The Sherwood United Concert Band has been engaged to furnish music for the Wilsonville Fourth of July celebration.

Martin Folch, a sawmill employe was in town a few days ago hunting up a peace officer in order to lodge a complaint against a Middleton farmer for breaking a beer glass over his cranium.

The new restaurant is nearing completion, near the depot, and the proprietor hopes to entertain the public soon with "coffee like your mother made" and other old-time victuals, served "a-la-mode."

Local merchants are preparing for the annual blowout on the Fourth, as a full supply of minor fireworks suitable for the purposes of the youngest American, have arrived and ready to explode on short notice.

Miss Frances Walling, daughter of Albert Walling, a prominent nurseryman, living near Oswego, and Leonard Hallinan, of the same place were married at the residence of the bride's parents on Monday evening last.

Union farmers complain of the scarcity of weeders this year. From $1.25 to $1.50 per day is offered for the work. One farmer turned over his growing crop to another on account of failure to secure weeders sufficient to care for the output.

Middleton people decided on last Wednesday evening to observe the Fourth in an appropriate manner. Owing to the lateness of their decision the home band could not be procured, (an engagement having been made elsewhere), consequently band music must be dispensed with, none being available at the present time.

Miss Dora Smock, the local station agent and telegraph operator has been temporarily relieved on account of sickness. A severe attack of rheumatism compelled her to ask for a vacation pending recovery.

The Tualatin Mill Company of Tualatin, have a large force of men at work near the old Mohrman place putting saw logs into the river to be rafted down to the mill. A small tug boat is used as motive power in bringing the timber down the stream.

The annual synod of the German Lutheran church, embracing the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho will meet in general session here, or rather at the church one mile west of town, the latter part of the month and continue about one week. The delegates are made up of ministers of the church and a full representation is expected to be present. Rev. A. Spilless, local pastor and secretary of the conference is busily engaged in preparing his annual report and arranging for entertaining the visiting members during their sojourn here.

But few cherries have been sold here during the season, while strawberries have been plentiful, considering the inclement weather. Jos. Cowman, the gardener, is supplying the local demands, and besides is shipping some to the Portland market.
