GOSSIP OVERHEARD IN OUR POSTOFFICE

While in the post office the other day the following conversation was overheard between two ladies. One was saying to the other: "Have you been down to the Closing Out Sale?" "Oh! Yes, I've been there and bought a lot of goods; bought all my winter's supply. I was thinking of going to Portland to buy, but went in to see how they were selling at the Closing Out Sale, and I was surprised to see how cheap they were selling everything and it did not take me long to decide, so I just went ahead and bought all my goods there and saved money. I bought a Tailor Made Suit for myself for $7.00; could not buy it in Portland for less than 12.50. By the way have you been there yet?" "No, I haven't had any money to buy with, but I am expecting some in a few days and just as soon as I get it I am going to the Sale and buy everything that I need." "I tell you this Sale is a blessing to people who haven't much money to buy with. Well, I guess I must go home and get dinner, good-bye."
