A trip through the Glencoe section the other day revealed to an Argus reporter some of the finest country which ever drew warmth from sun, or received moisture from the heavens. With a rolling surface, good drainage, beautifully laid out fields, good comfortable, and tastily constructed buildings, the sights were welcome, and left an impression that was nothing if not appreciative. To further make the trip a pleasure, Judge Cornelius laid aside the dignity of the court, and told some amazing yarns, and of course his word was taken for anything he said.

A man passed through here from Portland driving a tan colored horse, with harness, vehicle, whip, and wearing apparel to match. Behind, followed a dog of same hue, forming a perfect blend of color. One of our local wags stopped him and suggested he purchase a Colorado Claro cigar, which he did at one of our drug stores, and then the combination was a "dream."

W. H. Wehrung drives one of the neatest little townouts in the city. And that is so, too.

Mrs. A. Lindsey departs this Thursday evening for her home in Ukiah, Cal., after a several weeks' visit with the family of Dr. C. B. Brown. Rev. A. Lindsey, her husband has again been retained by his parish in their California home, and relative thereto the following is clipped from the columns of the Ukiah Dispatch and Democrat:—

The covenant meeting held at the Baptist Church on Saturday last had a larger attendance than at any time in the history of the church, fully 200 members being present. Rev. A. Lindsey gave notice according to the custom of this church to give two or three months notice if they wish to secure another pastor. A gray haired member of mature years and wise judgment arose in an instant and moved that Rev. Lindsey be retained for an indefinite time, which immediately received several seconds. A rising vote being taken it was carried unanimously. The same question came before the congregation at the 11 o'clock service on Sunday when nearly all the members were present and was carried without a dissenting vote, thereby giving expression to the gratitude and showing in what high esteem their pastor is held by his members.

EASTER SERVICES.

"Who shall roll us back the stone." "We seekth Jesus of Nazareth who was crucified." "The empty tomb." "He is not here." "The glory of the parish." Easter floral offerings intermingled with the solemn ceremonies of worship on resurrection morn at Verboort Catholic Church, of this place Sunday last. The paschal solemnities on the anniversary of the great christian passover, the real and the lesser altars shone out in resplendent light. The divine services were very impressive and touching to the eye of the beholder. The melodious play of the mammoth bell declared to go a m. that the late services would be celebrated by high mass. The church was thronged with worshippers to its utmost capacity and there was not even standing room for the crowd and at the last 150 could not gain entrance and crowded in the vestibules and on the steps.

Rev. Father De Roo, pastor, officiating as celebrant, robed in the Easter vestments being attended by a corps of acolytes clad in surplices and cassocks, delivered an elegant sermon which was appreciated by all. The room and altars were profusely and beautifully decorated with evergreen and fern, and many were the floral festoons. The choir discoursed Wuerth's mass in C, rendering special music at the offertory and close. Prof. W. J. Greene presiding at the organ.

The parish priest delivered a very logical discourse on Christian philosophy, under two subjects, "The mystery of the Resurrection is the sole foundation of the Catholic church," and "A reason for the hope in her beyond the tomb." The Easter offerings were in keeping with and characteristic of the usual generosity of the parish.

BEAVERTON.

La Grippe, with a tendency to pneumonia is quite prevalent in this vicinity; no fatal cases so far.

The last few rainy days have made the roads quite muddy and soft.

Considerable uneasiness is manifested by the fruit raisers in this vicinity on account of the very heavy frosts that have been dropping in of late where there is an occasional clear morning, as the pears, peaches, plums, and many early varieties, of cherries are in full bloom, and will be easily killed by the old gray king jack.

Miss Lizzie Wolf is at home suffering with the "Grippe." We hope for her speedy recovery.

BLOOD SYRUP.

Is your blood at all out of order, or in the least degree contaminated with any poisonous ingredients? Such a thing is always liable to happen to any one. The blood is constantly subjected to insidious attacks, and to maintain its purity you must be ever on your guard. A blood tonic is as necessary to the system as a tonic for the nerves. To neglect the precaution of its use is to incur the risk of the blood becoming so far contaminated that the general health will become seriously if not dangerously impaired. Blood tells. Make your blood always tell a story of good health by using our Fruitful Blood Syrup. We also have Oregon Blood Purifier and Syrup of Figs, at Hillsboro Pharmacy.
