

Holiday goods arriving every day at H. B. Greer's. We will have the largest and finest assortment in this line in the county.

White Animals Can't Smell.
 "Pure white animals," said a pet store dealer, "have no sense of smell. They are continually eating things that disagree with them, and in great excess out of tea poison themselves and die. Pure white pigs should never be allowed to run loose in the fields and woods. For, without the protection of a smudge of soot, such pigs, when they get out, eat all sorts of poisonous roots and berries and die off rapidly. In Africa the white rhinoceros poisons itself by eating the euphorbia, and pure white sheep are difficult to rear because they are continually munching shrubs and grasses that don't agree with them."

Butler's Flag.
 Feb. 21, 1890, General Benjamin F. Butler presented to congress the first genuine American flag, made of American materials by American labor, ever constructed in this country. Prior to that time all American government flags had been made of English bunting. Since then all our official flags have been the product exclusively of American material and labor. There were twenty-six stars in the flag at that time.

His Last Name.
 A gentleman once asked a lad what was his last name.
 "Johnny," replied the boy.
 "Well, what is your full name?"
 "Johnny Brown, sir."
 "Well, how can Johnny be your last name?"
 "Because, sir, when I was born my name was Brown, and Johnny wasn't given to me till I was a month old."

A Narrow Escape.
 The company had assembled in the church, but the bridegroom was nowhere to be found. Finally a messenger announced that the young man had been run over and killed while on his way to the church.
 "And just think," she said a month afterward to a friend, "what a narrow escape I had from becoming a widow!"

A Prank of Memory.
 Why have we memory sufficient to retain the minutest circumstances that have happened to us and yet not enough to remember how often we have related them to the same person?
 —La Rochefoucauld.

A Contingency.
 "Haven't I a right to do as I like with my money?" inquired the multimillionaire.
 "You have," answered the sardonic person, "if your lawyer is smart enough to draw up a will that can't be contested."—Washington Star.

Well Supplied.
 Singleton—I suppose your wife has a lot of will power. Wedderly—Yes, but she has a lot more won't power.—Chicago News.

CHRISTMAS will soon be here and you will want to make a present to some dear one. Why not buy something useful—something lasting—that in a year hence will be as good as new? How would a Rocker, a Lounge or a do? Or you might get the "old folks" a new Bed Room Suite, or the young couple who are just starting out, a full set of Furniture. Either way suits us, and if you will come to my store, we will talk it over with you.

The price—well, that has a good deal to do with it, but we can fix that all right, and in years to come you will thank your lucky stars that you went to Donelson's. We can give you better than Portland prices on the same line of goods, and if anything should go wrong—which there won't—you will find Donelson's doing business at the same old stand, and he'll make it right. Now that guarantee is worth something, more than you will get in Portland and on top of all this, "WE'VE GOT THE GOODS," and can deliver them.

Rockers, Chairs, Baby Carriages, Sofas, Picture Frames, Bedroom Sets, Sitting Sets, and everything for Christmas.

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, I am Yours Truly,

W. O. DONELSON.
