FLURRY IN MARKETS BY SINKING OF SHIPS

New York, Mar. 25.—Sinking of the Dominion liner Englishman and the reported torpedoing of the British channel steamer Sussex caused heavy selling shortly before the stock market closed today. Prices broke sharply, but the buying was strong and the decline stopped altogether before the market closed. It was dull and featureless in the early morning.

Facts

GET the facts on the operating cost before you buy any automobile. Find out the truth before—not after. And don't be satisfied with hearsay or a salesman's claims. The price of gasoline is high; so is oil and there is sure to be an increase in the cost of all tires.

So, what you want is the car that will give you most miles per gallon of gasoline, per gallon of oil and per set of tires.

Here are the facts proved by the Maxwell stock touring car that recently set the World's Motor Non-Stop Record:

Maxwell World's Non-Stop Record Facts

Miles without a motor stop.....	22,023
Average miles per day (44 days).....	500.6
Miles per gallon of gasoline.....	21.88
Miles per gallon of oil.....	400
Average miles per tire.....	9,871

Remember that this was a Non-Stop Endurance Record—in order to prove that the Maxwell car was exceedingly sturdy, reliable and trouble proof.

No attempt was made or could be made to save gasoline, oil or tires. So these figures merely indicate what would be possible under ordinary driving conditions.

Right now we have a Maxwell we can deliver to you, and if you don't want to pay cash, make a deposit and pay the balance as you use the car. But don't put it off. We know the Maxwell factory can't get half enough freight cars to carry their doubled output. Later on we may not be able to supply you. But we can NOW. Better phone us for a demonstration today.

Lynn Sabin Entertains Senior Class
 Saturday morning, March 18, found the members of the Senior class of Grants Pass High School all expectant with lunches packed and autos ready for an all day trip to Table Rock, but the elements declared the time postponed and disappointment reigned full sway until Lynn Sabin, one of their number, came to the rescue with a kind invitation to spend the evening at his home on Lawnridge Avenue.

At six-thirty the jolly crowd was greeted at the Sabin home by a miniature portrait of their coveted destination, which was novelly represented by a table upon which had been placed a small rock. The jovial companions gave a ready response to the alluring call of the downy cushions of the floor as they formed in groups of threes and fours, some to devote the time to a gay participation in Some R'set while others enjoyed mirthful moments in friendly chatter.

The supper, which consisted of baked beans, salad, sandwiches, deviled eggs, pickles, cake, and chocolate, was not a minor feature of the evening, and after all had heartily partaken of this tempting repast they were royally entertained with music furnished by the Misses Nettie Fitzgerald and Anna Calvert, after which a trip to the Bijou Theatre closed the events of an evening which will not soon be forgotten by the following young people: Helen Bobzein, Helen Layton, Erma McCallister, Frieda Carter, Louise Pinkerton, Marianne Richey, Marion Sabin, Alice Randle, Ester Gilkey, Jeannette Moss, Vivian Merrill, Florence Riddle, Dora Pratt, Anna Calvert, Editha Vincent, Marguerite Wible, Pearl Youngblood, Nettie Fitzgerald, Lorene Courtney, Gordon Bradford, Garnet Best, Wilford Allen, Winfield Gilkey, Charles Hansen, Carroll Cornell, Hobart Gillfillan, Harry Edgerton, Lester Day, Willette Murray, Wallace Niles, Bert Presley, Lynn Sabin, Raymond Lathrop, Horace Hair, Mrs. George Sabin, hostess of the evening, and Miss Marion White, class supervisor.

"YAWRY" WAS 165 DAYS FROM AFRICA

San Francisco, Mar. 25.—Stories rivalling in horror Edgar Allen Poe's "Narrative of A. Gordon Pym" were told by sailors on the British bark Yawry today when it arrived here after a voyage of 165 days from Dakar, South Africa.

While seamen died of scurvy and were thrown overboard, terrible storms lashed the sails to tatters and food ran low, the rats aboard ship became so bold they ventured out in daylight and fought with the mariners for what little they had to eat. Harry Massey, a former Portland high school boy, was among five sufferers from scurvy that were lifted from the ship when it docked here and taken to St. Joseph's hospital. Three others, stricken with scurvy and beri-beri, died at sea. The negro cook also died.

For three months there was no fresh food. No land was sighted until the Cape of Good Hope had been rounded, and then it was a desolate coast far away. Only one ship was seen during the entire voyage, a steamer hull down on the horizon. Had the trip been prolonged, Captain Thomas Dunning fears more men would have died of starvation and disease. The five taken to the hospital here are seriously ill.
