Greear purchased of Schulmerich Bros. seventy-two feet of land on Second street, adjoining the opera house building, which includes the building now occupied by the Gem restaurant, the consideration being $2,000. Mr. Greear will be used by himself, as his increasing flour and feed business demands larger quarters. This piece of property was bought by the Schulmerich Bros. only a short time ago for $900.

The Ladies Civic Improvement club which was organized a year ago as an auxiliary to the State Suffrage association, was reorganized Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Thorne. The suffrage work, requiring more time than it has been possible to devote to it while the two societies were combined, it was decided to have two separate organizations. The Civic Improvement and Political Study club will meet on the fourth Tuesday evening of each month. The Suffrage club will meet on the second Tuesday afternoon of the month. More satisfactory work will be the result of the dissolution of the society. The officers elected for the improvement club are Mrs. Ingeborg Bath, president; Mrs. Mary Donelson, vice-president; Mrs. Ruth Tamiesle, secretary and Mrs. Geo. Morgan, treasurer. The officers for the Suffrage club are Mrs. W. E. Thorne, president; Mrs. W. D. Hare, vice president; Mrs. J. M. Greear.

Crescent Theatre tonight.
At the Crescent Theatre tonight, the Ladies' Glee Club of Pacific University, assisted by Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman and the Alpha Zeta Male Quartette, will give what promises to be one of the best musical entertainments ever heard in Hillsboro.

The best voices in the Conservatory and College, under the leadership of Prof. F. T. Chapman, have been training for some months, and their chorus work, especially in Part I, is almost perfect.

"The Lady of Shelott," Tennyson's beautiful poem, set to music for ladies' voices by Bendall, is one of the most beautiful cantatas written.

The rest of the program will appeal to all who delight to hear solos, ladies' quartets, male quartets, college songs, etc. Some of the Universities' best singers will be heard in Hillsboro for the first time and no one ought to miss this opportunity on Friday night.

Wilcox-Waggener.
One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that which took place Wednesday, April 11. The contracting parties were George H. Wilcox and Miss Lura Waggener, both of this city. Mr. Wilcox is well known as the efficient assessor of Washington county, and Miss Waggener is one of our most popular and highly respected young ladies. The ceremony was performed at 2:30 p. m. at the Tualatin Hotel, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. Waggener, the parents of the bride. The parlors of the hotel had been tastefully decorated with cherry blossoms and Oregon grape.

Promptly as the hour arrived the couple, flanked by the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, with Miss Wilma Waggener at the piano. The beautiful ring ceremony was used by Rev. Henry L. Bates, of Pacific University, Forest Grove. Afterwards the happy couple received the congratulations of all those present, and light refreshments were served. The presents were numerous and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox left soon after for their short wedding trip, and upon their return they will be at home to their friends in Hillsboro after April 25th.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. Waggener, Miss Wilma Waggener, Dorr B. Waggener, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kindt, Victor Kindt, Hillis Kindt and Elinore Kindt; Grace and Mrs. E. W. Haines, Ruth and Gen. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Shipley, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bailey and Miss Mary Bailey, and Frank Luck of Forest Grove; William D. Clarke of Eureka, Cal., Dr. and Mrs. Tamiesle, Lura and Leon Tamiesle, Mrs. H. V. Gates and daughter Helen, Miss Rose Wilcox, and James S. Waggener, Sr., grandfather of the bride, Hillsboro; Mrs. James Waggener, Jr., and daughter Norine Waggener, of Vancouver, Wash.

New Green House for Hillsboro.
W. H. Morton and son, of Hillsboro, were in town Monday with the object of securing desirable land for an up-to-date greenhouse. They have decided to move their greenhouse at Beaverton here and have been looking at several pieces of land. It is their intention to erect two 120 foot buildings, and have several acres for their nursery stock. They are now furnishing Portland markets with the finest lilies obtainable, but have been handicapped for space. Mr. Morton is well known as a nursery and greenhouse man, and he is confident that a greenhouse will do well here. Owing to his present crop of set plants and young flowers he will not be able to leave his present place until about the first of June.
