Pendleton Wants Normal School

E. E. Cleaver, of Pendleton, was in the city today representing the Pendleton Commercial club's effort to pave the way for the establishment of a state normal school in the eastern Oregon city. Petitions are being circulated throughout the state, and if the necessary 25,000 signatures are obtained the voters will find the measure upon the ballot this fall. Mr. Cleaver says that under the state constitution the location of all state institutions is fixed at Salem, and that a constitutional amendment is to be proposed legalizing the institutions that are located elsewhere, as the normal at Ashland, etc., including also the normal for Pendleton. Mr. Cleaver is manager of the Cleaver Manufacturing company, makers of roof paints, when he is not working for the dear public.
