WHAT A WOMAN OF OUR NATIVE STATE SAYS.

Portland, Oregon.—"For a long time I have been so nervous I could almost scream at times, and I had spells that I could not get around. My back pained so at night I could not sleep—doctors did me no good. A lady in Gearhart recommended Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription to me so I thought I would give it a trial. I have now used four bottles and am still using it. It has done me much good."—Mrs. D. SHOEMAKER, 380 N. 10th St.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. There are no more crying spells. "Favorite Prescription" cures inflammation and female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well. Like an open book, our faces tell the tale of health or disease. Hollow cheeks and sunken eyes, listless steps, sleepless nights, tell of wasting debilitating disease some place in the body. It may be one place or another, the cause is generally traceable to a common source.

Get the "Prescription" to-day—either in liquid or tablet form, if you want to better your physical condition speedily. Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Questions of Sex?—Are fully and properly answered in The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser. ### CURIOUS ORIGIN OF A LAW.

It Was Passed in England on Account of Peter Thellusson's Will.

The Thellusson law, once enacted by the British government, was a law to regulate the disposition of property by will and to prevent the excessive accumulation of estates. It had a curious origin.

On the 27th of July, 1797, one Peter Thellusson, an English merchant of French birth, died in London, leaving a certain sum to his widow and children and the remainder of his property, then amounting to several hundred thousand dollars, to trustees to accumulate during the lives of his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren living at the time of his death and the survivors of them. The accumulation would have been enormous.

The will was contested, but was held valid in order, however, to prevent such a disposition of property in the future, parliament passed what was called the Thellusson act, or accumulations act, regulating and limiting bequests in such a way as to make great accumulations impossible.

When Peter Thellusson's last surviving grandson died, in 1856, a question arose as to whether the eldest male descendant or the male descendant of the eldest son should inherit the property, and this question was decided on appeal by the house of lords in June, 1859. The Thellusson will and the legislation growing out of it were a subject of much discussion by lawyers.—Pittsburgh Press.

EPIGRAMS BY PRESIDENTS.

Not Many Deathless Sentences Have Been Handed Down to Us. How very few things which any of our presidents said can anybody recall offhand! Washington's most frequently quoted phrase is, "In time of peace prepare for war."

John Adams talked all day and wrote diaries all night, but perhaps "Independence forever"—his toast for the very Fourth of July on which he died—is more widely known than any other one thought.

"Few die and none resign," heads Jefferson's list of deathless sentences, although parts of the Declaration of Independence are known to millions.

The doctrine keeps Monroe's name forever to the front, but his state papers, speeches and letters, like those of Madison, John Quincy Adams, McKinley, Taft and many other men long and honorably in public life, are devoid of handles—nothing to take hold of.

Rutherford B. Hayes gave us one very fine thought. "He serves his party best who serves the country best."

Jackson was forever saying "By the eternal!" but what else?

"With malice toward none" and "a government of the people," etc., are Lincoln's master strokes. However, his letters and papers are full of unique thoughts and would afford a present day cartoonist enormous opportunities.—Philadelphia Ledger

TEMPER OF WILLOWS CITIZENS HAS COOLED

Willows, Cal. Feb. 15.—The vehemence of Willows against J. V. Wilt, accused of killing W. C. Smith, had cooled early today after running to threats of violence last night. Wilt shot Smith after routing him and Theodore Jensen from their beds and marching them to where they work and forcing them to open the safe. The calmness of Sheriff Bailey saved Wilt. When a crowd indicated it intended to storm the jail, he said he would shoot if such a move were made, and this quickly ended the trouble.

KING ABSENT WHEN PARLIAMENT REASSEMBLED

London, Feb. 15.—When parliament reassembled today the sovereign was absent—the first time this has occurred since the reign of Queen Victoria. It is understood that the king is still suffering from his fall from a horse several months ago. In the king's absence the lord chancellor read his speech, urging expenditure of sufficient sums for successful prosecution of the war.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON RURAL CREDITS BILL

Washington, Feb. 15.—The Hollis rural credits bill, proposing loans to farmers at five per cent interest, was favorably reported to the senate today. Non-partisan support for it promises favorable action on it.

The bill provides for a non-partisan farm loan board, with the secretary of the treasury as a member. This board would charter local farm loan banks, which would take mortgages from farmers and issue bonds on them. These would be exempt from taxes and, moreover, the banks would charge no commissions, renewal fees or discounts. Loans may be for as long as 36 years, and payable in installments. If enough local banks are not started, the government would aid in establishing 12 of them. The committee reporting the bill claimed that it will standardize farm loans and provide a system seriously needed for the development of the nation's agricultural resources.

THINK GERMAN TORPEDO BOAT LOST IN NORTH SEA

Copenhagen, Feb. 15.—That a torpedo boat may have been lost in the North sea was indicated today by Danish fishermen's discovery of a box with 11 German letters inside and a card on which was written: "Torpedo boat now sinking, 36 aboard."

ANARCHISTS.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—Dominick Forte, believed to be an anarchist of the most vicious type, is being hunted by the New York police. They took up this search after John Allegri had protested that letters found on him, and indicating an international plot against churches and churchmen, were really the property of Forte, room mate of Jean Crones, who is wanted in an alleged plot to poison Archbishop Mundelein at a recent banquet.

One of the letters, previously attributed to Allegri, said:

"There are many men penned like dogs in Joliet (the state penitentiary). What a wonderful thing it would be if we could free them. It would be hard. F—'s there you know."

Allegri was arraigned in municipal court today on charges of attempted murder and conspiracy to murder, and bail was set at $25,000 on each count.

The letter given above, and the fact that the police found in Allegri's possession floor plans of some of the largest Chicago skyscrapers, constituted the evidence on which he was held.

Meanwhile the hunt for Crones as a poison banquet plotter, and the chain of "reds believed to be involved in an anti-clerical plot operated out of Rome, is being pushed.

Rumors have come here from many points saying Crones has been caught, but up to early this afternoon none of these had developed anything.

CHINESE PAIR HELD UP IN SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, Feb. 15.—Though tong warriors of the Suey Ong and the Suey Sing have buried the hatchet definitely, new trouble stirred in Chinatown early today.

Ah Sing, Chinese merchant, and his wife were held up on the street by three Chinese, one of whom was wounded by a bullet aimed at Sing. The others escaped without getting any of Sing's money or the $1,000 worth of jewelry his wife wore.
