FRUITDALE

Mr. Koutze left this week for Portland and other northern points. J. A. Jones, of Grants Pass, is visiting his son, Alonzo Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Alverson called on friends in Fruitdale Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Bert R. Elliott spent Sunday at Lorelei.

Marie Edwards and Mrs. Fred Smith were Fruitdale visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Cora Coustant and daughter, Lubeth, spent Saturday with Mrs. Bosma and Mrs. Underwood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Seymour, of Corvallis, stopped on their way to Ashland for a week-end visit at the Hamilton home.

Mrs. A. L. Carpenter and Mrs. Fred Carpenter entertained the Thimble club at the home of the former Thursday afternoon. After an afternoon spent with fancy work, conversation and music, delicious refreshments were served.

The box social and program given by Miss McQuiston and the pupils of the Fruitdale school Saturday evening was enjoyed by almost every member of our valley. The highest bid for a box was five dollars and fifty cents, and a nice sum was raised which will be used to purchase pictures for the school room.

MURPHY

The weather has been ideal for all kinds of farm work. Plowing is being rushed and pruning and spraying are nearly done. There is a promise of an abundant fruit crop this season and all housewives are planning on the early garden to make an agreeable change in the daily bill of fare. The dance was a success and all report a good time Saturday night. The funeral of Vernon Lindley, who was murdered in Tacoma, was held last Thursday and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Chas. T. Swenney, who was called to Missouri in January by the death of her father, returned home Sunday morning.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Our enterprising merchant, T. E. Gilmore, reports business very brisk and everyone kept busy.

Elmer Brown has bought the old Grub ranch, one of the many fine ranches on the Applegate, and has moved on to it. This is much larger than the one he has been living on and will give plenty of employment to his sons. The purchase price was $15,000. This makes the third ranch Mr. Brown has bought since locating here.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Oscar Creek mine, leave Thursday for a short visit in Portland.

Little Miss Gladys Beagle entertained the small folks of the neighborhood at her home Saturday afternoon in honor of her eighth birthday.

Mr. McArthur, of Ashland, is visiting at the home of his cousin, Mrs. T. E. Gilmore.

A number drove up to Applegate Wednesday evening to witness the basketball game between Grants Pass high and Applegate.

KERBY

Weather ideal; farmers busy; gardening in process; wild flowers plentiful.

Mining interests are booming. We are anxious to see the railroad work begin. Would like to see the dirt flying and the grade work coming this way soon. We have great hopes for the future of Kerby.

The natural resources of the country are surely sufficient to warrant a strong faith in the great development of interests of various pursuits. Mining, agricultural, gardening, stock raising, are all comparatively undeveloped and await transportation facilities and the introduction of a few live wires. With the sugar beet factory established at Grants Pass, and the transportation facilities increased, a mighty transformation of this valley and surrounding country may be looked for.

A "topsy-turvy" social is billed for Wednesday evening at the church for the benefit of the Methodist minister. The program of entertainment is to be given mostly by the little people and the program is to be followed by an ice cream social.

Basketball Games

Report of the basketball games played at Kerby on Friday evening, March 10, 1916.

The teams are composed of the pupils of the Kerby school, and contain both high school and grammar grade pupils. The teams have been organized since the holidays and have been handicapped in different ways since the organization, but by dint of energy and determination have made good progress. Miss Hague, teacher of the upper grades, has been the moving force, and deserves credit for managing the work of the pupils. Grant Caughey has assisted in the training of the boys, and has proven himself an efficient coacher.

Two games were played on last Friday evening at the hall of the W. O. W. and were well attended. The results of the games are given below:

Black Socks vs. White Socks—Black Socks: Marie Powell and Vera Turner, forwards; Ida Maurer, center; Hallie Willits and Minnie Hogue, guards. White Socks: Edna Wimer and Hilda Setth, forwards; Hazel Payne, center; Anna Adams and Wilda McCallister, guards. Score, 17 to 21 in favor of the White Socks.

Black Caps vs. White Caps—Black caps: Glenn Bigelow and Ray Turner, forwards; Will Young, center; Clifford Hogue and Lloyd Stevenson, guards. White Caps: Quincy Woodcock and Elden McCallister, forwards; Ed. Dessinger, center; James Howard and Tom Young, guards. Score, 21 to 25 in favor of the Black Caps.

The boys and girls hope to play Selma and Murphy in the near future and are willing to play any other school team in Josephine county. Any communication addressed to the Kerby School Basketball team, Kerby, Oregon, will reach them.
