

Hillsboro Independent.

D. W. BATH, Editor and Proprietor.

MAY 22, 1908.

Sherwood.

Mr. Fletcher, Sr., has invested in more real estate lately, having bought the "Jellicoe place" of 200 acres one half mile south of town...

Married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of Sherwood, Saturday evening, May 16th, Chas. Smith, their son, to Miss Gertrude Hines, of near Hoodview, Rev. J. Cowman officiating...

Chas. Kelley, formerly in business here, returned a few days ago from Seattle, Wash., where he has resided with his family for several years...

Ed McDaniels, of Condon, Gilliam county, and family, are at the home of his parents at Middleton depot...

Charley Smith and his new bride were the recipients of an old-time "serenade," the musical instruments consisting of tinware, cow bells, etc., punctuated with occasional blasts of powder in firearms...

An eight-months term of public school under the principalship of Prof. G. A. W. Russell closed here last Friday evening. The enrollment has been near the 100 mark during the time requiring the services of two instructors to conduct the school.

Gov. Chamberlain spoke here Saturday afternoon to a fair audience, the embodiment of all principals being Statement No. 1, all else is "sinking sand," according to his logic...

The usual good luck attended the home baseball team here Sunday. The Dallas nine went down with flying colors in a game of 8 to 4...

It has not been definitely settled whether Sherwood will be honored with a station on the new electric road that branches off near Tigardville enroute to Newberg via Chahalen gap...

The Colton sawmill at Middleton appears to be a great white elephant on the owner's hands. After an expenditure of upwards of $30,000, bad management on the part of managers, and ineffectual work the plant was shut down permanently some time ago...

"Not Very Important." The Portland Journal, under the above heading, asserts that it is not a matter of any particular moment as to what party a senator of the United States belongs...

Sure not Mike! When running for governor our non-partisan George fooled a part of the republicans by declaring that there is no politics in the governor's office...

And now that he is running for senator, he declares in the most non-partisan matter in the world that there is no politics in the position he is after...

The democrats are all supposed to vote for Chamberlain to a man in order to show their independence of "party" (1), while the republicans are expected to show their non-partisanship by voting for him too!

And the republican who will be fooled by this transparent clap-trap should be taken out and treated for the simples. Dallas Observer.

WHERE SALOON MONEY GOES.

Mostly for Rents, Wages, Etc. Says A. E. Buttner.

The liquor dealers of Washington county declare that every question has two sides, and in the present fight against their business they have a right to be heard. The following communication was published in the Oregonian last week and republished in The Independent so that our readers can read and draw their own conclusions:

Portland, May 11. - (To the Editor.) - Permit me to say the following few words in reply to the sermon which the Rev. Clarence True Wilson preached last night in his church.

I will accept the figures which he gives as to the number of saloons and their receipts as correct. Now, here is the way this money is disbursed:

For rents, conservative estimate $ 422,000 For wages, mostly to heads of families, 1,370,000 For light, etc., 30,000 For salaries, carpenters and other mechanics, 20,000 For United States revenue license, 10,000 For county and state license paid by saloon men, 25,000 For charity, 15,000 Receipts estimated by Dr. Wilson, $3,146,000 which amount, divided by 437, leaves about $1350 per saloon. Considering that the saloonman must pay for his goods out of this, it follows that while the few in the business may make a little money, most of them just make both ends meet and no more.

The following three items, which the reverend says could be paid for if the receipts of the saloons of which he speaks were used in a "legitimate manner," viz.: the lighting of the streets, $100,000; the maintenance of the fire department, $100,000; the improvement of public school buildings, $100,000, and the police department, $14,000 - are all paid by the saloon men now, inasmuch as they are paying over $350,000 a year to the city for the privilege of doing a legitimate business.

Where will Dr. Wilson get money to replace this $350,000? By increased taxes, of which the churches and its ministers pay none? Does Dr. Wilson perhaps think that if the saloons were closed he could improve the funds of his church and get more valuable property which could be withdrawn from the taxable list and thus double up on the now already overburdened taxpayer?

Drunkness, I am sorry to say, has increased, according to the statistics of our police department, since the saloons are closed on Sundays - a species of prohibition. And in Albany, according to reliable information, more minors are drunk on the streets of that prohibition town than here, in the big city of Portland, with its open saloons.

Of the wages, which, according to my figures, are distributed by the saloon business, fully three fourths are spent for the very things which the doctor mentions, namely, groceries, clothing, merry widow hats, etc., so that, after all, nearly the entire receipts of the saloons go back into the channels of trade preferred and recommended by the reverend gentleman.

A. E. BUTTNER, 829 Kelly street. Public are invited. The invitation dance at Hillsboro hall for Saturday evening, May 23, will be turned into a public dance.

The weather. The week was remarkable for its unseasonably low temperatures. Cloudy skies generally prevailed and there was a marked deficiency in the amount of sunshine. Rain fell on almost every day in the western counties, while in the eastern counties rains were also frequent, though the recorded amounts were much smaller. A particularly heavy rain fell over the lower Willamette and lower Columbia river valleys on Friday. In the eastern portion of the state considerable snow fell in the higher altitudes. Light frosts occurred in Southern Oregon on Tuesday morning, and heavy frosts in Eastern Oregon on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday mornings.
