COLLISION WITH MOTOR KILLS ONE IN NEW YORK

New York, Sept. 12.—Dashing wildly beyond the control of a green motorman, a Union Railway car collided with two automobiles in the Bronx early today and one man was killed and seven seriously injured.

Starting on the first trip of the day, the motorman, unfamiliar with the mechanism, lost control of the car, and when it reached the intersection of the two roads ran head-on into two automobiles coming from opposite directions. The car left the tracks and turned turtle and many were pinned beneath it. One of the automobiles struck was a large truck carrying laborers to their work. This truck in turn was hurled against a touring car, overturning it. Five of those injured are in a critical condition.

Sheepskin.

Sheepskin was used as parchment before the invention of paper. Even then it was a substitute for vellum, which is made from calfskin and of a far finer quality than parchment, and was employed for fine illuminated work. Tanned sheepskins are in the trade called busis. For these there are many legitimate uses, but it is for imitation purposes that the sheepskin is most largely used.

Already Knew Some of It.

ORGANIZE HUGHES ALLIANCE TONIGHT

The organization meeting of the Hughes Alliance, scheduled for this evening at the opera house, will take on the nature of a republican ratification meeting, when the result of the Monday election in Maine will be celebrated. Voters have been adding their names to the membership roll most rapidly during the past 24 hours, and there now seems no doubt about the breaking of the record when the alliance is organized, the local organization to start off with the largest membership of any in the state to date.

The Moose band will be out on the street and will head a parade that will march to the opera house, where there will be music and speaking, with the election of officers for the Hughes Alliance. The meeting at the opera house is to commence at eight o'clock, and the general public is invited to attend. The speakers will include many local republicans, both men and women, while State Organizer Toole will be at the command of the audience.

COMMERCIAL CLUB APPROVES REPORT

At an interesting session of the Commercial club held in the club rooms Monday evening a report, presented by Chairman Bramwell of a special committee appointed from the board of trustees, reported in favor of disposing of the billiard and pool tables from the club equipment and the installation in their stead of dining room equipment, where luncheons could be served club members and their guests at such times as was desired. A lively discussion followed the presentation of the report, and when it came to voting upon the report there was a unanimous ballot in its favor. The argument presented was that with weekly luncheons served in the club rooms a better spirit could be maintained and the business of the club could be furthered through discussion at the weekly meeting. The report of the committee was as follows:

"Your committee, appointed a few days ago to investigate and offer suggestions looking to the betterment of this splendid organization, beg to report as follows, to-wit:

"We recommend that the rooms now used as a billiard and pool hall be renovated throughout, the billiard and pool tables sold and dining tables and such other furniture as may be necessary bought, and that a dining room be operated at such times as may hereafter be determined by a committee you may appoint. We specially suggest that at least once each week luncheon be served, to be known as the "Commercial Club Lunch," and that other meals be served as often as may be found proper and profitable. That this said merchants' lunch be made as good as possible for a minimum charge of twenty-five cents, but that at no event shall the price exceed thirty-five cents per meal. We suggest this special meal be of such quality that strangers who come into our city from time to time can be invited to participate without embarrassment to us, but that the member extending the invitation may be proud of the lunch and the visitor go away filled with good food, and also filled to overflowing with sentiment that will speak kindly of us.

SCHOOL BOOKS

Books for the grades and the High School now on sale. Demaray's Drug and Stationery Store and thus advertise our splendid city. We suggest that each member of this body be asked to patronize this new feature regularly each week, that it may be made a grand and glorious success.

"We recommend that at each of such gatherings a short program be rendered and that perhaps at each meeting some gentleman be appointed to speak for not to exceed fifteen minutes on some subject looking to the betterment and general development of the whole, and that at different times visitors be asked to speak on such subject matters as may be deemed proper and expedient by said committee already suggested." The committee, composed of Messrs. F. S. Bramwell, Dr. Macy and Dr. Ed Bywater, was continued to have charge of the new arrangement.

N. Y. STRIKE CAUSE OF TWO DEATHS

New York, Sept. 12.—Two persons were killed, four probably fatally injured and eight are in hospitals as the result of the first serious accident since the beginning of the New York transit strike. A car manned by strikebreakers hit two automobiles.

Loren Thomas, 42 years old, and J. O. Duelfe were killed. The four probably fatally injured suffered fractured skulls.

A committee from the Central Labor union was to open negotiations today with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to persuade that organization to order out on strike those subway motormen who are among its members. Plans for a general sympathetic strike in the city have been abandoned.

Disorder was reported in various parts of the city today. A brick was hurled through a car window on Ninth avenue, one passenger being cut by broken glass. Several car riots were reported on Sixth and Seventh avenues and police reserves were ordered out.

Owing to the increased violence, Police Inspector Schmittberger issued orders for policemen to use their revolvers.

A delegation of 100 strikebreakers appeared at the city hall and protested to Mayor Mitchell that guards had been put over the men employed to take the places of strikers in the car barns used as mobilization centers. The men said they had escaped from the barns. They declared guards had been armed with night sticks and instructed to keep the strikebreakers in the barns at all costs.

FOREST FIRE NEAR SAN JOSE ALARMS

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 12.—The forest fire in the Santa Cruz mountain district became so alarming and spread so rapidly this afternoon that Charles Deering, of the Union Trust company of San Francisco, abandoned his ranch to the flames and withdrew the men trying to save the place. All telephone advices from the fire zone indicated that the blaze is a great deal worse now than it has ever been since the fire started. Sweeping forward with a mighty roar, the flames this afternoon are rushing down to the westward through the canyons to the Alpine district redwoods, about four miles away. Several hundred men have been rushed to that section and back-firing on a large scale has been begun in the hope of checking the flames before they reach these trees. Grave fears are felt that should the flames ever reach the Alpine district redwoods they can not be checked until they have swept into the region of the Big Trees.

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH LIST IS INCREASED

New London, Conn., Sept. 12.—President Wilson has decided to make a number of pre-election speeches in addition to those already scheduled—September 20 at St. Louis and September 24 at Baltimore.

The president reached this decision after a talk with Homer Cummings, vice-chairman of the democratic national committee on the train en route here yesterday. Cummings, who is charged with the duty of rounding up campaign orators, told the president he should accept a number of invitations extended him by organizations in different parts of the country where the people are waiting to be told why the democrat administration should be returned to power.

Where the additional speeches will be made will be left to the judgment of the national committee, but the president has asked that they be confined, as far as possible, to the east. His reason for this is that if he goes on an extended trip into the west he will be compelled to deliver numerous platform speeches—all of a political nature—and he wishes to avoid this, believing that the president of the United States should not campaign for re-election.

Cummings urged the president to make one speech in Connecticut and believes he may acquiesce. The president made it clear, however, that he will deliver no address before partisan organizations or at political gatherings of any kind. He will accept only invitations extended him by organizations non-political in character.

Next Monday Chairman Vance McCormick and Cummings plan to confer with President Wilson at Shadow Lawn relative to this feature of the campaign. The meeting was to have been held yesterday, but the illness of the president's sister necessitating his trip here resulted in a postponement.

President Wilson retired early aboard the yacht Mayflower last night and was not informed of the Maine results until this morning. He made no comment.

FIRE IN HOLD OF THE BEAVER EXTINGUISHED

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—The Portland-San Francisco steamer Beaver is back at her dock this morning, little the worse for her experience last night, when fire was again discovered in her hold and the vessel was towed to the Mission flats and its hold pumped full of water.

The origin of the fire is unknown. The hold contained a quantity of baled excelsior, which caused the fire to smoulder hours after it was thought to be extinguished yesterday and to break out later.

TEN LOST LIVES IN QUEBEC BRIDGE COLLAPSE

Quebec, Sept. 12.—Ten workmen lost their lives when the central span of the Quebec bridge collapsed yesterday as it was being lifted into place, the St. Lawrence Bridge company, contractors, announced this afternoon after completing a roll call of their employes.
