

Crop Report.

The temperatures during the week were higher than usual and no rain fell, except a small amount near the immediate coast.

Tillamook is Weary.

It is not surprising that the people of Tillamook county take little or no interest in new railroad propositions, for they have been fooled so many times that it is almost impossible to create any enthusiasm or confidence.

The Hendel wire hair brush is guaranteed to remove dandruff, keep it removed, stop the hair from falling out and promote its growth.

Delta Drug Store.

The price of butter has again gone up, having advanced from 50 cents to 70 cents a roll in the past two weeks.

Good advice to women. If you want a beautiful complexion, clear skin, bright eyes, red lips, good health, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea.

Sherwood

The following correspondence from Sherwood was received too late for last week's issue:

Mrs. E. A. Collins, a sister of Mrs. Jos. Cowman of this place and a resident of Columbia, Mo., returns to her home Monday after a pleasant visit here and to the Portland exposition.

Wm. Gritzmacher, the butcher, received a violent kick from a horse in the region of the stomach, a few days ago, producing a knock out blow at the time, however, no serious injury occurred.

Hop-picking commenced here the latter part of last week, and the battle is now on and will continue until the close of the season.

J. D. Hornaday and wife of Rappahoe, Neb., relatives of Wm. Pulley left for home during the week after spending a month's time in Oregon and were greatly impressed with the wetfoot state.

The Southern Pacific Company is now using from five to six passenger coaches daily in making up the trains on this branch of the road.

A sad and distressing episode occurred at the funeral of Mr. Pope resulting in a double affliction to the family, while returning home Mrs. Daniel Pope, a daughter-in-law was suddenly stricken with apoplexy, fell in a faint, and did not recover consciousness again, dying within four hours from the time of the initial attack.

Clyde Tyson, of Middleton, narrowly escaped losing the index finger of his left hand, Saturday, while plitting stove wood. By a miscalculation the ax fell with full force lengthwise upon the finger, severing the flesh from the bone for more than half its extent, causing intense hemorrhage from severed arteries before receiving surgical attention.

General H. B. Compson, a veteran of the Civil war, ex-Brigadier-General and Chief of staff of the late Governor Penneyer answered the last roll call at his home in Portland last Saturday, aged 67 years.

B. F. Pope, father of Mrs. James Brown of this place and well known here died at his home near Houlton, Columbia county last week, after a long illness. The remains were interred in the L. O. F. cemetery at Warrens.
