BAKER, Optician, 111 Sixth St., Portland.

Apprentice Wanted.

Apprentice wanted at the Delta Drug Store. Must be not less than 17 years old, have an education equivalent to the Ninth grade in the public school, and be able to carry on a conversation in the German language.

Stop and picture in your mind what an awful lot of fun "Sis," with her pigtails and stuffed stockings, must have caused when she led Zeke up Broadway from the Battery.

But they did not notice it, for they were too busy dodging street cars. The whole Indiana Hoosier bunch is to be here on Monday, March 9th at the Crescent, and the title of the newest doings of the funny lass is "Sis in New York." Usual prices.

Jury List.

County Clerk Godman and the sheriff this week drew the jury list for the March Term of the Circuit court, which convenes in this city Monday, March 16, as follows:

- J. C. Ellis, Washington, farmer. Julius Ashbar, South Hillsboro, farmer. Henry David, N. Forest Grove, farmer. Ira Bradley, N. Forest Grove, farmer. Jas. Hagen, West Cedar, farmer. Joe Connolly, Washington, farmer. Chris. Phillips, Beaverton, farmer. Jas. Robt, Columbus, farmer. J. J. Gantman, West Cedar, farmer. Carl Hansen, N. Forest Grove, farmer. Fred W. Amteker, West Butte, farmer. J. J. Manahan, Mountain, farmer. Paul Beck, Dilley, farmer. Wm. McRobert, Gales Creek, farmer. John Friday, Dairy, farmer. M. J. Johnston, West Cedar, farmer. Geo. S. Sloan, N. Forest Grove, farmer. A. C. Hall, East Cedar, farmer. H. B. Middleton, Gaston, farmer. Chas. F. Graves, S. Hillsboro, farmer. Gustav Bronner, East Butte, farmer. A. R. Davis, Buxton, farmer. Walter Bernard, Gresham, farmer. W. W. Quark, Beaverton, farmer. Jno. Houston, South Tualatin, farmer. John Jack, Beaverville, farmer. S. Paisley, Buxton, farmer. Clem Shamer, N. Hillsboro, farmer. C. Rosander, Beaverton, farmer. John L. Barrett, S. Forest Grove, farmer. W. C. Davidson, Dairy, farmer.

A three-foot gap can make useless three miles of good fence.

"Sis in New York" is a play of real merit. The many amusing scenes offers a hearty succession of laughs from first to last.

The Indiana Hoosier girl, is at her best, her comedy being natural and spontaneous, with a bright touch of sentiment that embraces the charm of her clever work.

The company is made up of clever people and their individual efforts make a most happy combination. "Sis in New York" comes to the Crescent next Monday and will no doubt do a big business. Usual prices.

Just hold on to yourself till the land is dry enough to work without being lumpy.

Is your boy or girl in need of a new cap? If so, I can supply your needs in that line, at greatly reduced prices. $1.00 caps now 75c, 75c caps now 50c, etc.

Mrs. I. Bath.

From Sherwood.

Caleb Hines disposed of his farm and household goods recently and left with his family on Wednesday for the state of Missouri, where he intends to engage again in farming. "Cale" is too much of an Oregonian to last long in the land of Jack Frost, hence his reappearance here can confidently be expected, not many moons in the dim future.

Rev. Mrs. E. W. Gear, of Rex, Yamhill county, has been holding a series of revival meetings here nightly for the past week. Considerable interest is manifested by the general public in the evangelical work and it has been decided to continue during the present week, if not longer, thereafter. The church (Friends) may reinstate a pastor here again.

A tramp peddler became obnoxious to the patrons of one of the saloons here last week owing to over-indulgence in booze and abusive language. In order to amuse language in a short mix-up with one of the boys present he hid away to a surgeon's office for repairs for a badly torn lip, and other injuries. When last seen he was making his way to the depot, as the north bound train arrived.

An epidemic of the mumps has made its appearance in the region of Middleton, a number of cases being reported. E. C. McCollum, the bookkeeper at the Middleton sawmill, has been confined to his room several days under the treatment of a physician, for the disease. The majority of people, however, recover without but little medical treatment.

The butcher shop vacated by Lawrence & McConnell some time ago, has been lately repaired and leased by Sam Westfall, who has concluded to cater to the consumers of steaks, chops, etc., of Sherwood and vicinity.

A new base ball club has been formed here with the following
