TRAVELING LIBRARIES

Wonderful Growth of Past Sixteen Years.

By Cornella Marvin, Secretary Oregon Library

In 1905 traveling libraries had been authorized by law in twenty-five states. In sixteen of these, the libraries were in the direct charge of state libraries or abridy commissions."

This wonderful record of growth from the idea promulgated by Mr. Melvil Dewey in 1892 is a most significant testlerenial, not only that Illiteracy is becoming unpopular, but that good taste in reading is to become an American habit. Time was when some of our scholars thought that bad reading was better that none at all. A well known teacher of English literature at one of our large universities stated to one of his classes twenty years ago that it would be better for people to read even the "Fireside Companion" then to have no reading at all. In those days our reral population had little or nothing to read. Magazines were expensive, and the almanaes and county papers made a very meager literary diet. Even the doubtful good of having be obsap weakly papers thrust into the dooryard was denied the average farm home.

In these days, when the farmer is just as close to the heart of the world as the rest of us, if he chooses to be, he is greeted by a bewildering opportunity for choice among medioere and that country needed assistance." even more vicious publications than were common twenty years ago. There are capable men and women, highly cultivated and useful citizens, whose early reading was largely of the character then current in the cheap weeklies; but who shall dare to prophesy that the youth of today, whose literary excursions take him into the company of "Buster Brown" and "Happy Houligaa" will have an even chance with the youth of a generation ago to develop into a useful and law abiding citizen? The influences of the dukes, haughty countesses, swaggering pirates and common ruffians of those days was certainly not so quickly transmuted into bad conduct as that of the current vellow favorite.

Isolation had its advantages for the people on our farms. Today, the farmer's lad, only less than his city contemporary, has the worst that our times afford thrust upon him. In the cities, the public libraries are live to the necessity of getting people to read, and to read that which is, at least, not dis- advertent. tinetly harmful, with strenuous efforts to promote the more vigorous and helpful sort of reading. That those in charge of traveling library systems are fully conscious that wise selection of the books means much to the commonwealths whose interests they serve, may be seen from the character of the books they are sending to the villages, country school and farm houses. It is ITINERARY FOR THE SQUADRON recorded of one well selected and com bined collection of 40 volumes that in will Leave San Francisco for Puget three years it traveled over 2,000 miles, and had 918 recorded loans in 28 months of actual circulation in 8 different neighborhoods. The Puffed Out Chest. which has specumbed to scientific knowledge of the human body," sald a drill officer. "It came into existence analogy. It was seen that men deer in the chest were strong men, and the old drill sergeants probably imagined that by making men throw out their chests they would make them strong as well as make them look strong San Francisco, April 9 .- By a sudden which is a complete mistake. Instead freely is bad. Knotted muscles are also wrong. You see a man with immense chest muscles and perhaps you think he is really an ideally trained man, but such muscles simply bind the chest and tie the heart down."-Rend
