necessary.

On our way back we stopped at the lava beds and at the Williams place where Williams killed the two Nestle women and saw just where they were buried, in a henhouse. By the time we reached Hood River we had walked 75 miles, but a trip like that is worth $25 for the grand scenery. It only cost us $1.50 each. We traveled through Hood River valley and Mt. Hood valley. We all started for Harvest but find it a little early as yet.—Cooper said to be good.
