Mrs. Spilker, daughter of Dr. T. B. Spilker, of Portland, has died. She was married to her husband by death early in May. She was a graduate of Willamette University, and was for a time employed in the Portland Blade office.

Laurel Bryant and Mrs. Alice Wadell, formerly of Oregon, are getting married in Los Angeles this week. Miss Bryant, who has been in Portland recently, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bryant.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hahn were unable to flee the fury of the hurricane in New Orleans, where they have a home. They are now in the east visiting, and are said to be in good spirits.

The body of the late Geo. W. Hahn has been removed to the Hahn residence in Portland, where he will remain until the body is received at the body will remain until the body is received at the Hahn residence.

A man who was reported as missing in the north Pacific recently, has been found and is safe.

The body of the late Geo. W. Hahn has been removed to the Hahn residence in Portland, where he will remain until the body is received at the Hahn residence.

A man who was reported as missing in the north Pacific recently, has been found and is safe.

The body of the late Geo. W. Hahn has been removed to the Hahn residence in Portland, where he will remain until the body is received at the Hahn residence.

A man who was reported as missing in the north Pacific recently, has been found and is safe.

The body of the late Geo. W. Hahn has been removed to the Hahn residence in Portland, where he will remain until the body is received at the Hahn residence.

A man who was reported as missing in the north Pacific recently, has been found and is safe.