

A Woman's Trouble.

Troutdale, Ore. — "I was troubled with weakness from which women suffer and after taking two bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription I was entirely relieved." — Mrs. M. E. JOHNSON, Troutdale, Oregon.

The mighty restorative power of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription speeds causes all womanly troubles to disappear—compels the organs to properly perform their natural functions, corrects displacements, overcomes irregularities, removes pain and misery at certain times and brings back health and strength to nervous, irritable and exhausted women.

For all diseases peculiar to women, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a powerful restorative. For nearly 50 years it has banished from the lives of tens of thousands of women the pain, worry, misery and distress caused by irregularities and diseases of a feminine character.

What Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for thousands it will do for you. Get it this very day from any medicine dealer, in either liquid or tablet form; or send 50 cents to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial box of tablets.

Questions of Sex?—Are fully and properly answered in The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. It contains the knowledge a young man or woman, wife or daughter, should have. 1008 pages with color plates, bound in cloth. By mail, prepaid—on receipt of 3 dimes or stamps.

LONGSHOREMEN NOW SEEK HIGHER WAGES

Seattle, May 23.—Union longshoremen served notice on employers today that every member of their organization from Alaska to San Diego would strike June 1 unless a new schedule of wages is paid. The demands include a raise from 50 cents an hour, the present scale, to 60 cents an hour for lumber handling, and a raise from 75 cents to $1 an hour for overtime. A ten-cent hourly increase is demanded for handling creosoted lumber. It was decided to ask for increases in wages at the Pacific coast division convention of the International Longshoremen's association held here two weeks ago.

ESTABROOK CLOSES HIS CAMPAIGN HEADQUARTERS

Chicago, May 23.—Henry Estabrook, New York lawyer and candidate for the presidency in the Minnesota and Nebraska primaries, today closed his campaign headquarters at the Congress hotel, without explanation. Senator DuPont took rooms there today.

Secretary Reynolds, of the republicans, received word today of seven more contests in the Alabama delegation, making a total of 54. Chairman Hill of the G. O. P. national committee has not yet arrived. He is expected tomorrow.

Boomers for Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, are here in force. They say Fairbanks is sure of the nomination.

DAMAGE TO GRAPE CROP WILL DOUBLE THE PRICE

Sacramento, May 23.—The recent frost which damaged the grape crop to the extent of $5,000,000 will result in the price of grapes being doubled, according to E. M. Sheehan, secretary of the state viticultural commission.

Wine grapes will sell this year for from $15 to $25 per ton, while last year the price averaged $10 a ton.

POPE BENEDICT GETS PRES. WILSON'S MESSAGE

Rome, May 23.—President Wilson's reply to Pope Benedict's message, reported to have suggested peace measures, reached the vatican today.

FATIMA A Sensible Cigarette

Put Him in the Pen. "Judge, if you'll let me go I'll enlist in the army."
"No, you'll have to serve a short sentence. When it comes to effecting a reform, I think the pen is mightier than the sword."—Kansas City Journal.

Pigeons in Constantinople.
In no big city in the world are there so many tame pigeons as in Constantinople. In many squares in London there are small flocks of pigeons, but in the Turkish capital they are to be seen by the thousand. These pigeons are sacred, and, indeed, many a wealthy Turk leaves money to be devoted to buying food for them. The story of why they are sacred is rather interesting. When Mohammed, the Turkish prophet, was flying from his enemies he hid in a cavern. At the mouth of the cavern two pigeons built their nest, so tradition runs, while across the entrance a spider spun its web. The soldiers who came along some days later felt certain that no one had entered the cave, seeing the birds nesting and the spider's web, and so never troubled to enter it and search. Ever since then the Turks have held pigeons and spiders to be sacred.

Gifts of the Grass.
The grass is missed only by its absence. When we pass by a house which is minus a green lawn or grassy plot in front we exclaim, "What a blot on the landscape!" In a vague way we realize that the grass gives tone and color to outdoor life as nothing else can; that no picture is complete without it. All the beauties of the seashore—the bold rocks, the crested surf, the dashing waves, the lights and shadows which play at sunrise and sunset beside old ocean—cannot compensate for the lack of the grass beneath our feet. Friends wintering at southern beaches have told us that they grew homesick for the grassy fields and meadows of home.—Margaret Woodward in Countryside Magazine.

Naming the Baby.
Give your baby a name that will suit him or her throughout life. Let it be a euphonious, well balanced name, indicative of intelligence, character and success and one so easily written or spoken that no nicknames will ever be found necessary. If there is available a family name with these good qualities, all the better. Do not indulge in levity, do not give way to sentiment, do not surrender to affectation or romance in this matter of selecting a suitable name, and avoid novel combinations and plays upon words without loading the child down with cheap commonplace.—Dallas News.

Starting the Tears.
Her Husband—Do you know, dear, that I found my first gray hair this morning? His Wife—Oh, give it to me, John, and I'll keep it as a souvenir to remember you by. Her Husband—What's the matter with me keeping it to remember you by?—Indianapolis Star.

When France Was Washed in Holland.
In the sixteenth century clothes were sent from all parts of France to be washed in Holland, where the water of the canals was supposed to have special cleansing properties. The cost of transport was about ten times greater in those days than at present.

Out of Sight.
Country Cousin—Of course pertaters grows underneath the ground. City Cousin—Hi'm! Ye-eh, but what gits me is how you tell when they're ripe or not.—Farming Business.

When She Sees It Quickly.
"Can your wife see a joke?" "If it's in the shape of a bonnet or a dress that some other woman is wearing she can."—Detroit Free Press.
