TROOPS AT THE POLLS.
Universal Right Growing Out of the Strife.

THE DELINQUENT RECORD.

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS.

THE ARGUS.

HILLSBORO, OREGON. THURSDAY, JULY 26, 1894.

VOL. 1.

NO. 18.

WHAT M'CONNELL SAYS

About Salmon Hatcheries in Oregon Streams.

It is evident that the states will pass a law giving the states a control of the fish hatcheries which have been established by the federal government in Oregon, and that the law will be passed this session. The Oregon Secretary of State has been

FIGHT AT BLUEFIELDS.

A Coop d'Etat on the Part of the Indians.

OUTPOST LOCATED IN REMOVED.

THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, July 26—The Secretary of War today ordered the removal of the outposts at Bluefields, in Oregon, and the President has directed that the troops stationed there shall be withdrawn.

SUMMARY:

WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War this morning issued a proclamation declaring the railroad company to be in default of the terms of the contract, and calling for the payment of the sum of $10,000,000.

DEFENSE OF DEM.

Action of the Secretary of Labor in the Taken.

The Secretary of Labor has taken action in the matter of the railroad company's default, and has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields.

STUNG TO THE QUICK.

Democratic Senator Smooching Under the Lasch.

A Coop d'Etat on the Part of the Indians.

This afternoon, the Democratic Senator from Oregon, Mr. Doolittle, was seen in the Senate chambers, smooching under the lasch. He appeared to be in a state of great excitement, and was heard to exclaim, "This is the last straw!"

WANT THE ACCOUNT.

Adapted Pagoda's Policy to the Public.

For the past several weeks, the adapted pagoda of the Pacific Coast has been the subject of much interest. The pagoda, which is located on the outskirts of the city, has been the scene of several important meetings, during which various questions have been discussed.

THE FENCING PAGODA.

A New U.S. Policy in the Pacific.

A new U.S. policy in the Pacific has been announced by the Department of State. The new policy is designed to strengthen the ties between the United States and the nations of the Pacific region.

THE FIGHT AT BLUEFIELDS.

A Coop d'Etat on the Part of the Indians.

One of the Indian tribes in Oregon has declared a state of war against the United States, and has called for the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields. The Indian chief has stated that the troops are an abomination and an insult to the Indian people.

THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON.

The President has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

SUMMARY:

WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

SUMMARY:

WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

SUMMARY:

WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

THE FENCING PAGODA.

A New U.S. Policy in the Pacific.

A new U.S. policy in the Pacific has been announced by the Department of State. The new policy is designed to strengthen the ties between the United States and the nations of the Pacific region.

THE FIGHT AT BLUEFIELDS.

A Coop d'Etat on the Part of the Indians.

One of the Indian tribes in Oregon has declared a state of war against the United States, and has called for the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields. The Indian chief has stated that the troops are an abomination and an insult to the Indian people.

THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON.

The President has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

SUMMARY:

WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

SUMMARY:

WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

THE FENCING PAGODA.

A New U.S. Policy in the Pacific.

A new U.S. policy in the Pacific has been announced by the Department of State. The new policy is designed to strengthen the ties between the United States and the nations of the Pacific region.

THE FIGHT AT BLUEFIELDS.

A Coop d'Etat on the Part of the Indians.

One of the Indian tribes in Oregon has declared a state of war against the United States, and has called for the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields. The Indian chief has stated that the troops are an abomination and an insult to the Indian people.

THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON.

The President has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

SUMMARY:

WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

SUMMARY:

WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

THE FENCING PAGODA.

A New U.S. Policy in the Pacific.

A new U.S. policy in the Pacific has been announced by the Department of State. The new policy is designed to strengthen the ties between the United States and the nations of the Pacific region.

THE FIGHT AT BLUEFIELDS.

A Coop d'Etat on the Part of the Indians.

One of the Indian tribes in Oregon has declared a state of war against the United States, and has called for the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields. The Indian chief has stated that the troops are an abomination and an insult to the Indian people.

THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON.

The President has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

SUMMARY:

WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

SUMMARY:

WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.

The Secretary of War has ordered the withdrawal of the troops stationed at Bluefields, and has directed that the railroad company be given notice of the withdrawal.