The Magic No. 3
Number three is a wonderful mascot for Geo. H. Parris, of Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads: "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by the failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved, and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best on earth for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists. 50c.

The hurry and bustle, the worry and rustle, the flurry and hustle of commencement week are things of the past. Affairs are settling into the long unbroken calm of summertime. The tramp, tramp of many student feet is heard no more, and the echoes as they grow fainter and fainter may be the last that Corvallis will ever hear from some of those who are leaving. The annual passing on of the classes is in a way pathetic; their constant going is a continual snapping asunder of ties that to many mean more than the word "commencement." Yet, knowing that without this steady, onward march there is no progress, we could not wish it otherwise, and as the last senior of '07 waves a goodbye from the car window, Corvallis will forget to mourn, and extend a cheery "goodbye."—Corvallis Gazette.

He Fired the Stick.
"I have fired the walking-stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. C. Guaranteed for Piles, Burns, etc., by all druggists. 25c.

At a recent meeting of Eastern physicians there was some very forcible talk against the carelessness in spreading tuberculosis germs among people. One physician declared that a "don't kiss the baby" sign should be displayed in every home, to be strictly observed by numberless aunts, cousins and callers who "just must" give the newborn being a few smacks. Another one of the delegates said the kissing habit is as dangerous as the house-fly in scattering the lung disease, and he condemned the use of carpets and the wearing of the long skirts by women on the streets and in public places. Still another doctor was bitter against the filthy condition of the Pullman cars, which are "next to coffins."—Ex.
