Home-grown strawberries are beginning to appear on the market, but in small quantities. A few days of sunshine is all that is needed now to make an abundant supply.

Those who went to Yaquina Bay and Newport to see the fleet were disappointed. The boats at no time came closer than two miles from shore, and the fog completely concealed them from view.

There will be no preaching services in the Congregational church next Sunday. Union memorial service in the M. E. church in the morning. Rev. Gilpatrick will be out of town in the evening.

U. G. Gardner has purchased a Rambler run-about automobile, and as soon as the weather clears up will bring it in from Portland. It is a light machine and weighs less than 1,000 pounds, but it is said to be a fine one.

L. T. Cornell, who has been visiting relatives in Nebraska, Kansas and California since last October, returned to his home in Hillsboro last Saturday and will stop with the family of C. E. Deichman until the weather warms up, when he will go to the coast for the summer.

Contractors who estimated or cruised the timber for Washington county during 1907, are putting men in the field to make corrections. The county court requests that parties who are not satisfied with their estimate, make complaint to the assessor at once. Blanks for the purpose will be furnished by that officer.

Rain has interfered with work on the street railway to some extent, but the pile driver is doing business on Main street near the city limits. An order was received yesterday by the construction boss to have his men and teams on Washington street and ready to begin operations Monday morning. This is good news and from a reliable source.

Subject for tonight, "Rightly dividing the word of truth"; Saturday night, "Ten reasons why the word should be preached"; Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, "Every man in his place"; Sunday night, "The greatest creature God ever created." Evangelist Kellems has had 20 years' experience in the evangelistic field and with marked success. You should hear him.

Supt. Case and R. H. Greer met with an accident last Wednesday night which fortunately resulted in only a pair of broken shafts, but which might have been very serious. They had been attending a meeting at Gales City and on their way home about 12 o'clock, drove off an embankment. The night was inky black and the coat, carriage and men rolled down the embankment a distance of from ten to fifteen feet. A lantern was procured, the broken shafts tied up with wire and the homeward journey made without further mishap. Neither Mr. Greer or Mr. Case were hurt in the least, except to their feelings, and the coat was uninjured.

Miss Effie Godman returned Monday from a short visit with friends at Fresno and San Francisco. She saw Uncle Sam's fleet and says the sight was one long to be remembered. Both cities were packed full of people from all over the United States to witness the grand sight.

Long gloves—tan and black. Ask Baird.

The Misses Eula and Arah Hoyt returned to their home in this city Wednesday after an absence of more than a year. Miss Eula has been at Saltillo, Mexico, in the employ of the Mexican Southern Railway Co. as a stenographer, and Miss Arah has been visiting friends in New York, Ohio, Massachusetts, California and New Mexico. The sisters were in San Francisco during the recent fleet parade and returned to Hillsboro together.

A special from Forest Grove says that John Walsh, representing Spokane makers of canning machinery, has made a proposition to that city and community to build and equip a canning plant there if the fruit growers and business men will organize a corporation and take the plant after it is completed. Washington county fruit and vegetable raisers have long felt the need of a home market for their produce, and it is thought stock in the enterprise will be sold as soon as an organization can be effected. Judge Hollis, president of the board of trade, has interested himself in the scheme, and will send information to the fruit raisers of this county. Mr. Walsh recently purchased the Commercial Hotel in this city, but he says this will not interfere with the building of the canneries, of which he has several in the state.

And His Name Is Luck.

Max Luck, son of B. Luck, who lives on the Dr. Tamiesie farm near Hillsboro, is probably the luckiest man in this section. On Wednesday he drove a four-horse team up to the Climax mill for a load of flour and feed. Before completing the load the 12:06 train came in and frightened the horses. They made a run for it and succeeded in crossing the track, but the engine struck the wagon just behind the forward wheels, cutting it in two, throwing the hind wheels back under the train and the forward wheels went south, the box being reduced to kindling wood. Luck hung to the lines and was pulled from the wreck with only a badly bruised side and a cut on his head. Dr. Tamiesie dressed his wounds and sent him to the farm and says after he gets over the shock he will be all right. The horses and outfit belonged to the doctor and his loss consists of a smashed wagon and a badly injured horse. It was a narrow escape all round.

Benefit Dance.

There will be a benefit dance, given by the young people of the Catholic parish of this city, at Hillsboro Hall, on Saturday night June 6. The proceeds will go toward building the Catholic church parsonage. Everybody cordially invited. Tickets can be had at the Den of Sweets or of any member of the committee. Music will be furnished by Richard's orchestra of Portland.

For County Clerk.

To the Voters of Washington County:

I hereby announce myself as an Independent-Republican candidate for the office of county clerk at the general election. I beg to state that my action in this matter is governed solely by the urgent and repeated request of many leading citizens of Washington county. I further assure the voters that it was only after being fully convinced that my candidacy for the office was earnestly desired by the people that I consented to permit my name used. Now that I have taken this course I feel that my record is sufficiently familiar to all voters of this county to warrant my assurance that, if elected, I will perform the duties of said office in a manner satisfactory to all citizens of this county, and that I will accord to each and every one the courteous treatment rightfully expected of a public officer.

Yours respectfully,
E. L. MCCORMICK.

Get on the Band Wagon.

Mr. A. Adams, representing Sunset Magazine, has been in town this week interviewing the county court, the Merchants' Association and the Board of Trade, with a view of advertising the resources of Washington county in that publication, in pamphlet form and by folders. The Sunset Magazine has a circulation that reaches from coast to coast, and is published by the Southern Pacific Railway Co. The proposition offered by Mr. Adams is certainly generous and the benefits derived from the advertising express at this time and should be taken advantage of at once, for a like offer will never be extended to Washington county again.

A meeting of the Board of Trade was held in the county commissioners room Wednesday, the subject discussed briefly, and a county organization formed. Dr. J. P. Tamiesie was made president; Judge Hollis of Forest Grove vice-president, and A. C. Shute secretary and treasurer.

Judge Hollis spoke of the great resources of the county and he was in favor of doing something to let the world know of the advantages and opportunities awaiting those in search of homes. Dr. Tamiesie spoke of the necessity of county organization and advised an appropriation for advertising and a county exhibit at the Alaska-Yukon exhibition. Hon. W. H. Wehrung told of the beautiful Oregon building at Seattle and was in hopes the people of this county would not only begin at once to arrange for an exhibit of its resources second to none in Oregon, but join in this great advertising movement and show to the thousands of people visiting the coming great fair that Washington county is on the map, has the goods, and can deliver them in large quantities. Mr. Adams explained that the advertising was not intended for any one point, but would cover the entire county, and the cost is mostly assumed by the Southern Pacific Co. Washington county needs people from the east and the Railroad company wants to bring them here.

The president was authorized to appoint a committee composed of one or more persons from each town or community in the county to act as an executive committee to meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the court house, at which time the county court will be asked for an appropriation.

Other matters along the line of devising ways and means to bring about this advertising scheme will be discussed at this meeting.

Have you seen my new line of post cards? Something to please everyone.

A Question for Fathers.

"When I was a young man I was accustomed to take a drink of alcoholic liquor when coming home from a long cold drive. But when my sons began to use I began to be more cautious. I have since found that there are other non-alcoholic drinks which serve my purpose as well or better than those containing alcohol." These were the words of a prominent and respected citizen of Washington county. Many a man who has been accustomed to take a glass of liquor now and then does not want his boys to drink it. Father, what about your sons? Do you want them to follow your steps and then go farther and become drunkards?

HOWARD GILPATRICK.

To Republican Voters.

An overwhelming majority of Oregon's voters by registration have formally declared that they believe in the principles of the republican party. Let them now show that they are honest by voting in accordance with their declarations. The Oregon election comes before the Republican National Convention. Let every republican voter in the First Congressional District uphold the honor of the republican party in Oregon and strengthen the influence of Oregon's delegation in the National Convention by voting for H. M. Cake for United States senator and W. C. Hawley for representative in congress. If either of these republican nominees fail of election, the primary election system will be discredited and a return of boss rule will be invited. The good name of Oregon's voters will be smirched and Oregon's delegation to the National Convention will be placed in a humiliating position. For the effect it will have on the November election it is imperative that all the republican nominees in the June election shall be elected by an overwhelming majority. As a believer in the principles of the republican party, it is your duty to be at the polls June 1st and to vote for Cake and Hawley.
