

THE ARGUS

THURSDAY, JAN. 17, 1895.

—R. H. Greer, W. S. Phelps and J. I. Knight visited Forest Grove yesterday.

—It is reported that the 22d of February will be duly celebrated by a mask ball at Courtney Meek's.

—J. I. Knight has some money to loan.

—Hillsboro ships more butter to Portland by express than any other town between Corvallis and Portland.

—Jacob Penning, who was recently shot by Reiter, is getting along nicely, the wound not being considered at all dangerous.

—J. H. Donaldson found a spring sent the other day. The owner can have same by proving property and paying for this advertisement.

—Miss Anna Bauman, well known at Beaverton and Cedar Mills, is now employed in the East Portland telephone office.

—Ernest Stewart came out from Portland Tuesday evening and is now at the home of his mother. Ernest has been suffering from an attack of lung fever but is now mending.

—Why buy old dried out candies when you can buy fresh home-made goods for less money, at the Home Bakery.

—Miss Stella Foudray spent Sunday in this city with her parents, returning to the Grove Monday morning.

—Clyde Reeves returned to the Portland University Monday to resume his studies.

—Go to Greer's for bulk pickles.

—Messrs. Anderson & Tupper have purchased the express business from C. R. Mead and hereafter they will freight and express between this point and Portland.

—Street Commissioner Gehn has been improving the roadway between Main street and the depot.

—A. T. Phillips will shave you for 10 cents. Give him a trial. Shop on west side Second street.

—Messrs. R. Cave, J. W. Shute, H. P. Ford, A. B. Goodin and Geo. Patterson were among those who did business at Portland last Friday. It is said by some that Cave's curiosity over the senatorial contest got the better of him and he went down to see "Joe."

—Readers will please note the ad of G. Heitkemper, the Portland jeweler, in another column.

—H. Wehrung & Son shipped a car load of hay to the Portland market last week, and John Milne followed suit Saturday with a car of rolled oats.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Craig will soon be at home in the residence of U. S. Hicks on First street.

—A full line of groceries, crockery, glassware and lamps always kept in stock at Greer's.

—John W. Gwilt, a rising attorney from Portland, was in the city Saturday last looking up legal matters for his clients.

—Dr. Gue, of Portland, will lecture at Glencoe Friday evening, January 18th; subject: "Roundabouts of the War" and will preach Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. All are invited.

—Wm. Pointer is at present in Salem where he will remain through the legislature.

—D. K. Bill is attending the legislature at Salem.

—Go to Laidlaw's for your Groceries, and boots and shoes, at almost wholesale prices. He is the leader in low prices and his aim is to buy so as to undersell all competition.

—R. Boyd will leave for the mineral fields of Southern Oregon soon.

—H. P. Ford, of the shiraziety, went to Salem Monday night on official business, and while there will swell the Washington county contingency and incidentally show how the senatorial fight is progressing.

—The Independent and The Argus were designated as county official papers by the commissioners court Saturday last. The proprietors of this paper feel justly proud of the honor, and intend that a year hence no paper in the county shall lead in circulation.

—Miss Hest Northrup of the Hillsboro House, was a Portland visitor last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hay are the recipients of a fine baby girl, born on the 11th inst. Ben Hay has a petition before the county court to widen the highway between town and the Hay place. Ben Hay, Jr.

—Joe Simon said "Walk into our caucus." They walked. Then he said "Thumbs up!"—and up the thumbs went for unanimity. And the next day fell six inches of frozen aqua pura. Salvation is free for the silverites for the party will need their strength. The cat will come back.

—Robert May and Wm. Child, natives of Mason Ehnman, of Frank in the city.

—The opera house was crowded to its seating capacity last Monday evening to hear the Tittell Sisters in "My Uncle's Will" and "Frou Frou." In the Tittell Sisters W. S. Ford has secured talent that would do credit to more metropolitan towns than have we in the Willamette valley. For clever acting, and an immediate entrance to the hearts of theatre-goers, these sisters are certainly in the lead of any who have appeared in this city for years. They have played to Portland houses for a number of years and their reputation as ranking high in dramatic life are too well known to need further mention. They are dated to appear before the people of Hillsboro again in about two months and they can come with the assurance of a large audience.

—If you want a bright, reliable and newsy daily paper, call at this office and subscribe for the Sun. It will cost you but 65 cents per month, delivered.

—Joseph Roundey was up from Beaverton Monday renewing acquaintances. Jo. says he is at the old stand.

—Five acres of land, some cleared, enclosed by fence, comfortable frame house, good barn, woodshed, and young orchard. Adjoining the city limits of Hillsboro; goes for $750, half down, balance on time to suit purchaser. Inquire at The Argus office.

—Miller Bros. shaving parlors lead. Hot and cold baths. Give them a trial.

—Milne's mill has discontinued making night runs for the present.

—An act has been introduced in the state senate by Senator Huston to amend the charter incorporating Hillsboro.

—Any one desiring to rent a farm with a house and out buildings and about 50 or 60 acres under cultivation will please inquire at The Argus office for particulars.

—The Climax mill is idle this week to permit of necessary repairs. Albert Bratton is the mechanic.

—One of the Washington county lobby at Salem telephoned down yesterday, so it is said, and gave his republican friends the encouragement that their candidate was getting along nicely.

—Owing to the wretched condition of the road and the consequent hardship in getting the Sunday Oregonian out, its business manager will allow the route agent to charge ten cents a copy until the bad weather ceases. The Oregonian simply does this to allow the agent to make expenses.

—County officials have received their December salaries, and all goes as merry as a wedding bell.

—The series of meetings at the Methodist church is awakening considerable interest and it is hoped much good will arise out of it.

—The regular quarterly communion service will be held in the First Congregational church, of Hillsboro, next Sunday at 11:00 a. m.

—Bring in your wood on subscription. Our landlords have not reserved the right to inspect the premises and we can store 40 cords in the back of the building, and another one in the composing room. Also—bring in your dollar and make yourself or some one else a Christmas present of The Argus for one year.

—Rev. Strayer will preach at Salem next Sunday at 11:00 a. m. and at Hillsboro at 7:30 p. m.

—It is reported that one of the boys of a Mr. Littell, who resides near Greenville, was drowned a few days ago. It seems the boy was out hunting and in crossing a stream met his death. His hat and coat were found, but his body had not yet been recovered at last reports.

—R. Chringer has secured a very liberal agency for wall paper that bids fair to astonish us as regards prices, elegance and quality. Drop a card; samples brought to the house.

—John M. Burroughs and Agnes Gault were married at the home of Mrs. Gault last week. Rev. Brown, of Beaverton, officiating.

—Wm. E. Childs and Laura R. Blank have taken out license to wed.

—You can get The Argus for the period of one year with the Cincinnati Enquirer, a semi-weekly, for the low rate of $1.75 for both papers. The Enquirer is one of the best family papers in the United States. Practice economy by taking advantage of this liberal offer.

—The Governor's message was purely matter of fact, with some fine recommendations. It surprised a great many, but not those who know him best.

—E. H. Godwin has been granted a free scholarship to the State Agricultural College.

—Richard Beamish has been admitted to full citizenship.

When in Town go to the Deutsche Wirthschaft and get a glass of lager beer and a fine sandwich for 10 cents. C. Blaser, proprietor.

—The weather observer, who was born in the cold eastern states, evidently is a little home sick.

—Frank Kane is again at his desk in the clerk's office after an extended absence.

—Benj. Birdsell was in the city the first of the week, a guest of his daughter, Mrs. John Dennis.

—The Hillsboro postoffice has sent away by money order in the last two weeks $400 in excess of all moneys received in like manner. This being the first of the year probably accounts for it. Portland gets the bulk of the remittances.

—E. J. Lyons went to Portland this morning.

—The revival service last evening was well attended.

—Uncle Sam's mail-carriers are having a rather hard time making their trips these days, and they are finding their contracts no sinecures.

—Rev. Dr. Gue will talk to the young people Saturday evening, at the M. E. Church.

—Mr. Maynard, of Greenville, was in the city yesterday.

—G. T. Ledford keeps constantly on hand a staple line of tobacco cigars and confectionery. Patronize an old landmark. He always satisfies his customers.

—J. F. Anderson, formerly of the Forest Grove flouring mills, is at his home near Dilley. Dr. Linklater, of this place is attending him.

—The Pharmacy will hereafter be conducted by Dr. Bailey, Dr. Linklater, who has been a member of the firm Bailey & Linklater for several years, retiring.

—Dr. Linklater has moved his office from the Pharmacy to his residence east of the court house.

—The road between this place and Mountaineale is entirely impassable for teams.

—Miss Jennie Sawyer was visiting friends in the city last week.

—G. H. Phelps, of Dilley, was in the city Tuesday on business.

—Among those who visited Portland Monday morning were W. A. Laidlaw, L. K. Adams, J. J. Morgan, and Wm. Bronson.

—W. N. Barret attended court at Oregon City this week.

—Rev. Dr. Gue will be here this evening and will assist in the services at the M. E. church. Rev. I. D. Driver of Eugene, will be here Friday to assist, and will remain several days.

—Miles Everett is engaged in extending the state tax levy and the advancing equalization on the county assessment roll.

—C. E. Hill, representing a California medical dispensary, was in the city Tuesday evening.

—A delegation of Odd Fellows went up to Forest Grove to be present at the funeral of Dr. Bowly. Among them were noticed: D. W. Dobbins, W. H. Wehrung, W. E. Brock, A. Sigler, H. Humphreys, Frank Kelay, and D. T. Phillips.

—A. Tamesieis is initiating himself into the mysteries of the drug business at the City Drug store.

—M. J. Gardner, of Gardner Brothers, cigar manufacturers of Middleton, was in the city Monday taking orders for the week that is supposed to comfort. The boys are turning out a fine article.

—Peter Bergerson was in the city from Vernonia Tuesday.

—The White House back of the store of Riley Cave has been surrounded by a lake for several days and Executive Campbell is getting initiated in the navigator's art sufficiently to take out papers.

—James McNamara, of the Independent force, visited Portland Sunday last.

—The caucus is a fitting tool for a monopolistic politician. It is the child of the republican party and the means whereby the wishes of the people can be defeated. And, by the way, it acts like a Chinook wind on opposition to plutocratic senatorial candidates. But is it not republican? The Independent will now come down from its high altitude.

The Latest.

The news comes from Salem this morning that the Dolph managers had succeeded in getting 72 of the legislature into caucus. Dolph received 40 votes out of the 72. C. W. Fulton received 12 and T. H. Tongue 11. The remainder of the votes were divided promiscuously between Lord, Strong, Lowell, et al. This ballot still lacks for election, but it will not be a reasonable hypothesis to suppose that those remaining out of caucus are all anti-Dolph. Yet it is contended by the silver men that Dolph had every available vote in the caucus, which he could command, and, knowing this, it certainly was an unwise move to enter the body.

The intent of a caucus is understood to convey the acceptance of the rule that all present will support the man getting the majority vote, when the direct issue comes. Dolph's managers knew that his strength was insufficient to elect him on the first legislative ballot, and inveigled the opposition into a caucus thereby spiking their guns. The gold standard will prevail so far as this state is concerned. A caucus is republican "method," and the silver contingent must take its medicine. Those who have been writing about the wind blowing through Dolph's whiskers will now conclude that it was only a playful, rollicksome, balmy zephyr toying with the gentleman's hirsute pride.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The second meeting of the teachers of Hillsboro school took place at the school building last Saturday at 10 a. m.

The program began with a song by Edna and Tina Ogden. Mrs. Dora J. Elliott gave a highly instructive talk upon methods of spelling; Miss Mae Clark read a paper entitled, "Outside the Three R's," that the teachers voted to have published, and Miss Rose Wilcox suggested methods of teaching writing to primary and advanced grades. The session closed with a pleasing song by Mrs. Tiffany, Miss Colman and Prof. J. H. Stanley.

Death of a Pioneer.

In the death of Dr. Wilson Bowlby, of Forest Grove, Washington county loses another link in its chain of early pioneers. Dr. Bowlby came to this county when its fertile valleys were a wilderness, settling near Forest Grove nearly 35 years ago. As practicing physician his practice extended from Portland to the Coast range. Mr. Bowlby was a man highly respected by all who knew him and many there are who will hear with genuine sorrow, his death.

Some High Water.

The recent warm rains have melted the snow and all the streams in the country are bank full. It is asserted by many that this is the highest water for years. Roads are impassable in outlying precincts, as every little rivulet has been a raging torrent. There was some danger that the long bridge between this place and Cornelius would suffer severe damages but, as it is not as yet impassable, perhaps the fears were groundless. The several road districts will have some work as soon as the weather settles, repairing the bridges, etc.

At Centerville the long bridge is all gone but the Main span. The Alex Chalmers bridge has floated away, as has the bridge between Forest Grove and Greenville. The Pollock, Reeves and Geiger bridges are reported gone, and the bridge above Greenville is disabled. There are but few structures in the country but what have been more or less impaired, and it is estimated that $10,000 will be needed to place them in repair.

DILLEY DOINGS.

Plenty of obstructions to travel, since the storm and subsequent high water.

The sled did great damage to fruit and ornamental trees in this neighborhood.

E. Gaylord's residence was slightly injured by falling timber the other day, and he was cutting cordwood from the roof of his house as a result.

While Tommie, the 12-year old son of John Nissen, was out gunning recently, the spring to his old Zulu gun gave way, and the shell exploded in his face. He now has one black eye instead of two blue ones.

The boys have secured their instruments and organized the band. Walter Jackson is instructor, and as the "Foot" "root" comes o'er the air, our citizens begin to swell with pride.

Wm. Gates has a contract to put 100 cords of wood on the track next summer at $2.00 per cord.

It is rumored that Mr. Woods, of the firm, Woods Caples & Thomas, will put on a stock of general merchandise at this point in the near future. In that event we will have that line well represented at this place.

BEAVERTON BLINKINGS.

Mrs. J. A. Reid, of Gaston, was in town Saturday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Harry's babe, which has been sick for a week past, died Tuesday, January 8th, and was buried Thursday in the Johnson grave yard.

Mr. Munger and family have gone to Seattle where he has been tendered a position.

Mrs. Harvey left here Monday morning for Portland where she will visit friends before returning to her home in Washington.

Joseph Roundey has moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Munger.

Mr. Jewett has taken possession of the place vacated by Joseph Roundey. We are glad to see new neighbors come into our town but regret to see the old ones leave us.

The wind is blowing hard again and we are likely to have more snow.

Some of the Beaverton boys attended the dance at Tigardville last Saturday night and report having had a good time.

Jos. Johnson is the happy father of an eight pound boy. Mightily cold weather for such small strangers.

Notice for Publication.

LAND OFFICE AT OREGON CITY, OR., Dec. 29, 1894.

NOTICE is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, under Section 2305, R. S., and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office at Oregon City, Or., on February 14, 1895, viz:

Leonard H. Witt, H. E. No. 11273 for the $\frac{1}{4}$ s. w. $\frac{1}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{4}$ s. w. $\frac{1}{4}$ section 16 T. 3 N. R. 6 W.

FREE COINAGE OF SILVER.

The free and unlimited coinage of silver, the product of American mines, at the old ratio of 16 of silver to 1 of gold, is the only solution of and remedy for the disturbed and unsatisfactory condition of trade, manufacture and general business of the country. The surreptitious act of 1873, divorcing silver and gold in our monetary system, was a crime of untold magnitude. It was the rankest kind of class legislation in favor of the wealthy against the producers of wealth, and hostile to the prosperity of the United States. It was an act of treason because done at the instance of a European syndicate and for bribe money, "giving aid and comfort to our country's enemies." To shield the guilty parties, the well authenticated facts, often published, have been vigorously denied.

The Enquirer will continue to expose this unpardonable crime until right and justice are done the people by the full restoration of silver to its old companionship with gold. We need the assistance of the people in disseminating the truth, to which end we invite all in your selection of papers for the coming season to include the Enquirer, that costs only $1.00 a year. (Issued twice a week.) Liberal commissions and cash rewards given to club raisers. Sample copies free. ENQUIRER COMPANY, Cincinnati, O.

Is your blood at all out of order, or in the least degree contaminated with any poisonous ingredients? Such a thing is always liable to happen to any one. The blood is constantly subjected to insidious attacks, and to maintain its purity you must be ever on your guard. A blood tonic is as necessary to the system as a tonic for the nerves. To neglect the precaution of its use is to incur the risk of the blood becoming so far contaminated that the general health will become seriously if not dangerously impaired. Blood tells. Make your blood always tell a story of good health by using our Fruitlaxi Blood Syrup. We also have Oregon Blood Purifier and Syrup of Figs.

THE SUNDAY MORNING OREGONIAN AND MORNING SUN

Nothing in This World

Is so cheap as a newspaper, whether it be measured by the cost of its production or by its value to the consumer. We are talking about an American, metropolitan, daily paper of the first class like THE CHICAGO RECORD. It's so cheap and so good you can't afford in this day of progress to be without it. There are other papers possibly as good, but none better, and none just like it. It prints all the real news of the world—the news you care for—every day, and prints it in the shortest possible space. You can read THE CHICAGO RECORD and do a day's work too. It is an independent paper and gives all political news free from the taint of party bias. In a word—it's a complete, condensed, clean, honest family newspaper, and it has the largest morning circulation in Chicago or the west—125,000 to 140,000 a day.

Prof. J. T. Hatfield of the Northwestern University says: "THE CHICAGO RECORD comes as near being the ideal daily journal as we are for some time likely to find on these mortal shores."

Sold by newsdealers everywhere, and subscriptions received by all postmasters. Address THE CHICAGO RECORD, 181 Madison-st.
