

County Correspondence

We want a reporter in every town.

Scholls and Mountain Side.

Regular Correspondent.

No Sunday school at Scholls church on account of the rain.

Mrs. Grace Lawrence of Etna Works, made a short visit among her friends at Scholls the past week.

Rollie Brooks visited Newberg on business Saturday.

Mr. Bowers was over on Mountain Side on Saturday.

Frank Miller and wife, C. H. Brooks and wife, John Schmeltzer and wife and others went to Hillsboro last Saturday to attend the county grange.

D. B. Emerich and Rollie Brooks went over to Laurel Saturday night to the exhibition. They report a good program.

Mr. Rogers is breaking up some new land this spring. He has been working on it for some time.

The two Heaton boys who were hurt over by Astoria about two years ago are still far from being well. One has to have his leg broken over again, and the other one has to have skin grafted. I understand that they are going down to Astoria to have it done.

E. E. Brooks still has a mania for going off. His family are worried for fear he will get off sometime and get lost. They would consider it a kindness for any one to stop him until they could let the family know, as he might get out of the road and perish before he could be found.

Hettie.

Tigardville.

Regular Correspondent.

Much spraying has been done around here; nearly everybody that owns an orchard, turning out with a spraying apparatus of some kind, dealing destruction to the injurious pests which find their way into our orchards.

Miss Eva North of Portland visited with friends here last week.

The Messrs. Fred and Edward Veggele, of Portland, visited with the Veggele folks of Bull Mountain.

Frank Fischer, a conductor in the employ of the Portland Railway Co., and brother, Louis, visited with F. X. Fischer and family the first part of the week.

Miss Lola Smith, who was ill with diphtheria, is now getting better. It is thought that she will be able to be out in a few days.

Don't forget the big dance at Tigardville Saturday night, March 16. Boys, be sure and come and bring your girls along.

Cordwood is piling up in great style near the Taylor Ferry bridge. They are going to cut about 1000 cords.

N. Holm, of north of town, has been at work with his team grading on the Oregon Electric Co. right of way near Tualatin.

Beaverton.

Regular Correspondent.

Jno. L. Dillard received notice last week of his appointment as a regular clerk in the Portland post-office and started at once to report for duty.

The Union Lumber and Logging Co. of near Cedar Mills unloaded a large boiler from the cars at this place last week. This will take the place of the present boiler which is too small to supply the power necessary to run their mill under steadily increasing demand for lumber.

Mr. and Mrs. Armentrout of Portland visited relatives in this place Sunday.

The right-of-way man for the Beaverton-Willsburg R. R. is not making very fast progress in buying right-of-way. However settlements have been reported as having been made with the following in this neighborhood: Mrs. Julia Evans, T. J. Allen and B. K. Denny.

The Livermore sawmill has been loading several cars a week for several weeks past for Nevada shipment.

Tompkins Bros. loaded a carload of cedar poles last Monday for California.

The Longfellow Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Gady, in south Beaverton last Saturday evening. The largest crowd of the winter was in attendance to witness the closing of the study of Longfellow works. From now on the club will make a study of the early history of Oregon.

A. C. Allen spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks at this place. Mr. Allen was a member of the P. U. team which debated Whitman college at Walla Walla last week. He says that their side was laboring against imp. abilities in trying to win the judges on their side.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church held a reception at the parsonage Tuesday evening. Games were the order of the evening. Refreshments were served about 11 o'clock. A large crowd was in attendance.

The Oregon Electric Co. ran a preliminary survey just south of the city limits through the land owned by J. W. Barnes, Wm. Davis, Wm. Tucker and J. G. Kuenzi and others. This is the second of their preliminary surveys and will undoubtedly be followed by more.

Aunt Sally.

Cornelius.

Regular Correspondent.

The union meetings which have been in progress at the A. C. church at Cornelius have met with marked success. The meetings have been remarkable by the entire absence of denominational lines and sectarian spirit. The singing, conducted by Miss Katie Phelps has been one great source of spiritual inspiration.

ation. May the good work go on until the Christian world shall all throw down their little denominational pens and take the Bible alone as their only rule of faith and practice.

J. E. Cronan, of Portland, was out to Cornelius on business with the Phelps, Ith Land Co., who are on a deal with parties for Eastern Oregon land.

M. Peterson, Mrs. Baughman and Mrs. N. Noland who have been dangerously sick, are improving. Oregon sunshine administered in allopathic doses should be a specific for most ailments that flesh is heir to.

William H. Lung was buried March 12th at the Cornelius cemetery. Mr. Lung lived about one mile north of Cornelius.

Chris Peters formerly a resident of Cornelius died in Portland last week and was buried at the Cornelius cemetery March 12th.

Rural Route One, Beaverton. This section of the county was visited by a heavy hail storm last Monday, followed by a heavy frost Monday night.

The Metzger boy, near Progress, is being thoroughly undertrained by a system of tiling.

Henry Huelage and his brother-in-law, Asa Williams, have leased the Durham place for this year, containing fifty acres of hops, a large pasture and some twenty acres of plow land. This is one of the largest hop yards in the county, and Mr. Huelage will now be one of Washington county's hop kings, and as Mrs. Huelage made a record last fall of picking eleven boxes of hops a day, the question of picking will not bother them as much as it does some hop men. Their many friends wish the boys success in their venture.

Mrs. Fred Pusy is quite ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilson, near the Bend school house. Geo. Anderson, of Sand Hollow, on Bull Mountain, has treated his residence to a coat of white paint.

When Jim and Alvin North began sacking their potatoes, which were stored in the barn, they found that the east wind had crept in last winter while it was whistling around the mountain top and froze something like one hundred sacks of potatoes for them.

Thomas Bradley has had about a mile of wire fence woven around his farm.

A. A. Morrill is busy laying off town lots along the line of the electric road, near Progress.

Johnny and Ella Brandt, of Tigardville, were Beaverton visitors one day last week.

Mrs. Henry Huelage, and daughter, Mabel, visited several days last week with Miss Maud Hingley, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stull, of Pendleton, are down on a visit to Mrs. Stull's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jamison, of Peaville.

Miss Lola Smith, who had the diphtheria, is now getting better. It is thought that she will be able to be out in a few days.

Sam Shortridge, attorney for Abe Ruef, who was ordered to jail for twenty-four hours for contempt of court, by Judge Dunne, of San Francisco, was a Salem schoolboy some thirty years ago. This is not mentioned with any feeling of exultation in connection with what will no doubt prove his vigorous defense of the late political boss of San Francisco, but merely as an item of local history.—Portland Oregonian.

Liquid Spray

Mr. Cordley, of the Corvallis Agricultural College, writes Dunne & Co. as follows:

Corvallis, Ore., Sept. 7, 1906.

Dear Sir: In reply to your letter of the 4th inst. I am glad to be able to report that the results obtained from the use of your Phoenix Spray were very satisfactory indeed. I tested it by diluting one gallon of spray with ten gallons of water, also by diluting one to fifteen. The diluted sprays were applied thoroughly in February to trees that were simply infested, and even the weaker solution has apparently completely eradicated the pest from sprayed trees.

A final examination made about two weeks ago fails to reveal any living scale upon either fruit or leaves.
