

Hillsboro Independent.

D. W. BATH, Editor and Proprietor.

MAY 29, 1908.

E. L. McCormick is just 43 years old. He is the Independent-Republican candidate for county clerk and his number is 43 on the ballot. Make him a birthday present.

Excursion parties from California, Washington and Idaho will be added to those which come from all parts of Oregon to Portland during the Rose Carnival, which opens next Monday morning.

Oswego, one of the oldest and best-known of Portland's suburban towns, is determined to organize, incorporate and give other live Oregon communities proof that an old town beats them all growing when she gets started good and proper.

E. L. McCormick, the Independent-Republican candidate for county clerk, is a thoroughly reliable and clean business man, and if elected will take into the clerk's office methods which will guarantee the patrons of that office a thorough and careful administration of its affairs. His number is 43 on the ballot.

Our readers are warned to look out for the woodchuck in the constitutional amendment submitted by J. F. Reddy of Medford, and when they go into the booth next Monday to give the festive little jester a swift tap on the head. Be sure and vote NO on No. 321, then Mr. Reddy will not be so ready to try to make it out that the voters of Oregon are shy on gray matter.

The opposition is working overtime to defeat R. H. Greer for Representative, but their efforts will prove unavailing, unless all signs fail. If elected Mr. Greer will represent this county in a thorough business manner. His long residence here and his many years in the mercantile line, gives him a knowledge of the needs of this district, and he has the ability to present them and the manhood and "sand" to stand up for what he believes is right and for the benefit of his constituents. His number is 34 on the ballot.

All Oregon seems to have been aroused and enthused over the new home of the Portland Commercial Club. At one luncheon last week there were representatives from fifteen different towns and cities of the state. The convention hall on the sixth floor, in which all Oregon's organized bodies will be welcome, is a central feature. Every picture hung upon its walls is an Oregon scene, and in this room during the next few years will be enacted much of interest and moment to every man, woman and child of Oregon.

The Oregon Rural Letter Carriers' Association will hold their convention at Albany today. Secretary-Treasurer John H. Goins of the association, is a resident of Albany, and in connection with Bury I. Dasant, secretary of the Albany Commercial Club, has arranged an intensely interesting program. The motto and banner of the rural letter carriers is "Stand for better roads and a greater Oregon." President John H. Scott of the Oregon Good Roads Association, President Campbell of the University of Oregon, and other distinguished speakers will be present.

Here's the last plea for equal suffrage for women, for the question must be settled next Monday so far as Oregon is concerned and cannot come up again for two years. It is simply a question whether the women are to be placed on an equal footing with men, or are they to be kept in bondage and classed with idiots and criminals. If given their rights, many women will not vote. It is simply a question of having the right to own property, pay taxes and enjoy the freedom now given to every American citizen—but women. And just remember another thing, if the women of Oregon could go to the polls next Monday and cast their votes, there would be no guess coming as to the result of the local option movement that is stirring up many sections of this state today. It will certainly be a nifty individual who will go into the booth next Monday, give his wife a black eye, and go home smiling to her in the evening.

BRIGHT, BOOMING BEAVERTON.

Things that happen in the East End of the County.

J. M. Barber, of Forest Grove, who owns some land in the Gray Oaks tract, northwest of town, has had it subdivided and will place it on the market in the near future in small tracts.

W. F. Desinger was awarded the contract for building a $1,000 school house in the Scholls district near the Groner farm. At present he is engaged in building a modern cottage in Portland for John George of this place.

Earl and Lillian Evans received from the Oregon Electric company last Thursday, $650 in payment for the damages resulting from the line crossing their place. This is the second line to pay damages for crossings inside of one year. It seems rather strange, too, when you consider that they have less than 1/4 acre of ground.

J. Frank Stroud has organized the Beaver Realty Co., with himself as manager, and with a few days of good weather there will be several deals consummated.

Beaverton is at present without a tonsorial artist. Chas. Moll, the former barber, was obliged to leave on account of the large amount of trade that he was compelled to serve by lamp light, his eyes being weak. Two or three men have been here looking over the place, but as yet no one has located.

The Hill Club gave a Rose party at the hall last Saturday evening. A crowd which taxed the capacity of the hall to its utmost enjoyed the music of Traylor's orchestra until a late hour.

Two carloads of pipe were received at this place last Saturday consigned to the Electric company, to be used by them in place of wooden culverts in the fills on the new grade.

Rumor is current at this place that the children of the late Mrs. Washington Jones are heirs to a large estate in England, consisting of about $60,000. The children are Mrs. Henry and Louis Jones and Mrs. Melvin Howell of this county, Albert Jones of Manila, P. I., and Mrs. L. D. McKay, Mrs. L. Maier and Mrs. Geo. Monish of Portland.

The Rev. Snyder preached last Sunday morning and evening at the Congregational church to good audience. The subject of the evening address was "Good Citizenship," and just at this time was particularly appropriate. Mr. Snyder has the happy faculty of being able to draw a crowd and of preaching short, forceful sermons. The church at this place is to be congratulated on securing such an able man.

The Beaverton baseball team met its Waterloo last Sunday at the hands of the "Spartan" nine of Portland to the tune of 6 to 1. It was a well played game and there was very little complaint on either side.

Hon. G. C. Moser, of Portland, addressed a well-filled house in the hall last Tuesday evening in the interests of the republican party. A number of the candidates for county offices were present.

Rev. Snyder will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Beaverton grammar school on the 31st inst., at 7:45 p. m. The members of the class are: Misses Ella Tefft, Zola Hedge, Elsie Nelson, Mildred Davies, Pernicia Allen, Carrie Emmons, Messrs. August Desinger, Francis Robinson and Glenn Alexander. The regular commencement exercises will take place in the hall June 6th.

H. E. Coleman and family spent Sunday visiting relatives in and near this place.

Do you believe in education? Do you want a state university? If so, vote "yes" No. 314 on the official ballot on election day. The passage of this bill will increase your taxes a little more than 2 cents if you pay taxes on $1,000 worth of property. All progressive citizens should support the bill.

Those who believe that thirteen is an unlucky number should fight shy of a quarter dollar, says Harper's Weekly. It has thirteen stars, thirteen letters in the scroll held in the eagle's beak, thirteen marginal feathers in each wing, thirteen lines in the shield, thirteen horizontal bars, thirteen arrow-heads and thirteen letters in its name.

Horace Welch of this place has been living at Bay City, Tillamook county, for some time but returned home during the week. Business in that county seems to be at low water mark since the suspension of railroad building there.

Harry Dreuley, once a resident of this place, is reported dead from suicide in Portland. Family troubles and dissipation in intoxicants has wrought the ruin of one once well respected and honorable in life. Harry was, while living here, a member of Sherwood Camp, No. 494, W. O. W.

Rev. J. R. Knodell is announced by posters to lecture here Wednesday evening on behalf of temperance, his subject being "Handwriting on the Wall." The admission being free and the general public cordially invited to be present.

Fire completely destroyed the sawmill plant at Tualatin recently belonging to the Tualatin Mill company. The mill was removed from town a short distance up the river only last year, repaired and put in first-class condition. The origin of the fire is unknown while the total loss sustained amounts to upwards of $8,000, without any insurance whatever.

The White Sox team, barely scored a victory Sunday over the St. Paul visitors the score standing 2 and 1. A bad break on the part of St. Paul in the last inning resulted in the loss of the game to them. Those boys are skillful players without doubt, and are difficult to defeat.

Mrs. Fred Epler, of the bank, returned home last week from a visit of over two months among relatives and friends in the East. Her baby had the misfortune to contract the measles while en route, however recovery followed without complications or annoyance by quarantine.

It is currently reported that an ineffectual attempt of assault was made upon the person of a young lady residing out of town while returning home late one evening during the week. The miscreant is unknown, and perhaps it is healthier for him, otherwise an investigation might follow in which he would receive his just deserts.

Gus C. Mosher, a prominent young attorney of Portland, spoke here Monday night on behalf of Hon. H. M. Calk to a well-filled house. His argument was clear, concise and devoid of abuse of opponents, and altogether convincing relative to the necessity of republicans supporting their own nominee unitedly at the approaching June election.

Washington county candidates on the republican ticket headed by Hon. E. B. Tongue are billed for this place Friday night. A rousing meeting is expected. Our local band will furnish music for the occasion.

THE MASK TORN OFF.

Salaries "Officials" of the Anti-Saloon League Let the Cat Out of the Bag.

(To the Editor.)

The Rev. J. R. Knodell of Portland, one of the many salaried "superintendents" of the Anti-Saloon League, stated the other day that the local option elections this year were only preliminary skirmishes. He said that the real idea was to obtain prohibition for the entire state of Oregon in 1910, two years from now. That lets the cat out of the bag.

The people were assured four years ago that the local option law was merely intended to protect residence districts against the encroachment of the saloons.

"We are not prohibitionists," cried the supporters of the bill. "We are only local optionists." To those who claimed that the local option law was merely prohibition in disguise, its supporters presented an unbroken front. When taxed with the fact that their law was unfair they replied by asking the public to read it. As the law was twenty-eight pages in length

Prohibition in Oregon would cause 2500 buildings to become vacant and would throw out of employment 9000 men and deprive 4000 families of their livelihood. Where is the prosperity in this? Remember a vote for prohibition in 1910.
