CAN'T STAND STATEMENT NO. 1

But if Elected Will Vote for the Republican Who Receives the Highest Number of Votes.

Hon. W. K. Newell, at a meeting of the fruitgrowers in Portland last week, was asked as to his views this year on Statement No. 1. Two years ago when a candidate for the legislature he signed Statement No. 1 and was the only one of the three legislators elected from Washington county who did. He now says that while he is a candidate again he will not sign No. 1 this time. He will pledge himself, if elected, to vote in the legislature for the republican who receives the highest vote for senator, but he does not want to put himself in position where he might have to vote for a democrat.

The Spread of Temperance.

The first prohibitory law was that of Maine, 1851. In 1870 persons living under prohibition numbered about 4,000,000. In 1908 persons living under absolute prohibition, of state, city, town or country, foot up 33,000,000. There are six "dry" states—Alabama, Georgia, Kansas, Maine, Oklahoma and North Dakota. Kentucky has 97 "dry" counties out of 119; North Carolina has "dried" 99 per cent of her territory; South Carolina, 50 per cent; Tennessee has but three places where drink can be sold, Massachusetts is about 50 per cent "dry," while 62 per cent of the people of New Hampshire are under prohibition. In Maryland, Virginia, Mississippi and Delaware the fight for prohibition is being made in earnest.

It Must Be Up in the Air.

The railroad commission has set March 6 for the hearing of the application of the Oregon Electric company for a suspension of the section of the interstate commerce law making a railway company liable to punishment for failing to furnish cars to haul freight when requested to do so. The company makes this request, stating that for at least thirty days it will not have sufficient cars to handle the freight that will be offered. The Oregon Electric company has filed its preliminary report with the commission, stating that it has fifty miles of road in use between Portland and Salem, and twenty miles of track completed of the branch line to Hillsboro.

The Cigarette Evil.

"The Young Man and the Cigarette" furnished a fruitful theme on which Rev. Dr. Forest E. Dager of St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal church spoke recently to a gathering in Philadelphia. Taking as his text St. Paul's statement in his first epistle to the Corinthians, "I keep my body under," he said, in part: "From an authoritative source it has been learned that longevity of life has been increasing slowly, but human life is being crippled and shortened in many cases by cigarette smoking. The subject touches the moral and civic issues of the day, and is demanding keen attention.

"Think of these stupendous figures. In 1906 there were made in the United States 3,864,534,413 registered cigarettes, an increase of 315,000,000 over 1905. Statistics also show that every day in the United States 1200 boys begin the cigarette habit. There are young men, no doubt, listening to me now who began the habit last year, others who will begin next year. The habit begins early and is certainly most injurious in many ways to the user of the cigarette. It becomes a disease.

"One of the Sunday school classes in my church, composed of young boys, was picked out of a hay loft, where the lads were smoking cigarettes and gambling. A woman teacher found them there, not a police officer. He could not find them. These boys have discontinued the habit and are becoming stronger and better, morally, religiously and socially.

"We have no law that touches the case. The boy secures the vile cigarettes and, seeking of tentatives some secluded place, against the commands of his parents, smokes to his heart's content. Our chief executive, the mayor, seems to have no time to execute laws; he seems rather to be engaged in framing legislation for our municipal government. If we only had some kind of law to prevent the boy from smoking, which runs frequently to committing suicide, we could check his moral rottenness.

"I might also state that the increase of cigarette smoking is more marked among girls than boys, this being particularly observed in cafes, saloons and halls. I'm told that in one of your local high-toned institutions the corridors are filled nightly with the smoke of cigarettes in the mouths of women. I have a young man in my church who could not participate in our gymnasium work simply because his heart has been affected by cigarette smoking.

"The influence upon the mind of the boy or girl is very injurious. Leading high school teachers of the country are unanimous in stating that the cigarette habit has decreased the scholarship of students fully 10 per cent.

"Throw away your Turkish Trophies, Egyptian Moguls or whatever name you give the cigarettes. The very name suggests that the devil has a hand in them, which, if you use them, will be your downfall. You will lack manliness, mentality, reliability, truthfulness. You are cutting off three-fourths of your opportunity of the future by smoking cigarettes. Insurance companies, railroad corporations and large industries will not employ you if addicted to the habit. If you want credit with God and man eschew the cigarette."

Hot coffee, cocoa, ham and cheese sandwiches, all kinds of soft drinks, served at the fountain, choice confections, oysters in bulk, oyster cocktails a specialty, smokers' articles, choice cigars, and a complete line of chewing and smoking tobaccos. Fresh fruit and nuts, at Palma-

14 PRIZES FOR OREGON KID

E. B. TONGUE WINS AGAIN.

"Oregon Kid" Wins the McGrath Cup, Finishing 200 Yards Ahead of the Field.

Attorney E. B. Tongue, of this city, on Oregon Kid, winner of fourteen cups and recognized as the best cross country horse in Oregon, last Saturday won the annual Washington's Birthday paper chase and the permanent possession of the handsome McGrath trophy awarded the winner. H. H. Herdman, on Bob Crawford finished second, with James Nicol on Mowitza a close third. The Portland Journal says of the race:

The largest crowd that ever witnessed a paper chase saw Tongue and his handsome horse dash around the last turn and came galloping past the judges 200 yards ahead of his nearest competitor. Oregon Kid has been carrying Mr. Tongue for the past four years, and was raised near Heppner.

The start and finish were near Harrison station on the Woodstock car line, and scores of enthusiasts journeyed out to the scene by horseback, carriage, automobile and streetcar. The start was made at 2:30 o'clock and the devious course laid by Mrs. Buffum and Miss Anne Shogren over a distance of six miles, with some eight hurdles and fifteen blinds, was negotiated in about three quarters of an hour.

A. M. Cronin and W. B. Fehleimer were judges of the start and finish.

Following were the riders who took part, besides the winners, Joe Muehe, on Scappoose; F. O. Downing, on Nigger; Ralph Jenkins, on Will Werung; William Walters, on Gibson Boy; James Alexander, on Call Bond; Edgar Lazarus, on Juan Ballardo; Lew Leadbetter, on Chief; R. B. Lampton, on Topsy; John Latta on "Gym" and Harry Skuse on By Furnace.

Stop-over privileges and other conditions of sale will be practically the same as prevailed previously."

A Cook's Confession.

Several ladies sat after a card party at the University Club a few mornings ago, discussing the virtues of their husbands. "Mr. Bingleton," said one of them, referring to her life partner, "never drinks and never swears—indeed, he has no bad habits." "Does he ever smoke?" some one asked. "Yes; he likes a cigar just after he has eaten a good meal. But, I suppose, on an average, he doesn't smoke more than once a month."—Philippine Gossip.

County Treasurer's Notice.

W. M. JACKSON,
43-44 County Treasurer.

Future Portland.

Monday, February 10, 1908, the Chicago Union Stock Yards received 33,501 cattle, 1,303 calves, 87,716 hogs, 26,900 sheep, and 838 horses, or a total of 150,357 animals in 2,933 cars, breaking the previous record of hog receipts and total number of animals received.

On the receipts, there were sold and shipped alive, mainly to Eastern slaughtering points and for export, 10,063 cattle, 28 calves, 21,138 hogs, 6,469 sheep, and 109 horses, or a total of 37,807 animals in 787 cars, breaking all previous record of hog shipments, total number of carloads shipped and total number of animals shipped.

The grand total handled by the railroads and the Union Stock Yard and Transit Co. on that day was 188,164 animals and 3,720 cars, which is equal to a solid train over 28 miles long, or if ranged in single file would make a solid procession of animals over 200 miles long and require ten days to pass a given point marching constantly at the rate of 20 miles per day. This is something never before equaled, moreover, all were quickly and easily handled.

Monday's enormous receipts were promptly absorbed at only a slight reduction from the prices of the previous week, practically all being sold on day of arrival. Packers got upward of 51,000 hogs, shippers bought close to 25,000, and the remainder were mixed hogs mostly sold to speculators. Of the 11,000 left over, 4,000 were carried over by shippers and 7,000 by speculators, almost everything being sold.

RIFLE RANGE IN PORTLAND

FOR OREGON NATIONAL GUARD

Opening of Interurban Electric Line Celebrated—Oregon's Work in Southern California.

(Special Correspondence.)

Portland, February 24th, 1908.

The Oregon National Guard is very active in its efforts to obtain a suitable and permanent rifle range near this city. Besides being immediately available for the use of six companies, including those stationed at Vancouver, Wash., the range would attract any United States cruisers and other naval vessels to this port, since this practice is required of the Navy as well. The matter has been taken up with the United States War Department and strongest possible endorsement has gone forward from the Portland Commercial Club and other organizations of Portland.

Celebrating the opening of the new electric interurban line between Portland and Salem on February 18th, the latter city entertained numerous delegations from the various cities of the Willamette valley. Over a hundred business men went from Portland in two special cars. Great enthusiasm was aroused by the speeches of both visitors and Salem men, and all united in emphasizing the necessity for wide-awake, aggressive advertising to develop both city and country. Salem contemplates an immediate campaign as a result.

Washington's Birthday had twice its usual interest, and significance in Portland this year on account of this being also the city's first observance of "Rose Planting Day." Archbishop Christie participated in the exercises in connection with planting the thousands of roses which were borne to the parks by the school children. Vigorous two year old bushes were set out, which will bloom generously by the first of June, for the Rose Festival. A distinctive feature of the grand parade planned for the Festival will be the entry of floats from different cities in the state—several have already designed floats illustrating some particular product of their section. This attractive representation will doubtless attract many visitors to these communities.

A branch of the work of the Portland Commercial Club which many people know nothing about is the maintenance of an Oregon Information Bureau in Los Angeles, which has been wonderfully successful in its efforts to so interest Californian tourists that they may return to their Eastern homes by way of Oregon. Oregon literature is distributed from several of the most centrally-located offices in Los Angeles, and it is eagerly taken. The colonist rates, and particularly the $30 fare from the great Middle West to all stations in the "Beaver State" is emphasized in every publication given. Eastern lectures are also employed to a limited extent, and Robert J. Weyh, Jr., of New York City, has just reported a most successful series, with audiences frequently numbering in excess of one thousand adults. "They take in every word about Oregon," he writes, "and then fire questions at me."
