

Grand Millinery Opening

In the Linklater New Building
East of the Court House. - -

FRIDAY and SATURDAY, March 27 and 28

The ladies of Hillsboro and the surrounding country are cordially invited to attend my 1908 Millinery Opening, at which time I shall have for your inspection a beautiful stock of Ready to Wear Hats, and a fine line of Pattern Hats, Flowers and Feathers.

This season I shall carry a complete line of hats, as cheap or expensive as you care to go; from $1.50 to $25, and every one the latest style.

The ladies of Washington county are invited to call and see me in my new quarters, one door south of Dr. Linklater's residence on Second street, and remember the dates of my Millinery Opening, Friday and Saturday, March 27 and 28.

The colorings this season surpass anything previously shown, blue being one of the most important colors. Old rose is another pleasing color which is seen this spring. American beauty shades, natural geranium, deep Jacqueminot and poppy shades are all important.
