500 ARE DEAD IN PATH OF STORM THROUGH SOUTH

Reports Received From Isolated Districts Swell the List of Casualties, While the Damage Done to Property in the States of Louisiana and Mississippi Will Total a Hundred Million Dollars.

By United Press Leased Wire.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Five hundred persons are dead in the path of a storm which raged last night through southern Europe and is expected to reach the eastern seaboard of the United States today. The storm was described as the strongest that has ever swept over this part of the continent.

The damage done to property in the United States and Europe is estimated at a hundred million dollars, and the dead are reported to be over five hundred. The storm was described as the strongest that has ever swept over this part of the continent.

ANOTHER CAR OF FLAMING TOKAYS TO BE SHIPPED TODAY

According to the announcement, the car of flaming Tokays is to be shipped today. The flaming Tokays are said to be the finest variety of this fruit, and are said to be highly prized by the highest class of connoisseurs.

PHILADELPHIA AND WHITE SOX MEET OCT. 6

First of World Series Baseball Games Between League Leaders Will Be Played on Friday in Quaker City

VON BERNSTOFF AND SEC. LANSING HOLD CONFERENCE

CLAIM GERMAN SLAIN FOR WEEK IN FRANCE 150,000

Million Men Are Now Battling Desperately in the West With the French and English Allies Making Some Gains From Their Tactically Enemy—Along the Line in the Artois and Champagne Districts.