GRANTS PASS GIRL

Miss Bernice Quinlan, daughter of dr. and Mrs. W. P. Quinlan of this city, who has been in the east the past year studying music under the eminent instructor, Prof. Carl V. Lachmund, is gaining distinction as a pianist in the eastern metropolis. In speaking of a concert given on the 15th inst. by pupils of Prof. Lachmund, the Yonkers Daily News notes in its head lines that "Miss Quinlan Stars," and accords the young lady a large measure of praise for her artistic work. The News said:

"Miss Quinlan, who comes all the way from Grants Pass, Oregon, to study under Prof. Lachmund, played part two of Mendelsshon's concertino in G minor, and part one of Greig's concerto in A minor. The peculiar merit of the playing of Prof. Lachmund's pupils, as observed by one who confesses to no technical knowledge of the plano, seems to be an evenness of execution and an assurance of capability possessed by all of them that is proof of an adequate training under favorable conditions. This quality was most emphatic in Think of it-a 214-quart double-YREKA MAN SHOOTS demeanor at the piano is absolutely STEW PAN for devoid of those mannerisms commonly associated with the artistic temperament, but it was evident as well in the playing of the younger pupils."
