The public schools at Forest Grove closed Wednesday afternoon owing to diphtheria in the family of J. E. Loomis, near the schoolhouse. A young son has been sick for several days with what was supposed to be tonsillitis, but, becoming worse, physicians were called who pronounced it diphtheria. Two children from this family had been in school the day before. One child died Wednesday.

Horton & Cox, the former from Eugene and the latter of Omaha, Neb., were here last Saturday looking after the ice plant proposition. After looking over the field carefully they concluded to go to Oregon City, where a plant is already established and buy out that institution. We are sorry they could not make up their minds to remain here for it meant two more desirable families and a factory worth from $10,000 to $15,000, giving labor to ten or fifteen people. They will move to Oregon City at once.

Claude Greear will leave next week for his ranch, situated 25 miles west of Corvallis and 3 miles from the Summit. The ranch contains 380 acres and Claude thinks there will be enough work to keep him busy for some time. Since quitting active work in the Climax Mill, and getting the pure ozone from the mountains just west of his ranch, his health has improved materially, and he says he is getting the proverbial cross-cut saw appetite. Mrs. Greear will leave next week for a visit with her mother at Brownsville.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the work being done by the Willamette Valley Development League, toward advertising the Willamette valley. J. R. Shepard, the corresponding secretary, was in town yesterday, securing statements of production of onion, milk, etc. The effort is being made to secure 1000 such statements with name and address of producer, to circulate among the home-seekers of the East. If you will give a statement of your best yields to any of our real estate men, they will be forwarded to Mr. Shepard, and our county will secure its share of the benefit.

We have just received the "Home Edition" of the Junction City, Lane County, Times, which typographically, mechanically and editorially holds over any other special edition of a newspaper, received at this office. Its illustrations are from half-tone cuts, are printed on heavy glazed paper and is a big advertisement for Junction City and its publishers. No city or county pretending to any idea of advancement is too poor to advertise its resources, and if it fails to do so, only drops behind in the race, while other more enterprising communities forge to the front. Junction City has done itself proud, and it will be money well spent.

S. Wilson showed us quite a relic one day this week. It was a convention badge used by the delegates to the National Convention in 1840. His brothers Robert and John Wilson were delegates to the convention. They wore the little pieces of silk home with them and Robert kept his for several years, after which he gave it to S. Wilson, who has carefully preserved it ever since. The badge, which is of white silk, is about six inches long and two inches wide and has printed on it the picture of a little log cabin with skins nailed on the doors and the following: "Grand Whig State Convention, Burlington, Vt., June 25, 1840, favorable to the nomination of Wm. H. Harrison, the log cabin Candidate. The People's Choice." Mr. Wilson was 9 years old when that convention was held. He thinks a great deal of the badge and has had it framed.

Mrs. Chas. Ellwell and her brother, W. O. Tucker, have been out from Portland this week assisting in the care of their father, Thos. Tucker.

The Firemen's dance Saturday night was largely attended and everybody had a good time. The hall was decorated with Oregon grape and the lights shaded with red. The fire fighters wore their uniforms.

While D. Richards, who lives on the mountain near Gaston, was driving with his daughter between his home and Gaston, the wagon went into a hole, throwing the daughter between the wagon box and the wheel, causing a fracture of the cheekbone and the wrist. Dr. Tamiel was called.

We neglected to mention in our last issue of the death of Henry Westphal of Fulton whose death occurred last week. Deceased was quite well known both in this city and Forest Grove. Mrs. F. M. Heidel spent several days with Mrs. Westphal, who has been quite ill since her husband's death.

The Bankers and Merchants Mutual Fire Relief Association of Forest Grove has just held its annual meeting and elected two sets of directors for the year. Each directorate has chosen its officers, making two presidents, two vice-presidents, two secretaries and two treasurers. It would seem that the company must be less than a match for the volume of its business providing for a day and night shift.

I. J. Campbell returned from an Eastern trip Saturday, having spent the past two months visiting with friends in North Dakota and at Spokane and Seattle. Mr. Campbell went to attend to some business matters just as the continuous holidays were declared by the governor in that state, and he states that the tie-up was even worse than it was here. He was accompanied by his granddaughter, Lois Sarver, of Seattle.

At least 200 Oregon editors will meet in Portland today and tomorrow. It is the annual meeting of the Oregon Editorial Association, and the brethren of the press will make it purely business, though a reception will be given this evening by the officers of the association and their wives at the beautiful mansion home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, on Twenty-fifth and Lovejoy streets. The doctor is corresponding secretary of the association, and his election to that position has put new and vigorous life into the organization.

There was a big "feed" at 6 o'clock which, together with the installation ceremonies, was largely attended. The following officers were installed for the ensuing term by Phoenicia Temple: M. E. C. Mrs. George Schulerich; senior, Mrs. L. Whitcomb; junior, Mrs. Wm. Nelson; manager, Mrs. E. McKinney; M. of R. & C. Ella Wilkes; M. of F. Mrs. Susie Morgan; protector, Mrs. L. H. Roundy; guard, Mrs. L. W. House. By Phoenix lodge: C. C. H. T. Bagley; V. C., J. H. Grable; prelate, C. E. Deichman; K. of R. S., W. G. Hare; M. of W., L. W. House; M. of F., Geo. Schulerich; M. of E., Dr. W. D. Wood; M. of A., E. W. Moore. L. G., Wm. Nelson; O. G., H. Schulerich. The installing officers were Mrs. R. H. Greer, deputy grand chief, and George Schulerich, deputy grand chancellor.

A Washington special to the Oregonian of yesterday morning says: Careful study and analysis of the situation here justifies the prediction that the senate will reject the nomination of Christian Schuebel. This prediction is not authorized by any member of the Oregon delegation, and may be condemned by Senator Bourne, but feeling runs high in the Oregon delegation, and matters have reached a point where no other outcome seems possible. Senator Fulton and Representatives Hawley and Ellis refused to support Mr. Schuebel, because they believed him not qualified to fill the office of district attorney. Evidence is accumulating sustaining them in their judgment, and their position is further strengthened by the conduct of Schuebel since his nomination was sent to the senate. Moreover, it is believed that Mr. Bourne had the promise of Mr. Schuebel's appointment before the recommendations of the opposing candidates were placed in the hands of the president, which, if substantiated, will not strengthen the junior senator when he engages in a final conflict with his colleague in the senate. It was demonstrated yesterday that the senate is not averse to rejecting nominations for due cause, and from all appearances there is a stronger case against Mr. Schuebel than was made out against the four unfortunate Ohio postmasters.

William H. Wilson of Gales Creek has just received a check for $207 from the Pacific Coast Condensed Milk factory, proceeds for December from 14 cows, which he fed on vetch, turnips and kale. His average test was 5 per cent. In November from 14 cows he got $183.

Illustrated songs by stereopticon, Monday night, January 27, at the Christian church. Five solos, five duets, six quartets, ladies and male quartette, one hundred and sixty-five pictures will be used in illustrating these songs. Tickets bought at Webb & Hoover's store are 10 and 15 cents, but at the church door, 15 and 25 cents.

Thos. Tucker badly injured. Thos. Tucker, who is living with his daughter, Mrs. U. G. Gardner, on Main street, met with a serious accident last week which will keep him confined to his bed for several weeks. He had about completed the pruning of the fruit trees in his orchard and was standing on the top of a step-ladder finishing the last tree, when he overbalanced, the ladder collapsed and he fell to the ground striking on his hip, breaking the socket of the hip joint, besides bruising his body considerably. He was assisted to the house and Dr. Linklater sent for, who reports his patient resting as easily as can be expected. Owing to his age the injury will be slow in healing and Mr. Tucker will be confined to his home for a long time.

To Dairymen of Washington County. Hillsboro, Oregon, January 15.—Gentlemen: I will again call upon you with a view that an organization of the Dairymen of Washington county, for the Dairymen and by the Dairymen of Washington County, be organized.

We have at present a supposed dairymen's organization, but as I look upon it, it is not one of the dairymen or for the dairymen, but seems to be one for everybody and for anybody but the dairymen.

I have attended some of the meetings and I have listened to some men with considerable ability, but I have the first one to hear at those meetings that speak particularly of the dairymen, the tenor of their voices seem to be more milk, more cows, and you, gentlemen, as well as I, know that supply and demand goes together. You can see that the whole organization is for the purpose of increasing the number of cows, and that means the interest of dealers in milk and not of the producer.

You can see that our present dairymen's association seems to be kept in a box, only at such times as some parties have a bunch of Holsteins to advertise and sell.

Now, dairymen, will you stop and consider that it is to the interest of the dairymen of this county and state to have an organization of the dairymen only, and for the dairymen, and conducted by the dairymen, for gentlemen, the day is coming in the near future when the dairymen of this county and state will find themselves just exactly in a similar box as happen of the Pacific coast find themselves in at the present time.

I hope to hear some person suggest a time and place, and if there is a leaning on the part of the dairymen I, for one, will be willing to organize a dairymen's association, for the dairymen only and of the dairymen only.

Yours very truly,
WM. McQUILAN.

Served for Twelve Years. F. M. Kelsay doesn't pretend to know all there is to be learned about road-making, but he can hand out a few pointers to those that do, if they would only take advantage of his long experience and examine the roads that he has built. For the past twelve years Mr. Kelsay has been supervisor of South Hillsboro and he is proud of the miles of good highway, the result of his faithful labors. He is a firm believer in the split-log drag and says that right now is the time to put them in operation and keep them going until late in the spring. The district covered by Mr. Kelsay extends along the Baseline road to the Young school house west, thence east from the limits to Rock creek near Grabel's, thence south from the Norton place, by the way of the Minto bridge to Burkhalter's, thence on the Jackson road to what is known as the four corners, going to Laurel near Simpson's. This route is much traveled my milk and mail carriers, everyone of whom speak very highly of the roads, and it is gratifying to them at this time when the continued rains make even the best roads hard to travel. As a road supervisor Mr. Kelsay is a success and the right man in the right place.

William H. Wilson of Gales Creek has just received a check for $207 from the Pacific Coast Condensed Milk factory, proceeds for December from 14 cows, which he fed on vetch, turnips and kale. His average test was 5 per cent. In November from 14 cows he got $183.

SOMETHING NEW AT EMMOTT'S. Emmott Bros. are Giving Away Hundreds of Beautiful Pictures Free of Charge.

This is not a lottery or a game of chance of any kind, but a genuine gift Emmott Bros. propose to give their customers. You simply buy $20 worth of goods at their store, then make a selection from thirty beautiful pictures and carry it away without a cent and cost to you. Or, if you prefer, you can trade to the amount of $2 and by paying 85 cents in cash, you will be given the picture without further cost.

When you are down town step into these pictures' store and exhibition. They consist of thirty scenes, many of them real works of art, handsomely framed in size and gold, are 22x26 inches in size and will make desirable ornaments on the walls of any home. There are mountain scenery, fruit, flowers and woods, fishing, hunting and many others. If bought of a regular dealer they would cost at least $2.50. The only string on this gift proposition is that the $20 purchases must be made within four weeks from the time the first purchase is made.

Here is a chance to get your groceries and meats, the best money can buy, at bed-rock prices, and be presented with a beautiful picture, all framed and ready for the wall, absolutely free.

E. B. Tongue for District Attorney. Hon. E. B. Tongue has announced his intention to seek the republican nomination for district attorney at the coming primaries, and he has numerous friends in this county who not only hope he will land the office but will turn in and work with that object in view. Mr. Tongue's qualification are well known, especially in his home county. He is an attorney of marked ability and as district attorney would fill all requirements.

Washington county has always stood loyally by the candidates of Clatsop county for this office, and it was the support of Washington county that gave Mr. Allen the office in the first instance. This county has always supported Mr. Fulton, and Mr. Dunbar also, and certainly has a right to expect assistance at this time from the friends of these gentlemen in their own county.

The office of district attorney is getting to be a very important one, and ought to be filled by a lawyer of considerable experience, and it is said that Mr. McQue has never practiced law in his life until he received the appointment as Mr. Hedge's assistant, a few months ago, and the voters of Washington county ought to see to it that Washington county gets this nomination, and they ought to impress upon Clatsop county that they expect her assistance. Mr. Tongue has filed with the secretary of state his declaration of nomination which contains, among other things, a short and compact platform, direct to the point, which reads as follows:

"If I am nominated and elected I will, during my term of office, honestly, vigorously and impartially perform all the official duties of the office of district attorney without fear or favor, endeavoring always to accord to every individual irrespective of party, politics or personalities, a square deal under the law, keeping always uppermost in my mind the interest of the taxpayers in said district and office."

The following state officers are now held by residents of Astoria: C. W. Fulton, United States senator; H. G. Vandusen, master fish warden; Alfred C. McKinney, member state board of health; R. R. Wallace, member of Barber's Board of Examiners; Samuel Elmore, Board of Commissioners of the Port of Columbia; Frank J. Taylor, A. W. Pendleton, Albert C. Ross being three out of four members constituting the State Board of Pilot Commissioners; Oswell West a member of the Railroad Commission; F. I. Dunbar has just finished two terms as secretary of state, and Harrison Allen was elected to two terms as district attorney, the second term expiring on the 1st of last July. When Mr. Allen was first elected to the office the term was for a period of two years, but during his term it was extended to four, and Mr. Allen was therefore elected to what was equivalent to four terms of the office, as the same was held by Messrs. Cleeton, Barrett, McBride and others.

It has always been the custom among the counties to allow the district attorney's office to go in rotation to the different counties comprising the district. It is now Washington county's turn to have it. This county's last candidate had it four years. Clatsop county's last candidate had it for eight years, therefore it would seem that Clatsop county, on this account alone, has no claim to the office at this time.

The Secret of a Beautiful Face lies in keeping the skin protected as well as cleansed. Just washing is not enough—that only leaves the delicate surface more exposed to the irritation of dust and germs to merciless attacks of sun and weather. After washing, apply Robentine and experience its delightful refreshment. You will admire the lineless softness it imparts to face, neck and arms. It not only stimulates a radiant glow, but protects the skin from becoming coarse.
