HUSTON FOR CONGRESS.

Hon. S. B. Huston Has Decided to Make the Run.

For some time past prominent republicans in this county, and in other counties in this district, have been urging Hon. S. B. Huston to become a candidate for the nomination for congress on the republican ticket at the primaries to be held next spring. He has had the matter under consideration for some time, waiting to hear from his friends over the district and trying to estimate his chances of success.

He and Attorney E. B. Tongue made a trip up the valley last week, returning Tuesday evening, and received so much encouragement that they both concluded that Mr. Huston could secure the nomination if he sought it. He has concluded to be a candidate and believes he will be successful. THE INDEPENDENT shares this belief. Mr. Huston says that the campaign, so far as he is concerned, will be a clean one, and that, if defeated, he will give his successful opponent his cheerful and hearty support.

Mr. Huston is one of the ablest, if not the ablest, lawyer in the First district. He is in the prime of life and enjoys the confidence of the people of Washington county in a marked degree. Washington county has had the honor of furnishing the ablest congressman that Oregon ever had, in the person of Hon. Thomas H. Tongue. We believe that Mr. Huston, if he shall be successful, will make an equally creditable representative, and that his services would redound to the credit of this county, and to the state. Washington county received more prominence through the fact of Mr. Tongue being a resident of this county than from any other source. If she can be successful in again furnishing an able and worthy representative it will be the best advertisement that Washington county has ever had.

We have no doubt the republicans of Washington county will stand together in an effort to attain this end.

A large number of republicans look longingly toward the chair of state treasurer, wherein now sits my friend, C. S. Moore. W. T. Wright, of Union county, would enjoy carrying the key to the state strong box. William Henry Hobson, senator from Marion and Linn, is in the same attitude. Reuben Alexander, of Pendleton, big merchant and high Mason, is desirous of attaining the nomination, provided it don't cost too much. Edward Wright Haines, the Forest Grove banker, says he isn't a candidate for congress, but as to state treasurer—! But no matter.—Salem Daily Journal.

Crop Report.

Dry weather continues and the need of rain is becoming more urgent. Streams are getting low and pasturage is becoming very short, except on tide lands and on mountain ranges. Stock, up to within a few days ago, kept in good condition, but now cattle are losing flesh except where they are helped by an extra feed of hay. The harvesting and the threshing of grain are being rapidly pushed and some farmers are through with this work. Fall wheat and barley fields continue good. The straw of spring wheat was heavy and the heads were large, but the berry shriveled during the recent hot weather, with the result that the yields in nearly every section of the state are less than expected. Oats suffered similarly, and while the damage was possibly not so great as in the case of spring wheat, oat yields are also disappointing.

Corn and late potatoes need rain; the hot days curl the corn leaves, but they freshen up again during the coolness of the nights. Hops are uneven, and reports regarding the condition of the crop are conflicting. Sugar beets in the Grand Ronde valley are promising, but the crop is not so good as it was last year at this time. Peaches are plentiful in the markets. Apples are smaller in size than usual, but otherwise the yield in the well kept orchard promises to be nearly an average one. Prunes have dropped more than usual at this season of the year.

Estate of Chas. W. Rosa, deceased; petition filed asking that will of said deceased be set aside, and that an administrator be appointed for said estate; ordered that citation be issued and served on John W. Rosa, executor, to appear at the court house on Tuesday, August 22, at 10 o'clock a. m., and show cause why said petition shall not be granted.

Matter of the guardianship of Niles J. Brown, minor; report and account filed; receipts, $15.62; paid out, $8; balance on hand, $7.62; account and report approved.

Cost of Hitting the Trail.

For the small sum of seven dollars the visiting Elks will be enabled to enjoy each and every concession on the trail, the great amusement thoroughfare of the Lewis and Clark exposition.

At St. Louis it cost in the neighborhood of $30 to see the "Pike," with its seventy shows, many of which were not worth the price of admission. The trail offers thirty of the finest attractions ever included in an exposition. Fancy seeing thirty shows for seven dollars.

The Carnival of Venice, designed by that "King of the Ballet," Bolossy Kiralfy, is by all means the largest and costliest production. It is a great spectacular play to which the price of admission is 50 cents, but after seeing it anyone will immediately pronounce the price a reasonable one.

There are two hundred participants on the stage. The scene is laid in Venice, and by means of some very fine scenic offerings the illusion is faithfully carried out, even to the canals of that Italian city. The canals are of real water. The Carnival of Venice is a terpsichorean extravaganza of the higest order.

The Homer Davenport Farm is well worth a visit. Paying 25 cents he enters and beholds the foremost cartoonist of the world comfortably seated on a rustic bench before a rudely built log house. Surrounding the illustrious penman are hundreds of blooded fowls, several specimens of horses of Arabian blood and a magnificent Hambletonian. Davenport will be found affable, urbane and democratic, and if the visitor is of the right sort the cartoonist may offer him a modest sketch as a momento.

Next, one should by all means take in the great Alaska-Klondike mining exhibit. This concession is pre-eminent from an educational standpoint, and offers the visitor a truthful portrayal of mining methods in the gold fields of Alaska. The building that houses the show is designed inside in panorama effect and a full sized placer mine is found in full operation. Clean-ups of real gold worth $10,000 are made every hour. The admission is 25 cents.

Trixie and the Diving Elk, as a matter of course, cannot be missed, for if there is any show upon the trail that is genuinely deserving of patronage for the reason of the true merit alone is in the Trixie Show.

This show probably does a larger business than any other attraction on the trail, and for the reason that no one ever leaves the place dissatisfied with this wonderful performance. The best advertisement the Trixie attraction has are the crowds who daily witness the feats of the marvelous animals.

The streets of Cairo, Darkness and Dawn, Land of the Midnight Sun, The Cescades, The Animal show, are all well worth a visit.

And so on down the trail the visitor may meander. A great many of the shows offer admissions as low as 10 cents. The visitor finds foolish shows and serious shows, or he may devote his time to instructive shows. No matter how hard he "hits the trail" he cannot spend more that $7, which will admit him to thirty attractions, unless he chooses to take in a show more than once. The entire list of concessions, with their admission, follows:

Gay Paree, 25 cents; concert hall, 25 cents; Cascade Gardens. 25 cents; Diving Elk, 25 cents; New York Animal Show, 25 cents; Streets of Cairo, 15 cents; theater, 25 cents; donkey ride, 25 cents; camel ride, 30 cents; Carnival of Venice, 50 cents; Land of Midnight Sun, 25 cents; Televue, 25 cents; Davenport Farm, 25 cents; Burns Cottage, 10 cents; shooting gallery, 10 cents, and Blue Grotto, 25 cents.

Work on the New Road Moving Right Along.

President Records, of the Atlas Construction Co., of San Francisco, accompanied by President McCrackin, of the Portland, Nehalem & Tillamook Railway Co., was in town Wednesday looking over the line and expressed himself as highly pleased with the work being done by Engineer Davis. Mr. Records and Mr. McCracken went over the road as far as the bridge and examined critically all that has been done, and it is evident that they are perfectly satisfied with the progress being made.

Wednesday was "pay day" for the construction crews, and every man received his money, which is undoubtedly a great disappointment to a few "knockers" who have been prophesying that "the finish" would come when things arrived to a pount where money talks, but very gratifying to the men who are doing the work and the people who all along have had confidence in the railroad headed for Tillamook. Ample funds have been deposited in the J. W. Shute bank to meet all demands on the company, and all checks presented are promptly cashed.

The roadbed is completed to Washington street and will soon be finished to the line of the Southern Pacific, the bridge work over Davis' creek, known as "Bridge No. 1," is progressing rapidly, over two-thirds of the piles being driven, and material is unloaded daily all along the right-of-way, and prospects are very bright for the completion of the first twenty miles of the road before the close of the year.

The uncertainty of this mortal life were sadly and vividly brought home to people in this community during the past week. In a few days the home circle of Mr. Bowman has been reduced by five of its loved ones. As will be seen in our Oretown news. Diptheria laid its deadly grip on the household but one short week ago, and every member of the family but the father were attacked by this relentless and insidious disease, with the result that the mother and four of the children have been claimed by the "Grim Reaper" up to the present, while the other children are in a critical condition and may succumb at any time. In the present most lamentable case everything that medical skill could effect was done, but without avail.—Tillamook Herald.
