P. G. VICKERS, Agent.

Godlieb Zurcher of Cedar Mills was in the city Wednesday.

N. D. Prickett of Banks was in Hillsboro on business Wednesday.

Receipts of the county recorder's office for last month amounted to $436.

Tickets now on sale for the Commencement program. 15 and 20 cents.

Geo. Schriber, of Midvale, Idaho, was here Wednesday transacting business.

The clerk's office during the month of May boosted the county's revenue to the amount of $206.75.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Willis, of Mountandale, are rejoicing over the birth of a little daughter, born last Friday.

John Schriber and wife, Phillip Petzolt, L. Zimmerman and Nick Bildy, all of Phillips, were in town Wednesday.

The high school graduating class will give a Longfellow program Friday evening, June 12, in the Crescent Theatre.

Rev. A. A. Beery will preach a sermon before the graduating classes of the public school in the Christian church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

There will be a basket dinner at Farmington Christian church next Sunday. Preaching at 11 a. m. and Children's Day exercises in the afternoon.

Just received, a new shipment of midsummer millinery. Leave your orders with us.

H. RHEA & CO., Successors to Mrs. J. B. Vrooman.

Rev. J. R. Welch of Portland will preach next Sunday forenoon at the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church and in the afternoon at Reedville.

Don't fail to attend the mass meeting at the court house this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. Business of vital importance to every citizen of Hillsboro.

Bert Lacey, the genial and well known clerk at the Commercial Hotel, has resigned his position and left for Lincoln, Neb., last Tuesday, where he will be associated with Chris. Roewe.

An illustration of the power of the modern search light was afforded Tuesday night, when the rays of the powerful light on the cruiser Charlestown, now in the river at Portland for the Rose Festival, were plainly seen at Hillsboro. The display lasted for some time and attracted much attention.

Dr. Tamiesie was called to West Union last week Thursday to attend Charles Willoughby, who lives near the old Meek farm. While repairing his house, a long board slipped from a scaffold, striking him on the arm and breaking it, and running a large splinter into the arm above the elbow, inflicting a painful wound. Chloroform was administered, the injury dressed, and it is believed no serious results will follow.

Quong Lee, who shot Clyde Wilson at Forest Grove Saturday, will be arraigned before Justice Bagley today. The charge will probably be assault with a dangerous weapon, and it is likely the Chinaman will be released on bail, as his friends have expressed willingness to qualify in any amount. Quong is in the Hillsboro jail and has little to say about the shooting except that it was "a velly bad business." Dan Malarkey, of Portland, has been engaged to conduct the defense.

E. I. Kuratli and wife drove to Portland Wednesday to see the Rose Festival and returned last night.

H. G. Fitch, of Cornelius, is in the city serving on the board canvassing the election returns.

For good, cheap work in monuments, see the sign on the corner of Second and Jefferson street.

Judge C. E. Kindt, of Kinton, was in the city this week, serving on the board of canvassers. The judge was re-elected justice of West Butte precinct without opposition.

The main street gospel mission is undenominational and all of the churches of the city are asked to be co-workers with us for the salvation of souls. Rev. A. D. Westfall.

Dr. J. P. Tamiesie and wife left for Portland Wednesday to attend the wedding of the doctor's brother, Joseph T. Tamiesie to Miss Vera Pike of Portland, which occurred at noon.

Kuratli Bros. sold the Geo. Schriber 60-acre farm near Phillips this week to John Schriber for $5000, and also the Veach house and lot on Fir street, between Fifth and Sixth, to Mrs. Sample for $950.

Remember the concert at Crescent Theatre, Wednesday evening, June 10th, given by Miss Wilma Waggener assisted by Frederic E. Vrooman, Baritone, and Miss Cornelia Barker, Violinist. Admission 50 cents. Seats now on sale at McCormick's music store.

Hillsboro has been well represented at the Portland Rose Festival during the week. Agent Vickers reports 90 tickets sold Tuesday. Wednesday the crowd was even larger. On Thursday two extra coaches were added to the morning train, which was crowded to capacity.

Mary Freeman, a pupil in the third grade, was seized with a fainting fit during the morning recess of school Thursday, causing much alarm among her playmates. She was soon revived, however, and was removed to the residence of her grandmother and seems to be suffering no serious after effects.

D. J. Barrett of Cornelius was the victim of a serious accident last Thursday. Mr. Barrett is associated with the Buchanan Lumber company, and while at work was caught under a falling bale of hay, badly fracturing the left leg. Dr. Tamiesie set the broken member and Mr. Barrett is now doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. J. M. Greear and daughter Pearl, of this city, who spent the past winter in Southern California, arrived last Friday at Summit, where they met Mr. Greear, and are visiting with their son, Claude. They are expected in Hillsboro next week where they will spend the summer and return to California in the fall.

So why not all toward him steer, He'll treat you well, don't doubt or fear.

L. J. PALMATEER, Prop. The annual school meetings will be held in the various precincts of the county on the third Monday in June. It has been said of the American people that one of their most surprising characteristics is the lack of interest they take in school affairs. Between $60,000 and $70,000 is expended each year for education in Washington county. Thinking people have long since ceased to regard this as a tax, but rather look on it as an investment, returning both principal and interest in the education it affords their children. Nevertheless, if it is an investment, careful business men are naturally as much interested in the details of the expenditure as in any other enterprise, and should attend the school meetings and, when necessary, assume the duties of school officers and see that the money is expended to the best advantage.

BABY'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Infant Barely Escapes Death in a Blazing Crib.

The infant son of F. R. Dailey, living in Fairview addition, narrowly escaped a horrible death by fire about 11:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. Mr. Dailey being absent from his place of business, his father built a fire in an air-tight heater in the room in which the child lay sleeping in its crib. He then went into the yard.

A short time after Ed. Jacobs, who was working on a house in the vicinity, rang the door bell of the Dailey residence to request the use of the telephone. In answering the ring Mrs. Dailey passed the door of the room in which the child lay and was horrified to discover it a mass of flames.

In some manner the fire had caught the bedding of the crib and the blaze had just reached the child when discovered by the mother. Mr. Jacobs responded to the mother's cries for help and the fire was quickly extinguished.

The baby's clothing was scorched, but it was found to be uninjured. A few minutes' delay would have meant serious, if not fatal, burns. The loss from the fire was nominal.

ELECTION CANVASS COMPLETE.

Official Count Gives Bailey a Plurality of 14.

The official count of the ballots of Monday's election was completed late Wednesday afternoon with the exception of the amendments. The canvass of the vote of these began Thursday, but was not completed at the time The Independent went to press. The official figures will be found in the table on page 4. The count disclosed no material change from that unofficially given out, with the exception of the vote for county clerk. Unofficial returns gave Bailey a plurality over McCormick of 29, while the completed count reduces the plurality to 14.

Miss Waggener in Concert.

A rare treat is in store for the people of Hillsboro in the concert to be given by Miss Wilma Waggener at the Crescent Theatre next Wednesday night June 10th. This will be Miss Waggener's first appearance in Hillsboro since her return from Europe. While in Berlin she had the advantage of instruction from such noted teachers as Severin Eisenberger and Alberto Jonas and of hearing the great artists who appear at that music center. Miss Waggener will be assisted by Miss Cornelia Barker, violinist of Portland, and Mr. Frederic Vrooman of this city. The many friends of Miss Waggener will be glad of this opportunity to hear her at home for she has already appeared in Portland and other places with much success.

Announcement.

Mrs. Henrietta Rhea, formerly of Boise, Idaho, and her daughter, Mrs. H. T. Bagley, of this city, have purchased the millinery business heretofore conducted by Mrs. J. B. Vrooman and will conduct the business under the firm name of H. Rhea & Co., at the same location on Main street, just west of Schulmerich Bros.' store. Courteous treatment and good values will be their motto. The patronage of those in need of millinery is solicited.

J. W. Connell, Sheriff of Washington County, Offices at Hillsboro, Oregon, June 3rd, 1908. To the Voters of Washington County:—As the chairman of the republican county central committee I desire to thank the republican voters that stood by us in the election of the primary ticket in this election. I am also very thankful to the democrats that gave us their support in helping to elect the primary candidates that were so severely attacked in the fight just over, for without the support of the voters that believe in the primary law, it would have been greatly discredited, which eventually would cause the old bossism rule to enter into politics again, and which we are free from at the present time. Again thanking you for your liberal support, I remain, Yours very respectfully, J. W. CONNELL, Chairman County Central Com.

BOYS ON LONG TRAMP.

Young Pedestrians on Record-Breaking Trip.

Rufus Lemaster, aged 12, and his brother, Ralph, aged 8, were brought to Hillsboro Thursday and are now in charge of Sheriff Connell.

The boys are the sons of Lemaster, of Sweet Home, 20 miles east of Albany. They left home Sunday and since then have covered the 100 miles intervening, walking the entire distance. They asked shelter of Charles Johnson at Farmington, Wednesday night and were taken care of by him. Not receiving satisfactory replies to his inquiries Mr. Johnson concluded they were run-aways and sent them to Hillsboro.

The sheriff is endeavoring to communicate with the boys' parents, and when successful they will be returned to Sweet Home. The boys are bright little fellows, and seem none the worse for their long tramp.

Commencement Exercises.

Prof. Orr, of Forest Grove, was in the city Wednesday drilling the graduating class. The commencement exercises will occur Friday evening, June 12, at the Crescent Theatre. The program prepared follows:

- Invocation Music
- "Character Sketch"—Zenas Olson
- "The Bell of Atri"—Lara Tamiesie
- Vocal Solo—Miss Florence Tongue
- "The Legend Beautiful"—Lula Donelson
- "The Famine"—Lay Weathered
- Piano Solo—Blanche Bowman
- "The Wreck of the Hesperus"—Mary Sewell
- Presentation of Diplomas—Prin. Bates
- Double Quartet
- Benediction

Probate Court.

Final account has been filed in the estate of Fred Sommers, deceased, and July 8 set as the date for hearing objections to final settlement.

The inventory and appraisal of the estate of R. L. Cate, deceased, has been filed and personal property ordered sold.

Citation was issued in the matter of the estate of Mary Jane Sutherland to show cause why property should not be sold to pay claims.

I want to buy a farm in the Willamette Valley. Will pay part cash. I have a nice new modern house and lot in Portland which I would like to trade in at a cheap price. Give description, location and price of place. Ralph Ackley, 603 Corbett Bldg, Portland, Oregon.

Ice for sale. Den of Sweets.

Baseball at Reedville.

The Pasadena base ball nine crossed bats with the Reedville nine on the latter's diamond last Sunday. The visiting nine was defeated by a score of 6 to 18. There was a big crowd out and in spite of the strong showing made by the Pasadenas, they were completely eclipsed. There is no reason why Reedville should not have one of the best nines in the county, fully able to meet and vanquish all comers. At present the Reedville boys are feeling pretty important and it would be a hard matter to convince them that there is a better nine in existence.

Notice. Commencing June 15, the Southern Pacific Railway will sell tickets from Hillsboro to Cornelius for 10 cents. The rate heretofore has been 14 cents. P. G. VICKERS, Station Agent.

STATE OF OREGON, WASHINGTON COUNTY, ss.

I, A. C. Shute, Cashier of J. W. Shute, Banker, being first duly sworn say: That the foregoing statement of Resources and Liabilities is true and correct as I verily believe.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this May 23rd, 1908. A. C. SHUTE. GEO. R. BAGLEY, Notary Public for Oregon.

Your attention is called to the fact that J. W. Shute, Banker, is NOT incorporated and that over $150,000.00 in tangible assets owned by J. W. Shute, is in law applicable to the payment of the liabilities above mentioned.

UNIVERSITY AND HIGH SCHOOL.

Inconsistency of Defeat of One and Adoption of Other.

Speaking of the coming school graduation a prominent educator said to The Independent man the other day:

"The third eighth grade examination for the present year will be held in the various districts of Washington county on June 11th and 12th and the class graduated will be barred from further educational facilities in the county, owing to the defeat of the county high school measure.

"A remarkable feature of the vote in Monday's election is the fact that while the university appropriation carried in the county, the high school measure was voted down. No high school for Washington county leaves a gap of four years between graduation from the local schools and entrance to the state university. While many are able and willing to pay the expense of fitting their children for entrance to the university after leaving the public school, to the great mass of the people it is too great a burden, and they find themselves saddled with the university tax with no chance to avail themselves of its advantages.

"When the vote is analyzed it would appear that Washington county is willing to do her part in furthering the cause of higher education for the rest of the state, but is unwilling that her own boys and girls have the share for which they have paid."

Marriage Licenses.

Dan Cupid succeeded in mating five Washington county couples during the week. They were: M. Ingram and L. Sleinke, William Bell and Bertha G. Sherman, J. A. Voss and Ottilie Holz-nagel, Frank I. Carter and Crystal Richardson, Arthur G. Gillmore and Addie Lee Lane.

Chris. Roewe, former landlord of the Commercial Hotel, accompanied by his wife, called upon Hillsboro friends Tuesday. They are about to return to their old home in Nebraska, where Mr. Roewe has some business affairs to settle up, after which he expects to return to Oregon and remain permanently.
