The sorriest fellow on earth is the fellow who will sit around and cuss his own town. If I lived astride the North Pole says a visitor at the New Moro whose car drum was getting hot, I would call it home and be ready to boost it. If I couldn't say anything nice about it, I would say my ice bill didn't come high. I would not stay in a town I had to cuss—not while the world is as big as it is now.—Moro Observer.

Remember that Cubena is guaranteed to cure catarrh. The Delta Drug Store sells it and recommends it.

Everybody buying real estate should exact an abstract with every deed. It adds nothing to the real title, being but a statement of what the records show, and often reveals things that surprise the owner of the property. It is the business like way of showing the condition of a title. It does not cure defects but points out where they are that the proper remedy may be applied.

The swellest line of Lemonade sets that has ever been shown in Hillsboro is at Greer's Grocery and Crockery store.

In the Lewis and Clark year, and every year, it is not too often to speak every-day of the needs of better streets, better roads, civic improvements and neater towns, if the people who are to come to Oregon shall receive the impression hoped for by this people.—Albany Herald.

How chagrined the Portland Journal must feel over the fact that Hon. Binger Hermann was called as a witness for the government in the celebrated land fraud cases. All along the Journal has classed Binger as a conspirator against the government in the land matters, but the authorities in Washington knew the value of his testimony in its behalf and also knew that his record was without a blemish while he held down the distinguished position of Commissioner of the General Land Office. No wonder Binger has rested easy under the loud-mouthed blackmailing efforts of the Portland sheet.—Eugene Register.

Delta Pink Liver Pills are sold on merit—best pill for general use on the market. A bottle of them will prove this assertion. Sold at Delta Drug Store and guaranteed to give satisfaction.

"Hit the trail" is the motto adopted by the promoters of the Lewis and Clark exposition to be held next year at Portland, Oregon. The thought that suggested the motto was a good one and it will appeal with special significance to any one who has ever climbed the mountain and wended one's way either by foot or horseback along the narrow trails which affords the only pathway up or down the mountain side and frequently through a labyrinth of heavy timber or brush growth. A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific railroad at Portland, is said to have suggested the motto, "Hit the Trail." It was certainly a happy thought.—Milbank S. D. Review.

Mrs. Vroman, the milliner, wishes to announce to the ladies of this city that all her millinery goods will be sold at greatly reduced prices. A Voice From the Vanquished.

Missouri's gone republican. There ain't much more to say.

I'm waitin' now to see the world turn 'round the other way.

Considering what has happened 'twon't surprise me in the least.

To see the sun rise in the West instead of in the East.

I half expect to see the sky come down and rain ascend.—

There really ain't no telling where the thing is goin' to end.

I can't find proper language for expressin' my dismay;

Missouri's gone republican. There ain't much more to say.

It isn't any wonder that my courage kind o' fails;

'Twas hard when West Virginia went a-waverin' in the scales.

'Twas even worse to realize the music of the band

Took on a special meanin' when it played "My Maryland."

But when you start a-tumblin' why, there ain't no way to tell

Just when you have finally reached the bottom of the well.

Give 'em Tennessee an' Texas to increase the strange array,

Missouri's gone republican. There ain't much more to say.

—Washington Star.

I have just received several disc and cylinder graphophones and about 200 of the latest records, for both the disc and cylinder machines, from the Columbia company. Be sure and select some of these records for your machine.
