

Are You a Free American?

If you are, these two songs will appeal to you.

"WAKE UP, AMERICA"

The big "peace and preparedness" song recommended by John Phillip Sousa.

"DON'T BITE THE HAND THAT'S FEEDING YOU"

A song on the hyphenate American question. It has a beautiful melody and deals with the hyphen in a kindly way without leaving a sting. Don't fail to hear these two songs.

A second robbery took place at the Randal place on the Merlin road. The house was broken into and a rifle and automatic revolver taken. The thief also helped himself to all the food that was available of quick consumption. He failed, however, to leave his name.

Port Orford Cedar for Japan—

Forest Supervisor Macdonald has received a request to furnish one pound of Port Orford Cedar or Lawson Cypress seed to the Governor of Tokyo Prefecture, Japan for experimental purposes. The practice of forestry is relatively young in Japan, several of their foresters having received their education in the United States. One is now taking advanced work in forestry at Yale University. Through the courtesy of Mrs. C. H. Pearce of Port Orford, Oregon, who collects tree seeds for commercial nurserymen, the Port Orford seed has been promptly forwarded to Japan.
