This exhibit has drawn much attention to the Rogue valley as a favorable location for stock breeding, as well as bringing many orders to the Grants Pass breeding plant.

80 Iron Horses at Work—

The 30-horse-power caterpillar traction engine recently purchased by the Leonard Orchards company is giving good account of itself in clearing operations upon the River Banks ranch. Upon bottom lands that had grown up to willows the tractor is used in pulling a giant plow, and the willows are taken out in a hurry. The plow used in this work will cut a furrow 24 inches wide and about as deep as there is ever need to go. The willows are not even grubbed ahead of the tractor, but the heavy machine bears them down, and the breaking plow either pulls them out bodily or cuts them cleanly below the surface. It will cut through roots as thick as a man's leg, and the thirty iron horses never hesitate in the cutting.

CITY ELECTION IS TO BE DISCUSSED BY WOMEN VOTERS

The Josephine County Legislative club met at the court house Friday. Judge Gillette gave a very helpful talk on juvenile court work, which was thoroughly appreciated.

It was decided to hold a special meeting on Friday, November 26, at 2:30 p. m., to discuss the measures to come before the people of Grants Pass at the coming election. Full notice of this meeting will be given later. The legislative club is open to all women of Josephine county, the only requirement for membership being yearly dues of 25 cents to cover current expenses. The object of the club is to discuss the existing laws or those to be enacted, with a view to good legislation by intelligent voting. It is non-partisan.

GRAPE GROWERS OF JOSEPHINE COUNTY IN MEETING FRIDAY

The members of the grape growers association met Friday afternoon in the Commercial club rooms and discussed the conditions surrounding the marketing of the product of the vineyards. They appointed a committee composed of Messrs. Gale, Churchill and Demaray to commence at once the seeking of the best markets for next year's crop, and it is especially desired that arrangements be made to send the bulk of the output into the Portland market for distribution. Through the efforts of Mr. Gale, and the display which he managed at the Land Producers' show, the people of the north were made acquainted with the quality of the Rogue Tokay, and it is believed that by putting up a pack equal to the California pack that there will be no trouble in selling at profitable prices. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Gale for his work at the show. The committee was also instructed to confer with attorneys concerning certain features of the marketing of the grapes this year, as there seems to be a difference of opinion as to the rights of the shippers under their contract with the company that handled the bulk of the crop.

Food of the Gods.

Chocolate has a long reputation as a food, though its manufacture into cakes is comparatively modern. As a beverage the European found it already in high favor when he arrived in America. The Emperor Montezuma of Mexico, for instance, had fifty pitchers of it prepared for his daily consumption, in addition to the 2,000 allowed to his household. And the value of the cocoa plant made such an impression on Linnaeus that he named it theobroma, which is Greek for food of the gods.—London Standard.
