RALPH P. DAVIS TAKES YONCALLA GIRL AS BRIDE

When Ralph P. Davis boarded the train for the north one day recently no one thought to inquire into his reasons for going, therefore when he arrived on No. 53 at an early hour this morning none of his friends were at the depot with rice and old shoes to greet him and Mrs. Ralph P. Davis, who returned with him.

Salem, Nov. 19.—The ashes of W. S. Potter are floating seaward today. They were scattered on the waters of the Willamette river yesterday in fulfillment of the dying request of Potter.

County Jail Populated

The county jail is now pretty well populated for the first time in several months. Besides the regular occupants, Bailey and Pitchcock, awaiting the January term of the grand jury, Howard and L. E. Farlow have returned because of failure to liquidate the fine of $50 that had been assessed against them, and will reduce the fine at the rate of $2 per day by becoming boarders with Sheriff Smith. Glen Woolridge and Harry Briggs, who were found guilty of violation of the fish laws, and who were fined $50 each, have also returned to liquidate the fine by the jail process. They had been out pending appeals which had not been perfected.

Wm. T. Turnham Passes Away

Wm. T. Turnham, aged 51 years, died at his home this morning after having suffered for some time with pneumonia. Several weeks ago Mr. Turnham broke his leg while working at the Mountain Lion mining claim on Missouri flat. He had nearly recovered from this when stricken with pneumonia, and his weakened physical condition was unable to withstand the ravages of the disease, and death came at an early hour today. Mr. Turnham was a native of California, coming to Oregon 30 years ago. He became interested in mining, and held several promising properties at the time of his death. He is survived by his wife and a son in this city and by married daughters at Great Falls, Mont., and Tacoma, Wash. Arrangements for the funeral will be made later after word has been received from relatives.

LOS ANGELES MAY SOON EXILE THE ROOSTER

(By United Press Leased Wire.)

Los Angeles, Nov. 19.—The rooster has an organization to defend him in Los Angeles. Councilwoman Lindsey's campaign to exile him from the city has resulted in the organization of a Roosters' Rights league, which numbers among its members many residents who keep a few chickens in the back yard, and who claim cats, dogs and parrots are noisier than roosters.

BULLETS FLY IN LINE FENCE FEUD AT MOORETOWN

(By United Press Leased Wire.)

Oroville, Cal., Nov. 19.—A line fence feud broke forth into a battle of bullets at Mooretown here today. Joseph S. Dresser and William Moore, an employe of the Marchand family, fought a pistol duel, but their aim was poor. Both were taken to the county jail.

MAN INDICTED FOR SLAYING BROTHER, DEAD

Oregon City, Nov. 19.—Samuel Case, who was awaiting trial on the charge of killing his brother, Ernest, early last month, is dead here today, following an operation. A coroner's jury exonerated Case on the showing of self-defense, but regardless of this he was indicted by the grand jury.

AUTOMOBILIST JUMPS ON LOCOMOTIVE PILOT

Everett, Wash., Nov. 19.—When the automobile in which G. S. Barnes was riding was struck by a Northern Pacific train at Snohomish yesterday afternoon, Barnes leaped on to the pilot of the locomotive, thus probably saving his life. The machine was carried 50 feet along the tracks and demolished.

SEATTLE DOG RELEASED FROM THE COUNTY JAIL

Seattle, Nov. 19.—"Squirt," the dog held captive in the county jail for several days by order of Superior Judge Kenneth Mackintosh, has been returned to its owner, M. A. Torinus. Judge Mackintosh will consult jailers with reference to the dog's conduct while he was incarcerated before deciding whether to allow A. Bescloff, of Coal Field, $250 damages claimed on account of a bitten nose alleged to have been inflicted by "Squirt."
