The annual meeting of the State Association of Rural Letter Carriers of Oregon met at the court house in Albany on the 29th and 30th of May. Nearly 100 carriers from different parts of the state were in attendance on the 30th. Addresses were delivered by the postmasters of Albany, Corvallis and Corvallis, and by Tom Richardson of the Portland Commercial Club, J. H. Hartog of the Eugene Commercial Club, B. I. Dagent of the Albany Commercial Club, E. Hofer of the Salem Journal, J. H. Scott, county judge of Marion county; Mr. Stewart, county judge of Linn county; E. C. Clement, postal inspector, and several others. Papers were read by carriers on various subjects which directly concern them.

Washington county was signally honored by the election of W. H. Boyd of Beaverton as president for the coming year. J. H. Goins of Albany was re-elected secretary and treasurer, H. M. Cummins of Corvallis, 1st vice-president; F. Kraxberger of Aurora, 2nd vice-president. J. H. Goins was elected to attend the meeting of the national association, which meets in Omaha, Neb. in October.

Invitations were received from Eugene, Corvallis, Salem and Independence to meet in each, respectively, in 1909. After due deliberation Corvallis was chosen. The principal part of the time of the session was devoted to discussions of ways and means to secure better roads and of some way to bring the matter before the state legislature. Resolutions were also adopted requesting our delegate in the national association to favor resolutions for more pay and also for the establishment of an insurance within the ranks modeled after the railway mail clerks insurance association.

Returns on the state election, while yet incomplete, indicate that Governor Chamberlain has carried the state for United States senator by a majority of at least 1000.

Chamberlain has been successful in 14 out of the 33 counties, as follows: Baker, Clackamas, Clatsop, Crook, Douglas, Jackson, Josephine, Lincoln, Linn, Malheur, Marion, Multnomah, Polk and Union, and probably in Lake.

Mr. Cake has carried the remaining 18 counties, but his average pluralities are much smaller than his opponent's. The largest margin given by any county for the republican candidate was 500 in Lane, where the unpopular action of the democratic governor in vetoing the state university appropriation had a great influence on the voters. Cake's smallest plurality was 18 in Benton. The county of Baker, which the Portland republican candidate for senator carried by a large plurality in the primaries, reversed its friendly attitude toward him and gave his rival more than 300. The same result occurred in Clackamas. The eastern Oregon counties, however, as a rule, although they were for Fulton in the primaries, gave the republican candidate pluralities although they were small in nearly every instance. Umatilla, however, which is the home of Senator Fulton's strongest friends, rolled up over 300 for the man who beat him in April. Wasco, which was yesterday thought to have gone for Chamberlain, comes through finally with a small plurality for Cake.

Governor Chamberlain had the unexpectedly large plurality of 500 in Clackamas, the home of Statement No. 1, but in Clatsop, the residence of Senator Fulton, where the democratic nominee relied on a plurality of from 500 to 1000, he had only 300. It is not denied, however, that many of Senator Fulton's Astoria friends vigorously knifed the Portland republican nominee, but the results of their slaughter were not so serious to him as they might have been in view of the fact that the large fishing contingent in the lower river town was hostile to the democratic governor, and declined to support him. In Crook county, the home of ex-Representative Williamson, a warm friend and supporter of the Astoria senator, the democratic nominee had a decided plurality. Linn, the old home of the governor, gave him more than 400. In Marion the margin is very close, practically complete returns, however, showing a democratic lead of about 100. In Multnomah the early expectations that Governor Chamberlain would have from 1200 to 1500 are not borne out by the later returns.

Hawley, republican, is elected to congress in the first district by 15,000 or more, and Ellis, republican, by 15,000 or more in the second district. Bean, republican, for supreme judge, has a very large vote, having no opposition, while Bailey, republican, for food and dairy commissioner, wins by 25,000 to 30,000. Campbell, republican, is successful for railroad commissioner in the first district, and Aitchison, republican, for railroad commissioner for the second district has 5000 or more plurality.

Fifty two members of the legislature are for Statement No. 1, including Kay of Marion and Bonebrake of Benton, who are pledged conditionally. A majority of the legislature is 46.

While definite figures are not yet available of the amendments voted upon, the university appropriation carried overwhelmingly and woman suffrage was beaten by a correspondingly large vote. The single tax amendment was beaten, as was also the proposed amatory appropriation.
