PEACE TO SETTLE OVER ROCKFELLER COAL MINE CAMPS

Denver, Oct. 1.—The dream of seven hundred today over the Rockefeller coal mine in Denver was shattered when it was announced that the Colorado governor had ordered the ACM mine closed down. The order was signed by Gov. E. D.well, who is a strong opponent of the coal mining industry.

PEACEFUL PLANS FOR NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 1.—The Great Northern Railway has been given the right to construct a new line from New York to the west, which will open up new possibilities for the development of the western region.

MINNEAPOLIS NOT YET PREPARED TO BANISH BOOZE

Minneapolis, Oct. 1.—The Minneapolis city council has decided not to banish bootleggers, as many people have demanded. The council has decided to wait and see what happens before making any decision.

HOOTCH IS A COMFORT

New York, Oct. 1.—The alcoholic beverage trade has been greatly helped by the recent decision of the city council to allow hooch to be sold.

HOTEL OXFORD GRANTS PASS

A Queen-Etched Room, handsomely furnished with a view to the "phantom" curtain, and breakfast in bed, at $2 and $5 a night.

-demarcation

In the Garden of Eden, people are divided into two classes: those who are good and those who are very, very good. But in Utopia, people are divided into three classes: those who are good, those who are very, very good, and those who are very, very, very good.

A BAD COLD

Neglected by neglect, my cold has doubled the size of my nose, and my voice has become as thick as molasses.

PORTLAND MARKETS

Performance is compared to possibility. Ford cars are an example of this. They are superior in every way, but their production is limited by the laws of supply and demand. As a result, they are not available to everyone who wants them.
