P. G. VICKERS, Agent.

Mrs. L. M. Commons has gone to Newport for a few weeks' visit with friends.

Interest in a valuable patent to trade for real estate. Inquire at this office.

Phillip Bates, of the Pacific Northwest, was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday.

The Portland Weekly Oregonian and The Hillsboro Independent one year for $2.25.

Andrew Jack has purchased Willis Ireland's residence, Sixth and Washington streets.

When in town call at Palmer's Confectionery and try the famous Hires' Root Beer. Always cool.

Procure your field and garden seeds and onion sets from R. H. Greer for spring planting. Reliable brands.

For up-to-date millinery and ladies' furnishing goods, go to Mrs. Bath's, Linklater building, east of the court house.

Miss Wilma Waggener returned last Thursday evening from Germany where she has been for the past year studying music.

McMinnville will celebrate May Day today. The whole town will take part and it is proposed to make it an annual occurrence.

"Leadership" will be the topic for the morning sermon in the Congregational church next Sunday. In the evening, "Personal Liberty."

Born, on Monday, to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Talbot, of Cornelius, a daughter; and on Wednesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thiele, of Farmington, a daughter.

Thos. Tucker is out from Portland visiting old friends. He walks about with the aid of crutches and is rapidly recovering from his recent injuries.

The Forest Grove Times says that Dr. E. A. Eaton, formerly of this city, and later of Forest Grove, is now pastor of a Baptist church at Arnold, Nebraska.

It comes from a reliable source that Uncle Sam's "mosquito fleet" is to be sent to Portland by mail, and the Rose City boomers are "wild with excitement."

Ice cream cones this year are far superior to any yet made, inasmuch as they are more palatable, crisper and better to eat. Try them at the Den of Sweets.

Wanted—A boy between 14 and 16 years of age to learn the printer's trade. A bright, intelligent boy will be given a good chance to learn the business in this office.

F. R. Dailey is now prepared to do all kinds of bicycle repairing, in his new building opposite the court house. New 1908 bicycles for sale. Next door to Crescent Theatre.

The National base ball team of Portland would like a Sunday game with some team in the city averaging nineteen years. For information write to Jos. F. Marinas, Manager, 122 3rd St., Portland.

The building season is now at hand and any one contemplating work in this line should call on The Climax Milling Co., when figuring on material. We have a complete stock always on hand. Both phones.

It is pretty safe to class a circus that will pitch its tent at Forest Grove and make its next stop at Beaverton, a pretty "bum" affair. Still, the management may be shy the price of a license at the county seat.

Ladies' Home Journal patterns at Mrs. I. Bath's.

Elder A. A. Beery will preach at Farmington next Sunday morning and in Hillsboro in the evening. His evening subject will be "The Campbellites." Prayer meeting Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

A marriage license was issued last Friday to Phillip Herget and Katherine Oppenlander, both of Cornelius, and on Tuesday William August Van Dyke and Alice C. Evers, of Verboort, were given permission to go in double harness.

The "window sale," conducted by the Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church will be at Webb & Hoover's store every Saturday. Those wishing home-made pies, cake and bread can get them there instead of at Dennis' store.

Miss Margurite Redmond went to Oregon City, to attend the wedding of Miss Blanche Kendall formerly of Hillsboro, who was married Wednesday of last week to Wm. Taylor, a civil engineer. Mrs. Taylor is visiting friends in this city.

Peter Johnson, a farmer living near Centerville, met with a bad accident last Friday by falling on an ax. He received a cut about four inches in length on the left hand and wrist which penetrated to the bone. Dr. F. A. Bailey was called and it required several stitches to close the wound.

It may be a little satisfaction to the defeated candidate for a nomination to office, who stopped his paper last week because of an attack of political dyspepsia, that we added three new names to our list because of his action. Besides he is paid up to September 1st.

Remember that Rev. Beery, with the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Webb, will give an illustrated stereopticon lecture, "The Modern Gateways to Hell," in Cornelius tomorrow night, May 2. Mr. and Mrs. Webb will sing several illustrated songs.

For Sale—Ice—Any Family—Den of Sweets.

Said Dolly Drake to Bobby Blake, We must have more of that popcorn flake.

The Den of Sweets make it.

Mrs. W. J. Nottage and two children arrived in this city last week from Sauk Centre, Minn., and will make Hillsboro their future home. Mr. Nottage is foreman of The Independent office and has rented the Greer residence on Sixth street.

The "Five Hundred Club" gave a masquerade at the skating rink last Friday night. There was a large attendance and a good time. Miss Lucy Weathered and Charles Follett were awarded first prizes for best masquerade costume.

Rt. Rev. Charles Scudding, D. D., bishop of the diocese of Oregon, will visit this city May 10th and hold services in the Congregational church in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. He will also administer the Apostles' Right of Confirmation, or "Laying on of Hands." Everyone is cordially invited to this service.

John W. Sewell has sold a 60-acre tract of land, about one mile east of town on the Baseline road, the consideration being $100 per acre. The new owner, a gentleman from Salem, will have it surveyed and laid out into five acre tracts. The sale was made by F. M. Heidel, who will have the agency for the sale of this property.

If anyone has been in doubt about the Oregon Electric Company building to Hillsboro, and that speedily, they can rest assured that there is now no doubt about it. From the Sewell farm just east of town to Garden Home hundreds of men have been put to work and surveyors are on the ground. It is certain the road will be built to this city within the next two or three months, and from here it will be extended to Tillamook. Some of the interested parties say that we might use the completion of the track to Hillsboro as a Fourth of July attraction for the big celebration to be held here.

Post cards, the right kind, can be found at Mrs. Bath's, Linklater building, east of court house.

The United Evangelical parsonage on Third street, adjoining the church, is nearing completion. It will make a splendid home for the pastor and is an addition to the church property.

Rev. M. J. Ballentyne of Dallas will preach in the United Evangelical church Saturday evening (tonight) and Sunday evening. He will also preach at Laurel Evangelical church Saturday evening and Sunday morning. Mr. Ballentyne was recently re-elected presiding elder for a term of four years and was appointed to the Portland district, to which Washington county belongs.

Don't forget that Webb & Hoover have in stock white lead, raw and boiled linseed oil, ready mixed paints, both inside and out; roof and floor paint, brushes and varnish and Korelac and colors ground in pure linseed oil. Also timothy hay and alfalfa, Acme chops, alfalfa meal, middlings, bran, oats and oat chop, corn, whole and cracked; rolled barley and wheat flour and stock food.

Last Saturday night the pupils of the Ninth grade of the city schools gave a box social at the Grange hall and a splendid time is reported. Lunch boxes were sold at auction, the ones receiving the highest price to be awarded prizes. First prize went to Miss Lucy Weathered and the second to Mildred Mays. The boys of the Ninth grade realized $13.50 from the sale of boxes, which will go toward the purchase of uniforms for the base ball nine.

A house occupied by Jas. Miltenberger at Tigardville and owned by the Catholic church society there, was burned to the ground last Wednesday morning and totally destroyed. Mr. Miltenberger succeeded in getting out all of his household goods and his loss is trifling. A cellar full of fine potatoes were roasted, however. J. B. Kizer, wife and child, of South Bend, Ind., had arrived at the Miltenberger home the day before and they think this can be classed as a "warm reception." Mrs. Kiser is a daughter of Mr. Miltenberger and she and her husband will locate in Washington county. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

Workmen are tearing down the city water tower which has for the past fifteen or twenty years carried a beacon light out into the country for miles. But dry rot had taken hold of the big tanks inside and as a matter of precaution the city authorities thought it best to remove the upper and lower tanks and build a new one of sufficient size to do away with the one at the top of the tower. Mayor Dennis tells us that orders for more water is coming in almost every day and it was concluded to build a tank which will supply all demands. Besides, the timbers which held the huge tanks, were showing signs of decay in many places and then there was danger of it falling sooner or later.

Jos. Campbell, who last week drew a revolver on a deputy sheriff who went out to his mountain ranch to take a sewing machine given to Campbell's wife by order of the court, is now in duress vile, and will come up for trial before Justice H. T. Bagley today. After the deputy came back from the Campbell domicile empty-handed last week, a warrant was issued for his arrest, and on Tuesday Deputies Kane and Downs went out to serve it. When their errand was made known Campbell made a lunge for his coat pocket but Downs seized his hand and prevented him from drawing a gun he had concealed there. He then submitted to arrest and came to town without further trouble. Some years ago Campbell was convicted of drawing a revolver on a man and was given a parole sentence.

I have just received a fine new line of ladies' underwear, both in the high grade as well as the cheaper articles, in knit vests and pants, long-sleeved corset covers and union suits. Mrs. Bath.

Lost. Between Portland and Scholls, the back seat of a hack. Finder please notify C. R. Adams, of Scholls, by phone or card, and he will pay for trouble.

Five-room, modern cottage on Baseline and Fourth, new, for sale on very easy terms or monthly payments. Inquire of C. Rhoades, Hillsboro, Ninth and Baseline.

SHERWOOD HAPPENINGS

WHISKEY GET IN ITS WORK.

Interesting Items of the Past Week of the Movement of People in and About Sherwood.

Van Meeks, of Tualatin, and Pearl White of this place, have bought the butcher business of P. T. Meeks. Their shop on Main street is being repaired and repainted preparatory to reopening in a few days.

Company C, O. N. G., of Portland baseball team and the White Sox of this place will meet on the diamond field here next Sunday. Our home team is building up a reputation for expert playing and have defeated all opposition so far this season. Later—Sherwood wins again, 7 to 3.

A "Temperance Rally" has been announced to occur in Tualatin on the 25th and 26th instant, Rev. J. R. Knodell being the principal orator for the occasion. A musical choir from Portland and a basket dinner are billed for Saturday the 25th, also E. F. Zimmerman's stereopticon views.

Mr. Fickin's 10-year-old son met with a peculiar accident Tuesday. While attempting to make a throw, the back of his hand struck a projection on the fence in the rear tearing away the tissues to the bone, which was of so serious a nature a doctor's services were required.

The Derby sawmill at Hoodview, that has stood so long without turning a wheel, is said to have lately passed to the possession of the Tualatin Mill Co., of Tualatin and will be started up again in a few days. A lumber yard is talked of to be located here to handle the local trade.

Wm. Buffington, an old timer of Middleton and vicinity but of late a resident of Sherman county, after having become involved in some grave difficulty of a criminal nature, is said to have committed suicide in jail by shooting himself.

Certain parties residing not many miles from this place are strongly suspected of using dynamite instead of trout hooks in killing the festive fish. While the immediate results of a day's catch might amount to more in the aggregate, detection and fine for the offense must always be taken into consideration also. Some fish "cost more" than others.

Mrs. Frank Lukes while skating at the new rink Monday night tripped and fell to the floor alighting on her chest and forehead, and was rendered unconscious for several moments. No serious damage resulted; however, the chances were greatly in favor of dangerous injury.

Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock, Fred Larsen, a Swede residing in a little shack alone, on a small tract of land he owned near town, called at the residence of Sam Hogan, a near neighbor and complained of being very sick. Mrs. Hogan went over to the nearest neighbor for assistance leaving Larsen lying in the woodshed and on her return discovered the man had died during her absence. Larsen has lived here about three years, owned the property where he lived, but unfortunately was addicted to the drink habit, the unmistakable cause of his sudden death. He leaves a wife and two daughters in Sweden, but is said to have abandoned them several years ago. His age was about 54 years. Later—Coroner E. C. Brown of Hillsboro arrived and held an inquest on the remains, a physician and jury being summoned. The decision was that death resulted from heart failure, superinduced by the long continued use of alcoholic stimulants.

For Sale.

Resolved, That this convention of Christian workers vigorously opposes this proposition and urges every Christian voter to cast his ballot against this proposed constitutional amendment in the approaching state election.

Another One Gone Wrong.

Married in Hillsboro, March 21, so her latest husband says, Mrs. Lucy J. Jory, the one-armed woman for whom her step-father has been searching, was arrested this morning, charged with polygamy.

Timothy E. Edmondson, the man she married, was also taken into custody. He seems to be an innocent offender, so far as his intentions are concerned, for he swears the woman told him she was already divorced. She began proceedings for divorce in Forest Grove last month, but the case is still pending and her second marriage is therefore in direct violation of the law.

J. W. Jory, the husband of the woman, and her mother appeared before John H. Stevenson, deputy district attorney, this morning and made complaint, basing their charge upon the account in last Sunday's Journal of the finding of the woman by Patrolman Peterson. Jory, an old soldier, has the weight of over three score years upon his head, while his wife is but 26 years old. Edmondson is employed by the Pacific Hardware & Steel works. Since the policeman found the pair Saturday evening they had moved to a scow at the foot of Seventeenth street, but Peterson trailed them down and brought them to the police station a few minutes after Jory and the girl's mother, who had been waiting impatiently all morning, left the station for a short walk.

Jory displayed a matrimonial paper containing an advertisement of a young woman who wished to marry. His wife, he asserted, had inserted this advertisement while living with him at Toledo, Oregon.

Mrs. Jory left her husband six weeks ago and came to Portland, stopping at Forest Grove long enough to begin the divorce suit. She lost the lower part of her right arm while working in a laundry.—Portland Journal.

After 36 Years.

Forest Grove, April 29.—Mrs. Hugh Smith, of this place, after a separation of 36 years, met her cousin, Mrs. Henrietta Groman, of Indiana, in Portland Saturday and each knew the other. The two relatives were born near the same locality in Indiana. Mrs. Smith has a son, Claud Smith, of Forest Grove, and three daughters, Mrs. Lee Via, of Portland; Miss Pearl Smith, of Hillsboro, and Miss Mabel Smith, of this place. Mrs. Groman has a son and two daughters, in Indiana. Mrs. Groman is 52 years of age and Mrs. Smith is 48. After a few months' visit here Mrs. Groman will return to her home in Indiana.

For Sale.

Here is the best bargain in Hillsboro: 1 acre of ground, 5 room house, good cellar under it, wood shed, good well of water in the house, barn, pig house, good chicken yard, orchard and a good strawberry patch. 1 block from school house, 2 blocks from Baptist and Catholic churches. Inquire on the premises and save real estate men's commission. Located on the corner of Fourth and Railroad streets, Hillsboro.

Session Closed.

Forest Grove, April 29.—Amid great enthusiasm the twenty-third annual State Sunday School Convention closed here tonight. It was the largest and most successful gathering of its kind ever held in the state. The First Congregational church was filled to overflowing at every session. The resolutions committee presented its report, which expressed appreciation of the earnest efforts of the convention's leaders, Excell, Lawrence, Merritt and Phipps; declared in favor of the study of temperance principles and condemned the Reddy amendment in the following terms:

Whereas, Saloon interests are proposing to make ineffective our present local option law by an amendment to our state constitution, giving cities and towns the sole right to regulate and control saloons and kindred interests by a vote of the few regardless of the will and vote of the many; be it

Teachers' Meeting.

The series of local institutes held at Banks, Dilley and Beaverton proved an inspiration to the teachers who availed themselves of the opportunity of attending. The institute at Beaverton last Saturday was one of the largest local institutes ever held in the county. The first period was taken by Prof. J. H. Stanley of Portland, who opened the discussion of the subject grammar. Prof. Stanley cited the fact that the industrial world had progressed by leaps and bounds during the past decade, and questioned if the teaching profession had kept pace. He then proceeded to discuss some of the more modern methods of teaching English grammar. Dr. Y. C. Yenney, secretary of the state board of health, was the next on the program, and his discourse on "School Sanitation" was listened to with interest by the teachers as all knew that Dr. Yenney's experience made him authority on this subject. He recommended that the common drinking cup, common towel and common washbasin be banished from the school room. He thought it imprudent for a school board to close school on account of one or two cases of contagious diseases in the district. He thought it a better plan to isolate the persons affected and continue the school, for pupils out of school would endanger their health more than they would if their school work was continued. Prof. S. F. Ball, principal of Couch school, Portland, was next on the program and his talk on "Methods of Teaching" showed him to be a master of the art and science of teaching. He is a strong man and it is hoped to have him with the teachers of Washington county again. Miss E. A. Downing presented a paper on "How to Teach Spelling," and gave an exhibition of work with a class of pupils from her school. The literary program presented by the pupils of the Beaverton school and the hospitality extended by the citizens in serving free a feast at the noon hour impressed the teachers that Beaverton is alive to the school interests of the county. In the afternoon Miss Warden, teacher in the Highland school, Portland, gave a model recitation in phonics. She brought her class of pupils and showed results that commended her methods of teaching reading. All the teachers who attended this institute left feeling that they had gotten value received for their time and trouble, and that they could return to their work in the county and render better service for the patrons of their schools.

Notice to Sprayers.

I have received a large shipment direct from the factory at New York of the celebrated Star Brand, guaranteed strictly pure arsenate of lead, guaranteed to be the best in the world for spraying purposes. I guarantee to save you money at wholesale or retail.

B. LEIS, The Sprayman, One mile east of Beaverton.

The Weather.

During the fore part of the week the weather was cool and showery. On Wednesday and Thursday a severe storm prevailed, which was accompanied by high winds over the entire state. The rainfall over the district west of the Cascades was rather heavy, but was only moderate in the eastern and southern counties. Hail occurred in many parts of the state. Clearing weather with rapidly falling temperatures set in on Friday evening, and on Saturday morning frosts were general over the entire state accompanied in southern and eastern Oregon by freezing temperatures. Clear skies prevailed on Saturday and Sunday, with temperatures rapidly rising under the influence of the uninterrupted sunshine. Taking the week as a whole, the sunshine averaged much less than usual.

Poultry Wanted.

I will pay market price in cash for all kinds of chickens, hens, turkeys, ducks and geese. J. Lenz Hillsboro, Ore.

Insist upon DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is especially good for piles. Sold by all druggists.

Two Rivers.

The editor of The Independent had business at Two Rivers, Wash., last Saturday and Sunday and was given an opportunity to take a look at the immense irrigating plant just completed at that point. The flume and ditches are seven miles in length and it has taken three years to complete it up to the point of opening up the big flood gates, which was to have been done last Monday. The huge pump, of 119 horse power, was all ready for work and only awaited the hand of the expert engineer, whose turn of the wrist will start a great volume of water from the Snake river into the pipe that will deliver it to the large ditch and from this to smaller ones, and in this manner reclaim, in this section alone, over 13,000 acres of land capable of growing anything that earth in this latitude can produce. Two Rivers is located between the Columbia and Snake rivers, 27 miles from Umatilla and five or six from Wallula. On one side of the town site runs the O. R. & N. railroad and on the other the North Bank road, and a trans-continental line has been surveyed through the town, which in themselves is a positive guarantee for a bright future for that place. The lack of water has made that country one of sage brush, sand and dust, but now that moisture is at hand in plenty, a few years will place it among the most productive in the state, dotted with beautiful homes and peopled with men and women of energy and pluck. The town now has a first class hotel which is presided over by Landlord Richardson and his estimable wife, whose chief aim in life seems to be to make their guests contented and happy. A postoffice, several general stores and a modern printing office, which is issuing weekly the only real newspaper in the county. Adjoining the town is a splendid nursery in which are growing thousands of trees, shrubs and vines, and there are many gardens inside the limits which are growing millions of strawberries and large beds of asparagus. In fact the last two named is the chief crop there at present and in season large quantities are sent to the Walla Walla market daily. Land is now selling at $100 an acre and something like 250 lots have been sold at from $50 to $600 each, the owners only waiting for the water to be turned on to commence building operations. That has now been done, and within nine months Two Rivers will be a bustling little city of from 800 to 1,000 people.

State Committee Resolutions.

The republican state central committee has adopted the following resolutions:

We, the republican state central committee of the State of Oregon, believing as we do in the principles of the republican party and realizing the desire of the people to continue these principles and to keep the republican party in power, and believing that this can best be brought about by the election of Hon. William H. Taft to the presidency, earnestly recommend that the republican state convention send to the republican national convention only such delegates as are favorable thereto.

We commend and indorse the able, successful and manly efforts of Senator Charles W. Fulton in behalf of the interests of the people of the state of Oregon, and we deplore the vicious, untrue and unmanly assaults that have been made on the character of one of the brightest and ablest men in the state of Oregon.

Whereas, our party has seen fit to select as our nominee for the highest office within the gift of the people of the state Hon. H. M. Cake, of Portland, Ore., we pledge to him our loyal support, believing that he will measure up fully to expectations and will prove an able and trust worthy servant.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are small, safe, sure and gentle little pills. Sold by all druggists.

The building season is now at hand and any one contemplating work in this line should call on The Climax Milling Co., when figuring on material. We have a complete stock always on hand. Both phones.
