"Dora Thorne" Coming.

"Dora Thorne," a beautiful dramatization of Bertha M. Clay's well known play...

The manner in which the management have produced "Dora Thorne" calls for only the heartiest admiration.

As for the scenes in which the folks have part, these are among the best offered here in a long time.

Each weekly newspaper is read not only by the people usually credited to the ordinary paper but twice that number.

Sherwood, May 4.—Mr. J. W. Connell, Chairman County Central Committee, Hillsboro, Oregon. Dear Sir: After due deliberation I have declined to accept the nomination for Representative given me by the mass meeting convention and I wish to say to the Republican voters...

J. A. CHAPMAN.

From Cornelius.

Cornelius, May 5.—It seems to me time that the question of a fruit cannery was agitated at either Forest Grove, Cornelius or Hillsboro. People have come in and purchased acreage at a great price, expecting that something will be done so that they can get some returns for the money invested, and the quickest way is to raise small fruits as well as perhaps chickens.

Albert O. Yates.

The Weather.

The fore part of the week was clear. During this period the maximum temperatures were unseasonably high, owing to the uninterrupted sunshine.
