HOLD PARENT RESPONSIBLE FOR CHILD'S DELINQUENCY

Portland, May 23.—Parents are criminally liable for the downfall of their children if the cause of the downfall can be traced to lack of parental care.
This legal precedent was established by a jury late yesterday. After 30 minutes deliberation the jurors convicted Mrs. Will Hodge for contributing to the delinquency of her 16-year-old daughter, Frances.
Mrs. Hodge, the indictment alleged, had permitted Frances to frequent public dances and all-night restaurants and to associate with men of doubtful character.
Frances Hodge was the central figure in the prosecution lately of several men and boys.

WAR CREDIT ASKED BY PREMIER ASQUITH

London, May 23.—Premier Asquith this afternoon moved in the house of commons for a war credit of £300,000,000, or $1,500,000,000.

This brings the total war credit to $11,900,000,000. Asquith declared that without loans from Great Britain the other allies would be unable to consider great operations. England can not hope at this time to diminish its loans to the allies, he said, and it would be unwise to count on British expenditures falling below $23,750,000 daily.
The expenditures now amount to $24,100,000 daily.
Winston Churchill told the commons it was unreasonable to expect the war to turn suddenly in favor of the allies. He urged that every available man be used in the prosecution of the war.

"The allies have two hundred thousand officers, with a similar number of servants," and there are in the army fifty thousand grooms," he said. "These grooms and servants should be sent to the firing lines."

Objections to Seriousness.
If everybody were able to see clearly, think straight and reach sound conclusions there could be no objection to seriousness except its mortal monotonousness. But, inasmuch as about 90 per cent of what serious people think and know and say is incorrect, the evil effect upon the social body is tremendous. It may be, probably is, equally true that 90 per cent of what nonsensical people think and know and say is incorrect, but as nobody takes them seriously, no harm is done to the community, and these nonsensical ones have at least added to the sum total of enjoyment. The people who take themselves seriously ought to be carefully selected by law and their number rigidly limited.—Life.

Goodbye coffee grinder
THE right way to protect good coffee—in vacuum sealed tins—has made grinding at home or at the grocer's unsatisfactory.

Right after Schilling's Best is roasted, it is carefully ground into even bits, the objectionable chaff taken-out, and the coffee hurriedly packed in vacuum-sealed tins.

Neither you nor the grocer can grind as uniformly as we do. And uniform grinding is one of the important reasons for the smooth, rich strength of Schilling's Best. A pound goes further.

Sold only through grocers.

Tribute to the Mule.
The mule has earned all the decorations that are worth while—the medaille militaire, the iron cross, the Victoria cross, the medal of honor, etc. As a campaigner he has no equal in any climate under the sun. He is the philosopher and stole of animals. Even his stubbornness is sometimes a virtue. The mule is permanently associated with the army's bill of fare. Strategy has saved many a beleaguered force, but the mule with his pack has often routed starvation, the worst enemy that ever threatens troops. The mule does not crave respect, but every soldier loves him. Long may he balk and talk! —New York Sun.
