"FARMER" SMITH ON DIVERSI-FICATION.

Diversification in farming has been mon text with agricultural exponents during the past few years. And none has preached the doctrine with better effect than "Farmer" Smith of the O.-W. R. & N. staff. Smith came to the west nearly a score of years ago, and for a time was with the Washington State col- stem, 94@97. lege, but of late he has been demonstrating some truths about soil tillage and crop production at the instance of the railroad corporation by which he is now employed. This company knows that where Smith can get the people to growing two blades of grass or two ears of corn were possibly none had been growing before, that prosperity will come for the farmer and that prosperous farm ers make prosperous railroads. That's why "Farmer" Smith is a mighty important spoke in the O.-W. R. & N. industrial wheel.

"Farmer" Smith came to the Rogue valley for the first time today.
