Next Sunday is Catholic Day at the Lewis and Clark fair.

Sham battle on the fair grounds next Wednesday, August 2.

Born—On July 25, to Mr. and Mrs. John Boge, of Farmington, a son.

Miss Lena Johnson, of Portland, spent Sunday with Miss Bessie Schomburg.

The new train goes on tomorrow noon. Read the time card, published in another column.

W. H. Greer, who has been visiting friends in this city, left for St. Joe, Mo., Tuesday.

County Surveyor Morrill returned from his trip Wednesday up in the Hillsboro country.

Miss Lena and Mr. Leslie Baskin, guests of F. C. Ballard and family, have returned from a week's visit at Long Beach.

M. E. Everett and wife of North Bend are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Brown. They arrived on Wednesday.

Presbyterian services will be held at Laurel next Sabbath evening at 7:45, conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. Robinson.

F. S. Olsen and party returned Sunday afternoon from a two week's fishing trip. They reported a fine time and lots of fish.

Work on the cut and fill for the new bridge over Jackson bottom is progressing finely. Contractor Goodlin is doing a good job.

J. E. Butler went to Portland last evening to meet his friend, Chas. Wegel of North Yakama, who will spend the coming week with him.

Albert G. Watson, of the notorious Forest Grove "commercial club," was arrested on a bench warrant Wednesday for contempt of court, and will have a hearing today.

Judge W. J. Skinner, of Hope, N. D., has been a guest of Rev. Howard Kilpatrick a couple of days this week. The Judge is here to take in the fair and visit a son and daughter living in Eastern Oregon.

The death of Miss Daisy Pearl Taylor, at her father's home two miles south of Reelville, occurred on Saturday last, after a lingering illness of tuberculosis. The interment was made in Crescent Grove cemetery on Tuesday.

A Mr. Van Kleeck, living near Progress, fell from an 18-foot ladder last Saturday and injured the lower part of his spine and right hip, and received other painful bruises. He was attended by Dr. F. J. Bailey, and though his injuries are quite severe, he is getting along as well as can be expected.

Preaching at the Christian church next Sunday by Elder A. H. Mulkey. Mr. Mulkey will undoubtedly become the permanent pastor of this church, a matter to be settled this week. If he does, he will move his family here at once.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Turpin, residing near Reelville, died last Monday. Mr. Turpin has but recently returned to Washington county from California. He will be remembered by the older residents, having lived here thirty-five years ago.

This has been Southern California week at the Lewis and Clark exposition. Next week other California sections will be honored, special days being named for several enterprising cities north of the orange belt. Excursions are to be run from each of the cities so honored.

Entries for the great livestock show at the Portland fair will close August 1. Anyone who desires entry blanks should write at once to M. D. Wisdom, superintendent of the livestock exhibit, Lewis and Clark exposition. The livestock show will be held in September.

One of the most popular places at the Lewis and Clark exposition is the "Reel Pavilion" adjoining the Abraham Lincoln home. The state of Illinois has built this cozy pavilion so that visitors may stop and rest upon the broad portico. Rustic chairs and rockers are free to all. The Lincoln home, as reproduced at the fair, is a center of interest.

Tomorrow is Los Angeles day at the Lewis and Clark exposition. Several train loads of Angelenos are expected. Special exercises on an elaborate scale have been arranged at the California state building by Commissioners Wiggins and Fitcher. Mr. Wiggins is secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and has about twenty years exposition experience.

Thousands witnessed the great sham battle at the Portland exposition last Saturday. This event will be followed August 2nd by a big naval battle on Guild's lake, and August 10th by the crowning spectacular event of the year—a reproduction of the Custer massacre, in which 200 Umatilla Indians and a force of soldiers will engage. All these big events are free to exposition visitors.

Up to July 16th, 2,610 persons registered at the Historical rooms in Portland, for the first half of this month. Last week 1,400 visited the rooms, and in June 4,000 registered there. It is thought 6,000 will be the record for July. Visitors came from forty states outside of Oregon. It keeps Mr. Himes pretty busy, but he is right in his glory and callers are always welcome.

The marriage of Miss Zoa R. Hayden, who has been a resident of this city for the past two years, and Edward Sigman, of Hoquiam, Wash., was solemnized in Portland on Wednesday of this week. The announcement of Miss Hayden's marriage came as a surprise to her Hillsboro friends. She has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Kuratli during most of her stay in Hillsboro, and has made few acquaintances, but applied herself closely to her work as a stenographer. Mr. Sigman is a sawmill contractor and a gentleman of integrity. Both have the best wishes of Hillsboro friends.

NEW TRAIN.

The Southern Pacific Has Supplied a Popular Want Here.

In order to accommodate local travel and give the people an opportunity to spend the evening in Portland to visit the exposition, theatres, etc., the Southern Pacific will, commencing Saturday, July 29th, inaugurate additional train service between Portland and Forest Grove, as follows, in addition to the present service, no change in the schedule of which will be made:

Table with 2 columns: GOING EAST, GOING WEST. Lists stations and times for Forest Grove, Cornelius, Hillsboro, Reelville, Beaverton, Portland.

This train will run daily except Sunday, and service will be maintained as long as the business will justify. This will be a local passenger train of suburban nature and will not carry a baggage car, consequently baggage cannot be checked.

This train service is the very
