C. F. Merritt, of Nome, Alaska, was in the city last week Thursday, the guest of County Clerk Godman. He and Mr. Godman were old-time friends in Alaska in 1893 and enjoyed the opportunity of talking over old times. Mr. Merritt expects to spend the winter in Oregon, and may conclude to remain permanently.

Miss Pearl Greear, accompanied by her brother, Harold, left last Wednesday morning for California to join their parents, who are at La Mesa. Miss Greear's health is not good and she hopes a winter in the milder climate of the Golden State will be beneficial. Mr. Greear is reported to be improving in health and working up a growing appetite by walking several miles daily.

Editor Fogel, of the Forest Grove Times, was a caller at this office last Saturday. He came over after a grist of court house news, but since the wheels of justice have ceased to turn since Governor Chamberlain clogged them with the holiday wedge, he had to content himself with saying "How-do" to his friends here.

John Kassabaum of Shady Brook, brought to town last week a sample of potatoes which, up to the time of this writing, holds over anything of the kind seen here. On two acres of land he raised 540 sacks of spuds, two bushels to the sack. They are of the Burbank variety and the samples can be seen in the office window of Kuratli Bros., on Main street.

The following is the order of services at the Christian church for next Sunday. Bible school 10:15 a. m., topic, "Personal Responsibility." Review at 11. Communion at 11:30. C. E. meeting at 6:30. Preaching at 7:30, theme, "Viewing the Situation." Special music, Elder A. A. Berry, Pastor. Prof. G. A. Webb, Musical Director.

J. W. Gates left at this office last Saturday two spuds from 1250 sacks he raised on a nine-acre tract of land one and three-quarters of a mile north of this city. The largest potato weighs over three pounds, while the smaller one tips the scales at nearly two. They are of the Burbank variety, sound as a bullet and made fine eating. Mr. Gates also had three acres which yielded 190 sacks to the acre.

The man who wrestles with the cow and learns the calf to suck, who cast the wheat before the swine, is now in good luck; for butter's on the up-grade, veal's higher than a kite, fresh pork is climbing up the the scale and beef is out of sight. The eggs he gathers every day are worth their weight in gold, and wood prices they climb higher while we shiver in the cold. His oats bring fancy prices—they are raising every day, and he takes in all kinds of cash for half a ton of hay. The farmer's in the saddle and when he comes to town, the rest of us by right should go way back and sit down.—Ex.

One of the most noticeable improvements made in this city in the past year, and there have been many, is the painting of the huge barn on the corner of Washington and Second streets, owned by W. Wiley. That structure has stood for years an eye-sore and an object of ridicule by about everybody coming to Hillsboro. But the painters have wrought a wonderful change in its appearance. It is painted a bright red, with white trimmings, and is an ornament to that corner instead of being just the opposite.

"Christ's Sayings About God" will be the morning topic in the Congregational church. "Faith, a Necessity of Life" will be the evening topic. The Congregational church was closed last Sunday evening in order to join the union service in the M. E. church. The pastor announces that hereafter the Congregational services will not be given up unless arrangements for a union service are made before the announcements go to the press.

We make pop-corn balls, fresh and crisp. Den of Sweets.

Recently a small colony came to this city from St. Paul, Minn., consisting of William Sahnow and wife and his three sons, H. C. Sahnow, wife and four children, Herbert and William A. with their families, and a son-in-law, Wm. Henry and family. Mr. Henry and William A. Sahnow have moved into the W. E. Thorne home and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sahnow will move into this city next week. These people will make desirable citizens and will remain in Hillsboro during the winter or until they can look around and buy farm property to their liking.

The Christian church was well filled last Sunday evening to listen to the song service and illustrated songs, which were very entertaining and enjoyed by all present. The duets by the Misses Ray and Blaser, and Mr. and Mrs. Webb were especially good, as were the violin solo by J. B. Wilkes and the song by Messrs. Bowman, Tipton, Smith and Jones. "The solo by Elder Beery and "Sunshine in My Soul" by the congregation, in which Mr. Webb showed himself to be an excellent whistler, were greatly enjoyed. The Christian church is growing in numbers and accomplishing much good in this city, and the evening meetings are a source of much pleasure to those attending. The congregation is increasing every week, a fact much appreciated by the pastor and members of that church. Everybody is cordially invited to all of these meetings.

The Retail Merchants Association held a meeting at city hall last Friday evening, and besides taking in a few new members and transacting the usual business, the proposal to hold a banquet in the near future was discussed. It was the voice of those present that such a social gathering should be held to which all members and their wives should take part and President W. H. Wehrung appointed John Dennis, R. H. Greer and Mrs. I. G. Bath a committee to set the date for the banquet and make all arrangements necessary. The association, which has been organized but a few weeks, is now on a firm foundation and if carried along on the lines now prevailing, is sure to prove a benefit to all its members. The early closing movement is one of the important things accomplished by the association and most of the merchants in the city are now closing up their places of business at 7 o'clock in the evening, thus giving their clerks an opportunity to enjoy their evenings as they choose, besides, as President Wehrung said at the meeting, making it possible for the merchants themselves to get better acquainted with their families. The association adjourned at an early hour to meet again tonight, when the banquet matter will be discussed and probably a date set for holding it.

"Attention Loggers."

Oregon blue flannel underwear and over shirts, high top shoes, heavy wool socks and water-proof pants at Baird's.

This is Going Some.

According to a non-official census prepared by the Commercial club of Bandon, that energetic little city by the sea has a population of 2,500, an increase of 2,000 since the last federal census was taken. No place in Oregon is growing more rapidly or is adding to its population a more desirable class of citizens.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Items of Interest to Parents and Pupils from the School Room.

Mrs. Frank Kane and Mrs. John Bailey who are deeply interested in school work visited a couple of rooms in the city school Tuesday afternoon. If more parents and friends would do likewise the school and home would understand each other better.

Nothing was fully decided upon at the meeting of athletics at the school house last Saturday. Another meeting is to be called possibly for next Saturday.

Mrs. Pittenger, of the primary department, visited in Portland over Sunday and witnessed the unusual sight of the transfer of gold coin from a droy to the First National Bank in that city, which the Sunday Oregonian described.

The lady teachers are thinking of going on a strike. They have not decided whether to strike for a janitor's pay when on extra duty, strike against long hours in a dark damp basement or strike against doing janitor's duty entirely, but they are going to strike just the same.

Under the Compulsory Education law lately passed "Any child between and including the age of nine and fourteen and any child between fourteen and sixteen years of age not regularly and lawfully engaged in any employment must attend school each year as long as school is taught in district in which the parent or guardian lives." The penalty attached to the violation of this law is a punishment imposed upon the parent or guardian of a fine, or imprisonment, or both. The district boundary board of Washington county has appointed Deputy Sheriff Kane as the truancy officer of this district and as such he was called upon to serve papers on Mr. Washington and bring his child into school. There are a few other children in the district subject to this law who are to be reported.

The Eighth grade lost a pupil this week in Harold Greear, who with his sister, Pearl, left Wednesday for California to join their parents who had gone in search of the father's health.

All pupils in the schools neither absent or tardy during the month past with an average of 90 per cent in deportment will be excused Friday at 3:30 p. m.

An appeal has been made to the public school children of this city and through them to their parents and all friends of charity for a Thanksgiving donation to be made to The Boys' & Girls' Aid Society, of Portland. All such donations will be gratefully received and should be given either to the school children to be delivered on Friday afternoon or sent to the school house early Saturday morning where a committee will pack and ship the same to Portland.

In "Zeke, the Country Boy," which comes to the Crescent Friday, November 22, we have an American play that has achieved success through pathos, simplicity, naturalness and because its characters are so human, its plot so original, unconventional and exciting, and which thrills and grips one's mind as only the crises of life can do. Every character in the play, we are told, is true in its sketching; every line seems measured with grace, motion and verity; and there is that stanch, persistent spirit of national plainness and independence which have made "Shore Acres," "The Old Homestead," and "David Harum" so successful. Usual prices.

Wanted.

Sheep, hogs and beef cattle bought. J. G. Haynes, Beaverton; telephone 551.

Death of Mrs. Meacham.

Martha Ellen Jackson Meacham, wife of J. J. Meacham, was born on Otter Creek, Ripley county, Indiana, August 4, 1842, and was married at the same place January 8, 1861, to J. J. Meacham. She was the mother of thirteen children, nine of whom survive; Charles, Elsworth, Thomas, Gorby, Henry, Oliver, Mrs. Anna Evans, George, Oran, William, Mrs. Bertha Ennis, and James, at home.

Mrs. Meacham came to Oregon December 7, 1871, and joined Mr. Meacham, who came March 22, 1870, and located on East Dairy Creek Washington county, where she made her home most of the time since. She united with the Christian church at the age of 15. She joined the Methodist church and also with the Free Methodist church for convenience, and has always been a devoted Christian, a faithful wife and a loving and kind mother. Mrs. Meacham passed away November 17, at the age of 65 years, 2 months, and 13 days, leaving a husband, nine children, ten grand children, three great grand children and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss.

The funeral was held at Glencoe church at 11 o'clock, Tuesday, the 19th, conducted by Rev. L. F. Belknap, and her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Scotch church, north of Hillsboro.

Mass Meeting.

Notice is hereby given to the legal voters of Hillsboro that a Mass Meeting is called for Monday evening, November 25, in the city hall at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of putting in nomination a ticket to be voted for at the coming city election. The offices to be filled are Mayor, three Councilmen, City Recorder and City Treasurer.

Dated Nov. 22, 1907.

JOHN DENNIS, Mayor.
