

ILLINOIS VALLEY

Married, in Grants Pass on April 10th, Edward Spence and Miss Gertie White, both of Illinois Valley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James White and both bride and groom are natives of the valley and are well and favorably known. The young couple will reside in the house formerly occupied by Mrs. George Houck. A reception was given at the home of the groom's parents Sunday. On their return from Grants Pass their friends serenaded them with an old fashioned charivari and departed at a late hour after wishing them a long and prosperous voyage on the sea of matrimony.

Walter Wheeler was a Grants Pass business visitor on Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Manley, a bouncing boy. Earl says he can outclass any one of his age in the valley when it comes to lung and pugilistic performances.

Mrs. Anna Briggs and Mrs. A. J. Fuik and children were guests of Mrs. H. M. Pfeiffer on Sunday.

Claude Hasse of Merlin, is shaking hands with old friends in the valley this week.

The warm rains of the last few days are enough to make even the grouchy smile.

A Sunday school has been organized at Waldo. Meetings are held at 2 o'clock, in the Waldo school house.

GRIFFIN FERRY

G. H. Griffin and J. L. Green were Grants Pass visitors over Saturday and Sunday.

The program given by the school of district No. 57 was a success in every way. A large crowd attended and all seemed to enjoy it very much. The exercises opened by the school singing "Oregon." Miss Anderson the teacher was much surprised when at the close the president of the board read a card of thanks for the way in which she had conducted the school and the success she had made of both her school and the program.

P. T. Everton and family visited with relatives in Grants Pass over Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Green visited with Mrs. G. H. Griffin Sunday afternoon.

The little Misses Gladys Griffin and Nellie and Martha Green enjoyed a picnic by themselves. Taking their lunch and climbing nearly to the top of Griffin mountain Sunday.

Miss Maymie Branam visited with Mrs. Will Anderson Wednesday.

Mrs. J. L. Green spent Wednesday with Mrs. Joe Hill.

Misses Maymie Branam and Orpha Green spent Sunday in the Pleasant Grove district.

The family of L. L. Patterson moved to Grants Pass Tuesday. Mr. Patterson himself has been in Grants Pass for some time working. The family only waited till school was out.

FRUITDALE

Mrs. Underwood spent Monday in the city with Mrs. Weber.

Louis Rodell and Molly Metzen were guests of Annie Neilsen Sunday.

Mrs. Cora Coutant and daughter were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hamilton and called on other Fruitdale friends in the afternoon.

Mrs. John Ross, who has been sick for several weeks at her home on the Pacific highway, has gone to the hospital for treatment.

Attorney and Mrs. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Williams, of Grants Pass, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Jones.

D. A. Fitzgerald and family motored out to the Murphy ranch Sunday and were guests at dinner and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Matt Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carpenter and daughter, Lavidia, and Mr. and Mrs. George Gross made the ascent of Mt. Baldy Sunday and enjoyed picnic dinner at the top.

Harry Weber spent Tuesday in Fruitdale and attended a meeting of the school board in the evening. Miss McQuiston, who has taught a very satisfactory school the past year, was re-elected teacher for the 1916-1917 year.

MURPHY

Miss Bertha Coats visited in Murphy and attended the dance Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Allyn were callers at the L. M. Mitchell and W. G. White homes Sunday.

Mrs. Barnes has been taken to the hospital and is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Young are visiting for a few days in Grants Pass.

Mrs. Frank Hill is very sick. Lester Darnelle and sister attended the funeral of Mrs. Jennings at the Williams creek cemetery.

The Murphy road has been put in first-class condition, for which we are truly thankful. And from the number of automobiles now coming out this way it will be as popular a drive as formerly.

It is a dangerous practice to leave wagons standing in the road at night and some one will have damages to pay in case of accidents.

Mr. and Mrs. Krouse, of Kansas City, are visiting at Dr. Sweeney's and are very much delighted with the country.

Gene Hayes is doing a great amount of wood-sawing with his machine and expects to take some large contracts.

KERBY

Another good rain the first of the week makes the vegetation spring forward at a rapid rate.

On Wednesday evening a party of about thirty-five or forty of the neighbors of Mrs. S. E. Woodcock celebrated her birthday by surprising her with a visit and carrying with them a good supply of edibles and spreading a feast in her dining room. Social converse, music and games were indulged in until after ten o'clock, when the crowd dispersed, wishing Mrs. Woodcock many happy returns of April 13.

On Saturday, the 15th, Dr. Von Fossen passed through Kerby on his way to visit the M. E. church on Alto, to hold the regular quarterly conference of the church in this district.

A railroad surveying crew is now camped in the rear lot of the Pioneer hotel. They are prosecuting their work toward Takilma from Kerby. This looks encouraging to Illinois valley.

County Superintendent Lincoln Savage made the Kerby school a half-day visit the 18th. He expressed himself as well pleased with the work of the Kerby school.

Russell Farwell has returned to town, after spending a couple of weeks in the mines.

Ray Turner has been out of school several days on account of having to assist his father in the freight business. Hope he will soon return.

On Friday evening, April 28, an entertainment will be given for the purpose of raising funds to purchase a picture for the primary department of the public school. The entertainment will consist of views of the Yellowstone National park, and the views will be accompanied by an address explanatory of the scenes. Mr. Thompson, county agriculturist, will furnish the lantern for the entertainment and will also present other views. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged for the benefit of the school. The entertainment will be under the management of Miss Montgomery, who has charge of the primary school.

APPLEGATE

The Applegate school won the silver cup in Division II of the Jackson county spelling contest, held April 7, 1916, with an average of 97.82 per cent. The following pupils made 100 per cent: Leon Offenbacher, Stella Layton, Audrey Layton, Thelma McDaniel, Glen McDaniel, Fremont Jordan, Eugene Mee, Cecil Boucher, Eva Hanson, Richard Head, Dorothy Head, Bessie Head, Margaret Brown, Ray Barrow.

Stella Layton and Gladys Miller were chosen to represent the Applegate school at a spelling contest to be held at Wagner creek.

Chas. and Helen Mee, of the Central Point high school, spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents on Thompson creek.

Mrs. Geo. Herriott and family are visiting Mrs. Herriott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darnelle, of Murphy, this week.

Mrs. Abbott and grandson, Harold Mansfield, of Ashland, were Sunday guests of Harley Mansfield's family.

Geo. Herriott left Monday, for Dorris, where he has a position as engineer in a sawmill.

Mr. Garrett, our road supervisor, is having some much needed work done on the roads here.

Mrs. Wm. Light gave a farewell party for her son, Ferd, at their home on Thompson creek Saturday night. The evening was spent with games and music, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kubli, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. Ludo
