

HAS FAITH IN QUICK REMEDY FOR CATARRH

C. H. Demaray Guarantees that Hyomel Will Relieve The Worst Cases of Catarrh in Grants Pass

When one of the most reputable concerns in Grants Pass guarantees that a medicine will produce benefit or He will refund the money, it speaks volumes for the merits of that remedy.

Hyomel is not a pill nor is it a spray or lotion that must be rubbed in. It is an oil, the air of which you just breathe in your nose, throat and lungs by the aid of an inhaler that comes with every outfit.

The air destroys all germ life in the air passages and lungs and enriches and purifies the blood with the additional ozone it supplies.

The complete Hyomel outfit is inexpensive and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomel for several weeks treatment.

Remember that if Hyomel does not relieve you C. H. Demaray will refund your money.

DOLLY'S FUR COAT IS MADE EASILY

Christmas Gift For the Small Girl's Favorite.

THIS charming coat can be manufactured from leftover bits of plush or fur and so provide the small girl with a real joy.

Please notice how the coat is cut on the most fashionable lines. Of all dolls' clothing the coat is often forgotten, and probably nothing gives the small girl more pleasure and occupation to put on and take off than a topcoat with real buttons and buttonholes.

Another charming present for a little girl is a doll's house.

Secure four boxes 12 by 14 inches, which will form the four rooms. You can, if you desire, remove one end of the second story boxes for the purpose of avoiding a double door.

Make a gable roof, extending the eaves. Make two chimneys and cover them and the roof and outside walls with small tile checked table oilcloth of a terra cotta hue.

Use ordinary window glass cut in the required size and secured by a narrow Facing all around the window. Windowpanes can be made either square or diamond shaped by using strips of court plaster or paste, partout binding.

The hall floors, stairways, walls and ceilings, including the attic, can be stained in walnut, which gives a dignified appearance. Make the stairways of the style known as "mill steps" and, having no riser, about four inches in length by one and a half broad.

The walls and ceilings of the three main rooms can be covered with a dainty art ticking, held in place by a liquid glue lightly spread along the edges. Cover the floors with denim and curtain the doorways.

The kitchen walls, ceiling and floor can be covered with a gray checked oilcloth. With its range, table, chairs, blue and white enjilite ware, sweeper and a Dinah cook, all of which are to be found in the toy shops, this makes for the children the most attractive room in the house.

The furniture of the doll house can all be bought—a tiny piano, mantel and grate, with its seemingly glowing coals, brass fire set, parlor lamps, mirrors, beds and quaint little pictures.

These trays have had much vogue of late and are not hard to make.

HIS DAY OF REST.

A Town in France Where a Legal Holiday is Strictly Observed.

The jeweler's face expressed bewilderment and astonishment and amusement. He looked from the artist to me and back again at the artist. He started at the end of every sentence to say something, but the artist didn't give him a chance.

The artist had left a watch to be mended, and we were standing in front of the jeweler's shop on one of the narrow streets of Douarnenez, a town in the extreme west of France.

The shutters were up in front of the shop, and the jeweler was in his shirt sleeves, looking as if he had been waked up by our knock from an enjoyable after-dinner sleep.

The reason was that Thursday had been chosen by the jeweler for his repos hebdomadaire—the one day in seven rest imposed by law.—Herbert Adams Gibson in Harper's Magazine.

Light of a Deep Sea Shrimp.

One of the most extraordinary crustaceans ever discovered was dredged up by the Prince of Monaco from a depth of 10,000 feet. It has been named Oplophorus grimaldi. It is a sort of shrimp, and its peculiarity is that it squirts from two holes near its mouth a liquid which, on coming into contact with salt water, produces a fine pale blue light.

Absolute darkness reigns in the depths where it lives, but the little shrimp does not find it necessary to keep its light always burning. This would use up too much energy, so it squirts out the illuminating fluid only when it wants to look at something, or perhaps to attract the minute animalcules that form its food.—New York World

A Poverty-Stricken Queen.

Partly owing to the fact that she was wedded to an avaricious king and partly because she was generous with the little money allowed her Elizabeth of York, queen of Henry VII., spent but a small amount for dress. She was very often in debt, and the sums she spent were ridiculously small.

Charm Cures. Belief in charm cures is not quite extinct even today. Only a short while ago a child in East Anglia went to a chemist with a request from her mother for a spider in a nutshell to hang round baby's neck to cure his whooping cough. In the west country some still pin faith in the cure of whooping cough by administering cooked dormouse or by plucking a hair from the sick child's neck, hiding it in a piece of meat and giving it to a dog. No child will ever have the malady, others affirm, if it has ridden on the back of a bear!—London Telegraph.

Friday Weddings.

Friday is a day of which about to wed couples are extremely nervous. It is a matter of record in most cities that fewer licenses are issued on that day than on the other five of the working week. In the divorce court no such hesitancy is manifest.
