Hillsboro Defeats Cornelius.

In a game of football in which practice was pitted against weight, Hillsboro defeated Cornelius on the latter's grounds in a one-sided game, last Saturday. After the first line-up there was no doubt of the final outcome, for on the first pass Freeman went around left end for a seventy-yard run for a touch-down. Cornelius made their only score in the last half, when Hatch got the ball on a fumble, when everyone was in the mixup and was out of reach before he was seen. Hillsboro made two touch-downs in each half. The final score stood 24 to 6, with Hillsboro at the big end. The line-up was as follows:

Skookumville.

Regular Correspondent.
Fall grown grain is growing well.
Mr. Archie Walker came down from Scoggins' Valley Monday evening.
Mr. J. W. Barnes was re-elected Master of Beaverton Grange for the ensuing year.

Mr. L. Duci's folks moved over to Beaverton last Saturday.

The attendance at school is good this winter.

Mr. Thurston sold part of his onions at $2 per sack.

Mr. Bauer and family from Gobel, Or., have moved on the Pat Forester place.

Skookumville will celebrate Christmas in the proper style, with a big Christmas tree entertainment at the school house on Christmas eve, given by the school and neighborhood. Santa Claus will be there. Everybody cordially invited.

It was definitely settled Tuesday that Senator Mitchell will be appointed chairman of the Isthmian canal committee, succeeding to the place made vacant by the death of Senator Hanna. All efforts made to induce Senator Platt, of New York to accept this place were unavailing. This committee will handle all legislation affecting the Panama Canal.

All goods bought of Cate will be delivered promptly at any hour during the day. This includes meats as well as groceries.

HOYT'S HOLIDAY HINTS !

We have enlarged our floor space considerably since last Christmas by using the upstairs, hence we have more room for our Holiday Display. Others advertise the largest and best stock of Xmas Goods in the city. It is evident that ALL haven't the largest and best. WE leave it to our patrons to decide this question. YOU call on our store and we will treat you right.

REMEMBER, it costs nothing to come and see a very prettily decorated store and some delightful Holiday goods. We try to treat our customers courteously and give satisfaction. We have new and up-to-date holiday goods.

BOOKS

We have over ONE THOUSAND VOLUMES on our book tables for you to select from. All new and clean. Nothing can make a more acceptable gift.

Our stock of toys, baskets, vases, toilet sets, hand bags, ladies ties, handkerchiefs and neckwear, gent's handkerchiefs, ties, etc., is complete in every detail.

Our line of art goods and Xmas cards is exclusive. No other place this side of Portland carries such a stock.

Useful Christmas Gifts

In selecting presents something serviceable is far more sensible than a useless gift. Therefore remember that our MILLINERY DEPARTMENT is complete in every instance, and that we offer special reduced prices from now until after Christmas.

Here also may be found some lovely doll hats, just like "Grown-up Hats." These will certainly please the girls. And Don't Fail to Go Up Stairs.
